Hi-Steppers Devote Time For Practice

Few people would endure 90 to 100 degree weather for the sake of a group. Yet the Hi-Steppers have done precisely that. The past summer was devoted to learning new routines in preparation for the series of performances scheduled for the group.

Summer months were filled with performances for groups such as the Mississippi Legal Secretaries Banquet, Neshoba County Fair, Jackson Country Club, Camp Shelby, and the activation of the new ETV facility at Starkville.

One could say that the "i" in Hi-Stepper stands for involvement which the group has proven since its beginning in 1951. Wherever the action is, that is normally where the Steppers can be found. Some examples of this would be such outstanding trips as the New York World's Fair in 1965, the Gator Bowl, Miss America Parade and the Mardi Gras in New Orleans.

All Hi-Steppers went through an intensive training program prior to the recent New Orleans Saints game performance, practicing as long as six to eight hours a day. These rigorous practices paid off as, according to director, Mrs. Alon Bee, "anything worth doing, is worth doing to the best of one's ability. This ability shown by this year's group has resulted in invitations to perform across the nation."

Every member of the group feels privileged to represent Hinds and strives to warrant the official declaration of "Ambassadors of Goodwill for the State of Mississippi." Other than self satisfaction for a job well done, the girls receive no reward or scholarship for their perseverance.

Maid Elections Set To Be Held Oct. 1

Balloting for the election of three freshmen and four sophomore homecoming maids will be held Tuesday, Oct. 5, in the foyer of the Student Union Building from 9 a.m. till 3 p.m.

Petitions are available in the Dean of Students office from Sept. 17 through Oct. 1. These petitions, signed by 20 persons must be turned in to the Dean of Students no later than 3 p.m. on Oct. 4.

To be eligible for nomination, the girls should be carrying at least fifteen hours at the time of nomination and election. Sophomores must have a "C" average or above and must not be on conduct probation.

Freshmen girls must attain a slip from all their teachers stating that they are doing satisfactory work. Freshmen girls must also not be on conduct probation.

The Sophomore student receiving the most votes will be crowned Homecoming Queen at halftime activities at the Northeast vs. Hinds football game on Saturday, October 16 at 7:30 p.m.

Third In Competition

Circle K Receives Award At International Meeting

By RICH GOULD

Hinds' Circle K Club was awarded Third Place in Achievement in the organization's 16th annual International Convention held in Chicago, Illinois, August 25-28.

The award was presented to the club in recognition for its service to both the community and campus. The achievement report, which lists and describes the club's activities, totaled over 2300 hours of service by the club members.

Competition

Hinds was in the competitive division with such universities as Louisiana State University, Princeton, and the University of Pennsylvania.

More than 800 Circle K members from the 1,000 Circle K clubs in the United States, Canada, and Europe were in attendance for the convention at the Sheraton-Chicago.

Seventh Year

This year marked the seventh straight year the Hinds club has placed in Awards Competition. For the five previous years, Hinds has placed in the top five in Single Service.

Two of those five years the Hinds organization has won the first place award and the other three it has won Honorable Mention.

Circle K is a men's organization sponsored by Kiwanis International and the Hinds Service club is sponsored by the North Jackson Kiwanis Club.

Delegation

Hinds' delegation included Gene Singleton, immediate past club president; Rusty McMillan, club secretary; David Womack, Lt. Governor for the division from the Hinds club, and Bob Hodges, club advisor.

Hodges remarked, "This is the seventh straight year this club has placed in International competition. This club is one of the limited few that can claim such recognition."

Circle K meets every Thursday night in the Senate meeting room of the Student Union Building. Membership is by invitation.

Eagle Staff Offers 1970-71 Yearbooks

Students who have not received their 1971 yearbooks can still pick them up in the Public Relations Department on the first floor of the Student Union Building.

Annuals were not mailed out to any student.

Only academic day and vocational day students who attended Hinds last year will be eligible to receive an annual. Students must present I.D. cards.

Students interested in working on the "Eagle", the college annual should contact Carolyn Wooten, Eagle Editor.

Applications can be secured in the Public Relations room. Freshmen or sophomores are eligible for positions as editors in the fields of organizations, sophomore and freshman classes, art, features, sports, copy, photography and activities.

New Constitution Ratified At First Senate Meeting

New Apportionment Program Adopted Control Of MASH And WASB Halted

By RICH GOULD

Constitutional changes and ratification were the main objectives for the first Student Government meeting for this school year.

Jerry Allen, ASB president stated, "For the last two years the Senate has not been working under a legal constitution, so if we want anything done we must accept one tonight (Tuesday, Sept. 14)".

The Senate obliged with acceptance by acclamation. Under the newly approved constitution the major changes were eliminating Senate control over the MASH (newly formed Executive Council for men) and the WASB presidents. From now on the two will be considered as Senators to the Senate and will be recognized as an organization.

More Changes

Other changes were setting up an apportionment program where as any organization possessing or wishing Senate admittance should maintain twenty or more members on their permanent roll.

Other Senate business consisted of adoption of the new ASB Commissioners to the Senate. These four members will assist the ASB president in such areas as Elections, Rules and Procedure, Public Relations and Social Affairs.

Commissioners

The Approved Commissioners for this year are Dennis Bledsoe, Rules and Procedures. He is a sophomore, majoring in general business. He will be attending Mississippi State next fall with hopes of becoming a Certified Accountant.

Elections chairman, Steve Headley is also a sophomore, majoring in Engineering. Transferring to Mississippi State he is working toward a career as a Civil Engineer. In high school he participated in Mississippi Boy's State.

More Commissioners

Chris Smith, Social Affairs chairman from Memphis, Tenn., plans to be of Collegiate Civitan, a men's service organization on campus.

Journalism major, Rich Gould, Public Relations Commissioner, is a Forest Hill graduate. This year he is serving as Editor of The Hindsonian, the campus newspaper, a member of Circle K and past president of the Newman Apostolate.

Elections

All of these commissioners were accepted by acclamation.

Insurance Deadline Posted For Oct. 10

Deadline for the Pilot Life Insurance policy is posted for Oct. 10.

All students attending Hinds Junior College on a full time basis are eligible for this coverage. There is no residence requirements.

The rates for the coverage is $16.00 per student for the school year or $21.50 for the entire year.

The plan is designed to supplement present hospitalization insurance, and the limited first aid health services available at the college.

Identification cards may be obtained in the Dean of Students office after coverage has been taken out.

Waiting Lines Irk Eaters; Food For Thought Needed

Hinds Junior College is pleased with the food and service that Mississippi Valley Food Service has provided for us this first month. With better service and a better variety of food offered, the student is more apt to use facilities offered.

However, as all new operations begin to work there is a certain factor of corrections to be made and worked out. One of the big drawbacks of the meal service is the long waiting lines that exist both at lunch and supper. There are many complaints about this and many students would like to see it remedied, especially no what cold weather is on the way.

It may be time now to utilize some of the suggestions made in the past, such as marking the I. D. cards for those buying meals on campus, distributing the meal tickets to the dormitory for the students living on campus, or providing a meal card for a set price and having it punched as you go through the line as last year.

Other than this one problem, the Hinds cafeteria has an ideal set-up and the students are well pleased.

Student's Catalogs Unread

In my work with the new students during orientation this year it was a clear indication that not many students bother to read their catalog.

Students fail to realize that just a simple glance in the right places may keep them in school or leave them out. For instance, under withdrawal from school in the academic regulations it is stated, "If a student leaves school before the completion of a semester and fails to properly withdraw or to notify a college official within two weeks after the last class attendance, grades of F will be assigned on all courses carried."

This could mean bad news for some students. But if one would read the school catalog matters could be cleared up with little difficulty.

Several administrators have approached me with some means to eliminate some of the problems and questions students have come up with. Not that they consult me or don't like work, but rather a way of letting you know what's going on. As one said, "We want the students to know their rights."

Our school officials are not out to rob, scalp or stick you for anything. That may sound like a conservative viewpoint to some of my fellow classmen.

To throw a plug in, if any students may come up with some questions, gripes or brainthrust and would like to see them in print The Hindsonian offers a "Letters to the Editor" column. Whenever any letters come into the office its views may be expressed and if desired answered by the administration or other group they may be directed to. So utilize your opportunities and make the best of your school newspaper.

Good luck in your work and year.—RG

1935-1971

Funeral services for Carl D. Winstead, 36, Hinds Junior College faculty member and resident of 1355 Woodell Drive, were held at 12:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 13, 1971 in the Wright and Ferguson Chapel with the Rev. Robert M. Kates and the Rev. H. G. Winstead officiating. Interment was in Lakewood Memorial Park.

Mr. Winstead died unexpectedly after an apparent heart attack suffered about noon Saturday. He received his B.S. degree at Mississippi State University and his Masters degree from the University of Mississippi.

He had been a resident of Jackson since 1963 and was a former teacher at Central High School.

For several years he has been an instructor in Biological Science at Hinds Junior College.

He was a member of Galloway Memorial United Methodist Church; a member of the Mississippi Education Association; and a member of Shady Oaks Country Club.

Survivors are his wife, the former Betty Jo Dear; one daughter, Karlynnne Jennifer Winstead of Jackson; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Winstead, of Burns; one brother, H. D. Winstead, of Jackson; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Rogers, of Sylva, and Mrs. Bobby Alford, of Monticello.

Pallbearers were Gary Crumpton, Jim R. Kelly, Joe Marcus Wyatt, Tom M. Olsen, Chalmis Stinson, and T. P. Taylor.

COUNSELOR—Involvement with students was one of Mr. Winstead's "occupational hazards" but to the students it was encouraging to sit down to a friendly smile and efficient helper in the most non-efficient time of registration.

TEACHER—To find an instructor who knows his profession and enjoys teaching it has been rare to find. Mr. Winstead was not only, he inspired.

Extra-Curricular Activities Offered

Reading, writing and arithmetic does not complete a student's education. In fact, this is only a start, and the student himself must take what knowledge he gains in the classroom and apply it to his life. The best way to complete one's education and become a useful, successful part of the world is to work, or maybe even lead people. An extensive program of extra-curricular activities is offered to the students at Hinds. Each student is urged to take advantage of these opportunities according to his interest. You can help yourself and others at the same time.

There is a total of 36 clubs and organizations for students who want to take part. The wide range of student activities covers athletic, musical, dramatic, academic, social, and religious emphasis.

Circle K members have won in international awards for their work on service projects, and they are in charge of the sets for the Miss Hinds Pageant, among others.

The Civitan chapter is one of the newer clubs on Hinds campus, entering its fourth year this fall.

ASTRA, a service organization, sponsors an annual Easter Egg hunt for the children in a Jackson Children's Home. Samothrace is sponsored by the Jackson Business and Professional Women's Club, and it is the first club of its kind in the state.

The WRA is in charge of Women's intramural sports. Lamplighters Club is an organization for those girls interested in Home Economics. Hinds also offers Agriculture Club, the Pharmacy Club, and the DMT Club.

Delta Psi Omega is a National honorary dramatics fraternity, formed at Hinds in 1961. Alpha Rho Tau is an honorary Art Club sponsored by the Art Department. Phi Theta Kappa is made up of students who rate in the scholastic top ten of the college. This is a national honor society for Junior Colleges.

The Hinds Hi-Steppers, one of the best known organizations of Hinds Junior College, is directed by Mrs. Anna Bee. The group performs at various places throughout the year.

The Concert Choir, the Girls Ensemble, and the Clefs give concerts both on and off campus while the Eagle Band plays for football games and parades.

The Lendon Players is a group for students with dramatic interest. The Nursing Club is offered for Nursing Students.

Publications at Hinds include the "Eagle", the campus year book, and "The Hindsonian", monthly newspaper.

The campus Senate is the legislative branch of Hinds student Government. The Debate Club, sponsored by the speech department, has won many state championships.

There are five religious organizations on campus: BSU, made up of Baptist students, The Newman Apostolate, a Catholic organization, the Wesley Foundation, for Methodists, and The Westminster Fellowship, for Presbyterian students. Three years ago, Hinds organized a chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Each student organization should file a copy of its constitution and a list of its officers with the President of the Senate. Arrangements for regularly scheduled meetings places should be made with the person in charge of the building that is desired. The people in charge of available buildings are: Mr. John Maxwell — Main Auditorium, Mr. Leslie Reeves — Fine Arts, Mr. Renfro — Men's Gym, Mrs. Hall — Student Union, and Mrs. Warren — Women's Gym.

The Calendar of events for extra-curricular activity is maintained in the Dean of Student's Office. Any request about special events or campus-wide events must be approved by the Calendar Committee at least two weeks in advance. Proper forms for request of scheduling of events are available in the Dean of Student's Office.

Students need to show their I. D. cards to check out book from the library, cash checks at the business office and the Book Store, and vote in student elections. The I.D. card can also be used for admission to regularly scheduled, on-campus athletic events and to receive a college annual. If you attend Junior College athletic events out of town and wish to be admitted at student rates, show your I.D. card.

for the students on the Hinds' campus. Throughout the year the A.S.B. sponsors various activities. One of the first events of the year is Homecoming with our Homecoming game on October 16. Your A.S.B. game on October 16. Your A.S.B. officers are working hard to make this Homecoming a memorable one for the students and Alumni of Hinds Junior College. We urge you to get involved in the Homecoming activities and give our football team the support they deserve.

Remember that this year will be exactly what you make it and if you want it to be a good year, you can make it one. All students are invited to watch your student government in action each Tuesday night in the Senate Room of the Student Union at 6:30. We thank you for your support so far and encourage you to continue to support your Associated Student Body.

students survived. Oh, there were many complaints; but surprisingly these were outnumbered by constant displays of patience and good humor.

It seems that this year the students of Hinds have decided to get off of their apathy and do something. Your Student Government officers are hoping that this trend will continue throughout the year because your support and spirit are vital to the success of this school year.

Congress Faces Backlog

Congress faces a backlog of 39 major legislative items and five appropriation measures as it returns to work after a four-week recess. In the words of House Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford (R-Mich.), "While time marches, the Congress crawls."

At the top of the list is President Nixon's crash program to get the economy going. The three measures Congress must approve are: (1) repeal of the ten percent auto excise tax, (2) increased personal income tax exemptions to $700 starting next year instead of in 1973, and (3) a ten percent job development tax credit for one year and five percent thereafter to encourage industrial investment and more jobs.

The next priority item is reactivation of the draft until mid-1973. The President's plan for a phase-out of the draft after 31 years' operation (with a year's lapse in 1947-48) was passed by the House and awaits Senate approval. The Mansfield amendment requiring American troops to leave Vietnam within nine months now reads as a "sense of the Congress" resolution that the troops be withdrawn as soon as possible — language that may displease the Senate, although it won House approval on a 298-104 roll-call vote.

Other measures Congress faces include:

* Revenue Sharing: The President's seven-bill, $15 billion plan to give more power to the states awaits concrete Congressional action. The $5 billion general revenue sharing package awaits further Senate hearings. But three of the six special revenue sharing bills have not even been scheduled for hearings.

* Higher Education: The President's proposed legislation to refocus college aid toward low-income students passed the Senate in modified form and is up for further consideration in the House. The proposed National Foundation for Higher Education has not been considered.

* Environment: The Administration's $18-billion plan of 1971 has yet to reach the floor of either house in any form. At the top of the list are a sulfur-emissions tax, ocean dumping regulations and a land use policy act.

* Health Care: The debate continues over the Administration's "health maintenance organizations" plan and Sen. Edward Kennedy's $74 billion universal health care plan. Hearings have not been completed. The President's $100 million cancer cure campaign awaits further House hearings.

* Drugs: The "war on crime" announced by the President last June now depends on ammunition from Congress. The $155 million program includes setting up a special action office for drug abuse prevention in the White House.

* Campaign Financing: The Senate passed one version in August and the House will begin hearings this month on its political broadcasting and campaign spending bills. The White House has indicated it prefers a comprehensive attack on the high cost of running for office.

* Government Reorganization: — President Nixon's plan to regroup the federal government's agencies along functional lines is far down Congress' priority list. White House Congressional liaison chief, Clark McGregor, says this plan will be the hardest to get through Congress.

* Welfare Reform: The Family Assistance Plan — "the most important social legislation in 35 years" — was passed by the House in June and begins further hearings in the Senate. Under the President's new economic plan, FAP would not go into effect until 1973, even if passed this year.

Other measures include funding for implementing school desegregation, Office of Economic Opportunity reorganization, no-fault auto insurance, realignment of foreign assistance programs, and direct election of the President — which President Nixon supports.

On top of these legislative measures, Congress must pass five appropriation bills, totalling more than $80 billion, to complete the funding for fiscal 1972 — now into its third month. These bills break down as follows:

Defense Department	$73.3 billion
Dist of Columbia	0.9 billion
District of Columbia	0.9 billion
Foreign Assistance	3.6 billion
Military Construction	2.3 billion
Public Works	4.6 billion

Cafeteria Manager Asks For Opinions

Hinds students are to be offered the chance to present workable solutions to the lengthy lines in the school cafeteria.

Managers of the facility recognize the problem which exists and wish to know students ideas to remedy the situation.

One suggestion which has been offered is a "quick-line" which would serve only soups, sandwiches, salads and Cokes. The management considers student ideas one of the best methods of improving cafeteria conditions and would like to know student reactions to such a line.

Cafeteria management would also like to post official serving hours. They are as follows:

Breakfast: 7:00-7:45.
Lunch: 11:15-1:15.
Supper: 4:30-5:45.
Supper: 4:30-5:45.

Sophomores are asked to give their reactions to the new arrangement in the grill. Students having an opinion on this topic are asked to contact Mr. John Alexander. Any suggestions or comments will be considered carefully.

"We plan to offer more in the way of pastries, and other foods," stated manager Alexander.

Students who are interested in working in the grill or cafeteria are asked to contact Mr. Ricks in the Financial Office.

ASB Asks Assistance

Hinds Junior College opened its doors for the 1971 fall session. Returning students no doubt noticed the changes that have taken place on campus: girls may now stay on campus until 10 p.m., the cafeteria is under new management, and our campus now displays more sidewalks and parking area than ever before.

Along with the changes, came problems that were not entirely anticipated. (For example, the incredibly long line in front of the line in front of the cafeteria at lunch time.) Despite the problems, however, the Hinds Junior College

robert m. mayo

Because of the desire of the citizens and taxpayers of our four-county area and their willingness to underwrite the cost, they have insured that every young man and woman has the opportunity to obtain the first two years of a liberal arts education or two years of technical training that will equip them for employment in our rapidly growing industrial and business community. You have become the recipient of an excellent bargain in higher education. In fact you will pay only 11.2% of the total cost of your education at Hinds Junior College. Local and state tax funds provide the remainder of this cost.

From the vantage point of several years experience in observing high school graduates entering into the new freedom they find on the college campus, we feel compelled to offer some advice. Your success or the lack of it in college will depend upon how well you are able to budget and use your time. Some never master this art. Much more preparation and time spent in the completion of your assignments will be required of you. We have observed that some Freshmen never seem to be able to tear themselves away from the convivial atmosphere of the Student Union grill. After a semester of this enjoyable companionship they have become academic casualties and become a drop-out statistic. Self discipline, if not already acquired, must be quickly learned on the college campus. There is no "royal road to learning" and no brownie points given for good intentions. Decisions about the use of your time can be made only by you and as a young adult you are equipped to make and live with the results of your decisions.

We feel a growing sense of pride in the teaching faculty of Hinds Junior College. They were selected to come to Hinds and they elected to remain here because they are dedicated to quality teaching. All of us, from the academic dean, to the newest faculty member, to the young instructor out of graduate school, share the common philosophy concerning our work, i.e. teaching and learning are the most important things that take place on this campus; all other activities and responsibilities are secondary.

FLOYD S. ELKINS

Floyd S. Elkins, Academic Dean, began his career as a teacher in 1951 as an athletic director and head football coach in his home high school in Sealy, Texas.

Elkins received his B.S. and Masters degree from the University of Texas in Austin, Texas. And in 1964 he received his Ph.D.

Prior to coming to Hinds he held positions as football coach and school principal in several different schools in Texas.

MISS FAY MARSHALL

Miss Fay Marshall, Dean of Women, is a former executive director of the South Central Alabama Girl Scout Council. In 1961 she resigned this position and attended Mississippi College, earning her Masters degree in Guidance and Counseling.

A graduate of Mississippi College for Women, she has also attended Colorado State College.

She is a native of Rankin county, and had taught at Pearl High School and Brandon High School before coming to Hinds in 1962.

Part I Know Your Administration

This is the first of a two-part series featuring the ten members of the Hinds Junior College Administration. Working closely with President Robert M. Mayo, these officers administer the overall policy and program of the college as adopted by the Board of Trustees.

Floyd S. Elkins, Academic Dean.

William C. Oakes, Dean of Students.

Fay Marshall, Dean of Women.

E. Rosser Wall, Administrative Assistant to the President.

Mildred L. Herrin, Registrar.

Grady L. Sheffield, Business Manager

Virginia M. Riggs, Librarian.

Jack C. Treloar, Superintendent of Farm and Physical Plant.

Robert E. Hodges, Public Relations Director.

ROBERT M. MAYO

Dr. Robert M. Mayo assumed the position of Hinds Junior College President in 1965 following the retirement of G. M. McLendon in mid-summer.

Prior to taking over this position Mayo served as vice-president for six years. Before that time, he was superintendent of the Clarksdale schools and superintendent of education in Hinds County.

Mayo is a graduate of Millsaps College, where he received his B.A. degree, and has a Masters degree from Peabody College and an honorary doctorate degree from Millsaps.

WILLIAM C. OAKES

William C. Oakes has been at Hinds for 16 years, and has served as tennis coach, Intramural Sports Director, and Assistant to the Dean of Men.

Oakes graduate from Mississippi Southern College (now known as University of Southern Mississippi) with a B.S. and a Masters in Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

He is a guidance counselor, directs testing, and represents the Administration in Student Government.

IVAN ROSAMOND

Ivan Rosamond attended Hinds, the University of Mississippi, University of Wyoming, and then graduated from Mississippi Southern College (now University of Southern Mississippi) with a B.S. and Masters in Health and Physical Education.

He has been at Hinds since 1960 and has held the positions of football coach and head track coach.

Rosamond started his teaching career in Laurel in 1956 after serving four years in the United States Air Force.

The Dean of Men is entering his third year at Hinds in this position.

Hinds Presidents Attend Conference; To Convene Oct. 1

Dr. Robert M. Mayo, president of Hinds and ASB president, Jerry Allen will depart Oct. 1 for a President to Presidents Conference to be held in Washington, D. C.

The conference is designed to facilitate exchange between student body presidents, their college or university presidents, high ranking government officials of the present administration and other prominent national political figures.

National Student Congress

The October conference is only the first part of proposed dialogue. All student body presidents in attendance at the October meeting will be eligible to participate in the National Student Council in February.

The February Congress allows student leadership to respond to the government spokesmen heard at the October conference and to draft formal political position papers and legislation.

Student Resolutions

Last year's Congress passed eighteen resolutions on subjects ranging from withdrawal from Indo-China to government economic policy.

The elected steering committee from the Congress went to Washington and personally presented the proposals to President Nixon and other congressional and executive leaders.

This year's President to Presidents Conference will include both major addresses and many small briefing sessions with agencies of special interest to students.

Distinguished Speakers

They are anticipating the following representatives to participate — HEW Secretary Richardson, Attorney General Mitchell, Interior Secretary Morton, HUD Secretary Romney, presidential advisors Kissinger, Ehrlichman and Rumsfeld and EPA administrator Ruckelshaus.

The Conference is sponsored by the Association of Student Governments.

Business Manager Finishes Trip For Accrediting School

Business manager, Grady Sheffield, departed Saturday, Sept. 18 on an evaluation committee trip to Craven Technical Institute in Newburn, North Carolina, for the purpose of accrediting the school for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Sheffield stated that the purpose of his trip was not that of accrediting the school directly but rather to follow up on a self-evaluation made by the school earlier.

He analyzed both the Physical and Finance Plans which are two of nine divisions in the evaluation system.

New Officers Revealed By Hinds Student Nurses

By BRENDA BOYKIN

Carla McNamee, president of Hinds' Student Nurse Association, has announced the new officers and revealed plans and goals set by the association for this year.

The new officers are Carla McNamee, president; Sandra Beasley, first vice-president; Ollie Thomas, second vice-president; Jackie Spence, corresponding secretary; Wanda Munton, recording secretary; Nadine Harvey, treasurer; and Ella Garner, recruitment and membership chairman.

This year Hinds has forty-eight freshmen and forty sophomore nursing students. They have plans to sell candy, Christmas pins, and candles to raise money for the Student Nurse Association.

The Nurses Association also plans to send nursing students to various clubs and high schools in the Jackson area to make speeches and to create interest in the Hinds' nursing program. They also hope to recruit new students in this way.

There will be a nursing convention on the Gulf coast on November 12 and 13. Many of the nursing students plan to attend. The nurses will represent Hinds at the Mississippi State Health Expo that will ty attended workshops in Chapel Hill, North Carolina and in Hattiesburg this summer.

Miss Mildred Rives attended a workshop in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, during the week of June 21. This workshop was sponsored by the University of North Carolina for the purpose of improving the teaching of psychiatric and mental health concepts in associate degree nursing programs.

Miss Rives met with twenty other representatives from schools throughout the South to procure overall assignments for the Hinds nursing faculty.

In order for the participating schools to remain in close contact another workshop is planned for October and a conference to include the directors from the twenty-one colleges is planned for later in the year.

In August Miss Rives, Miss Eunice Pace, Hinds' Nursing director, and Miss Nancy Joe Stewart, sophomore nurses' instructor, attended a workshop in Hattiesburg. Miss Pace was a member of the planning committee and was a group leader at this workshop. The workshop was held at the University of Southern Mississippi and concerned behavioral objectives and evaluations.

NEW FACILITY OPEN

Vo-Tech Department Adds New Wing

Vocational-Technical education is seeing a new growth on the Hinds Junior College campus with the addition of a new 16,000 square foot wing that has been added to the present facility which houses a student center, the off-set printing department, sheetmetal department, and the building construction management department.

The new facility was funded through the State Agriculture and Industrial Board, the Vocational-Technical division of the State Department of Education and Hinds Junior College.

Offset Printing

Offset printing at Hinds includes several areas of study such as preparatory, presswork, and operation of bindery equipment as well as instruction in layout, camera, stripping, and platemaking.

The presswork includes actual experience on all the presses that are available and in addition, instructions on regular maintenance and the adjustments a pressman is called upon to make are taught. The student is instructed in the operation of the various bindery equipment including the paper cutter, drill, stitcher, perforator, folder, and plastic binder.

Instruction of the offset printing course will include: the history and principles of offset, the basic principles of pricing, inks and color matching, paper sizes, weights and grades, new developments in the field, and basic knowledge of the various equipment we do not have available.

Sheetmetal

Students interested in careers associated with sheetmetal may receive instruction in the principles of bending, forming, and shearing of metal. The student will receive instruction in all types of welding, cutting, soldering, and brazing processes that are in relation to metal work. He will also become acquainted with all types of metal, metal gauge and for what each type of metal can be used.

Instruction in this program will also include: basic math, geometry, orthographic projection, parallel line, radial line and triangulation development, triangulation and layout procedures. The student will learn to work from shop drawings, blueprints, elevation views, scales and dimensions, structural details, blueprint specifications, and symbols for sheetmetal trades.

Management Program

Hinds' Construction Management Program is designed to meet the needs of the students and of modern building industry. This program consists of bricklaying, carpentry, and plumbing and students may take either of the three phases of construction management or the total program.

Through class room lectures, individual instruction, and practical experience, the student in the bricklaying course learns to lay building materials such as brick, structural tile, concrete blocks, and other's ones to construct or repair walls, partitions, arches, sewers, and other structures. Using a trowel, the student learns how to properly use mortar which serves as a binder for the brick.

Carpentry

Carpentry students learn how to properly construct, erect, install, and repair structures and fixtures of wood, plywood, wallboard and other building materials. The student studies blueprints, sketches, and building plans for information as to the type of material required and he is also taught how to select specified types of lumber or other materials. Through practical experience, the student learns how to properly use these materials to build the desired structure.

The plumbing program trains the student to lay out, fabricate, assemble, install, and maintain piping, piping systems, and drainage systems according to specifications and plumbing codes.

Largest Choir In History Of College Announced

Leslie Reeves, director of the Hinds Junior College choir, has announced that 107 freshmen and sophomore students will make up one of the largest choirs the college has had.

"Later during the school year auditions will be held to select a concert choir which will consist of around 60 voices," commented Reeves. The concert choir will be available for concerts in local high schools and churches at the beginning of second semester.

Concerts

The college choir will participate in three concerts which include the annual Christmas program, the Junior College Choral Festival, and the Spring Concert.

Mrs. Geneva Reeves will direct the girls ensemble and the Clefs this year and both these groups will also be available for concerts. The men's ensemble will be directed by Barney McCann and they too will be singing for various groups throughout the school year.

College Conference Received By Hinds

Hinds Junior College will welcome Presidents, Academic Deans, and Business Managers for all the Junior and Senior Colleges in the State of Mississippi to the Junior and Senior College Conference to be held Oct. 4 and 5 in the Meeting Room of the Student Union Building.

The conclave, headed by Mississippi State President William Giles, will meet beginning at 1:00 p.m. to discuss problems that concern both Junior and Senior College campuses. The major topic of discussion in past years has been that of transferring of credits from one school to another.

The 150-200 delegates to this meeting have changed format for this year and hope to have fewer speakers and more discussion groups. The main topic of discussion for this year will be the CLEP program, which allows a sophomore to receive credit by testing. Other problems of credit work by examination will also be discussed.

Students are asked to cooperate with parking arrangements made by the school for this meeting by using parking lots other than the one west of the Fine Arts Building.

Librarian Sets Year's Hours

Virginia Riggs, head librarian, has announced that the library will be open at 7:45 a.m. and close at 10:00 p.m. and on Fridays will close at 4:00 p.m.

Students who wish to use the library must have their identification cards in order to check out books.

Reserve books are those placed on reserve by the librarian and faculty. These books are located behind the check-out desk and must be requested at the desk. Reserve books can be checked out any day fifteen minutes before the library closes, and must be returned promptly the next morning when the library opens. The check-out time for the general collection is two weeks.

I. D. Remakes Set For Mon., Sept. 27

Grady Sheffield, business manager, stated that remakes for I. D. cards will be made Monday, Sept. 27 in the Meeting Room of the Student Union from 11:00 - 3:30 p.m.

Any student who has not had their I. D. card made during registration is requested to do so at this time.

A student must possess an I. D. card for admission to on-campus college-sponsored activities, library and Student Union Building. The card will also be used for identification at the Business Office, Campus Bookstore and Campus Security Office.

There is no charge for this card.

1971-1972 Team

Women's Volleyball Organized

By ESTELLA SANDERS

Volleyball teams are now being organized for all those women students currently enrolled in Hinds Junior College. These teams will be directed by the Womens Recreation Association of Hinds Junior College.

Last year's volleyball team took the State title during the 1970-71 season under the leadership of sophomore Cindy Rutledge, who also won most outstanding player.

Returning

Returning to the 71 team will be veteran players Mary Beth Grogan, Beth Sanders, Beth Horn, and Merilyn Nevels.

WRA is planning to keep the girls gym open nightly for all those interested in joining a team or perhaps for practice purposes. For those teams wishing to use the gym facilities for a means of practice it is asked that you first get in touch with Mrs. Warren or Mrs. Rabalais in order that there will be no conflict with other teams or school activities.

Last Year

Last year's participation in the volleyball and other WRA programs lacked in number which resulted in little competition for the teams holding membership. Participation is urged not only for competitive purposes but for physical fitness.

Volleyball competition on the college level is a widespread sport in Mississippi for the female students. Very few schools in the state sponsor a women's volleyball team.

Throughout the volleyball season the majority of schools hold tournaments for the various teams. Mississippi College for Women, Mississippi College, Millsaps, Belhaven, Mississippi State University, and University of Southern Mississippi along with the junior colleges of the state all take part in promoting the women's volleyball program.

For further information please contact your dormitory representative or Mary Beth Grogan, WRA president.

Grogan, President WRA, Announces New Club Officers

Beth Grogan, this years president of the Hinds Junior College Women's Recreation Association, called the first meeting of the club, Tuesday, September 21. Representative elections were held yielding the following officers: Gale Stein and Mary McGraw, for Main Dormitory, Connie Forsythe and Nancy Butler for East Davis, Donna Faris and Pam Parson for Davis.

Westside elected Ann Smith and Cheryl Stroud along with Linda Barlow. Representatives and Senator for Northside will be Jean Joliff and Michelle Russel. Mary Beth Horn was elected Senator for the WRA.

Activities for the past WRA organizations have been powder puff football teams, basketball, volleyball, track, tennis, archery, shuffleboard and yoga.

Any female Hinds student is eligible for membership into the WRA program. This includes both commuting and dormitory students of Hinds Junior College.

Females of Hinds are urged to take part in the activities offered by the WRA program. For further information contact Beth Horn, newly elected WRA Senator, or a dormitory representative.

Eagles Downed by Lions 33-13 for First Defeat

By LARRY TEMPLE

Hinds took its first loss of the season this past Saturday night as East Mississippi Junior College downed the Eagle by a score of 31 to 13. Taking the opening kickoff the Eagles couldn't get things rolling so were forced to punt away giving the Lions ball control for the first time of the game.

David Bradbery, Lion quarterback, took over the controls for the home team as he began to pick away at the Eagle secondary. Evading the Eagle secondary, Tommy Winfield, Lion receiver, snagged a Bradbery toss and took it 27 yards for a Scooba TD and the first score of the game. Morgan added the finishing touch by booting the PAT giving the Lions a 7-0 lead and the first score of the night.

Bouncing back, the determined Eagles immediately began working on the Lion defense. Scampering for sixty yards Harold Anderson gave the Eagles their first TD of the game. David Bearden, sophomore from Florence, added the PAT and giving a new start for both teams.

Cooly Scores

Without offensive success the Lions were forced to punt thus turning the ball over to the visitors. Taking the ball and driving to the one yard line the Lion goal line since wasn't stout enough to hold out sophomore tailback Boyd "Cools" Sullivan. Sullivan plunged over giving the Eagles six more making the score 13-7. Bearden missed the PAT.

Coming back in the second half the Lions began to put their offensive assets to work as Morgan kicked a 28 yard field goal thus giving the home team three more on the board.

Fumble

Taking the controls again the Eagles offense began a series of yard yielding plays. Just as the Eagles got into good field position the breaks began to fall in favor of the East Mississippi team. Anderson, taking the ball for Hinds, found the pigskin a little hard to hold onto and fumbled on the Eagle 30 yard line giving the ball to the Lions.

In perfect field position, the Lions began a series of downs which resulted in halfback Charlie Morgan sweeping the left for another EMJC score. The PAT by Morgan was good giving the Lions a 17-13 lead.

Interception

Trying to get back on top the Eagles began to go to the air which resulted in a Lion interception by linebacker Charlie Morgan. Adding the icing to the cake Morgan made the PAT good, giving the Lions a wide margin lead of 24-13.

Finishing up the nights scoring was Lion tailback Dennis Morgan, who snagged a Bradbery pass for a 15 yard run resulting in the final TD of the night. Morgan concluded the tally by making the PAT good and giving the Lions a 31-13 lead.

Injuries

Plagued by penalties throughout the game the Eagles suffered several knee injuries. Defensive end Ted Butler, tailback Jimmy Salmon, tackle David Bearden and guard Mike Myers were those Hinds players to receive injuries.

Hinds is now 1-1 in overall records and 0-0 in south division play. Southwest will be hosted by the Eagles this Thursday night as the Graham gang takes on their first divisional tilt.

Eagles Beat Bulldogs in Season Opener

Obviously out to improve over last years 2-8 record the Hinds Junior College Eagles under the leadership of head coach Durwood Graham took on the Holmes Junior College Bulldogs with the outcome being a smashing 24-14 victory over the Bulldogs.

Coach Graham in his first season as head coach at Hinds Junior College was determined to prove that, after some lean years, the Hinds Eagles have evolved the nucleus of

Under the leadership of quarterbacks Bobby Barrett of Wingfield and Harold Wright of Clinton the Eagles reversed last years 25-14 loss to Holmes.

After having an earlier touchdown called back on a penalty, the Eagles gained their first touchdown of the 1971 season on the last play of the quarter via a 30 yard pass from Harold Wright to Ronnie Muffuletto.

The main highlights of the second quarter was a 40 yard field goal by David Bearden with Harold Wright holding.

With 5:28 left in the third quarter Hinds again reached paydirt when sophomore Bobby Barrett scampered 18 yards for a touchdown.

Hinds scored for the last time late in the third quarter. The point after kick was good making Hinds victorious with a 24-14 win over Holmes.

Watching the Sports Scene

By LARRY TEMPLE

Will the Eagles follow past tradition for the rest of the season and play the remainder of their games on a declining scale or will they bounce back in revenge of tradition and play the type of football they have been coached?

This is the question that has been circulating the campus since last Saturday's defeat by East Mississippi.

However, the majority of those who contribute to this "word of mouth" football theory failed to make the scene at the Scooba game.

For those who failed to see the game or catch the play backs in the media lab this column would like to give the reader a quick review of the game.

To begin with it must be stated that the "Graham Gang" played the hardest hitting game of the season. For those in the stands the sound was very easily detected and for those in Meridian the sound was somewhat muffled, however, evident.

Number one foe of the Eagles was the ever presence of red flags. Clipping, piling on, and roughing the passer seemed to be favorites of the stripecoats the entire night.

Adding to the misery of penalties were a few bad breaks, such as a number of fumbles, a couple of interceptions, and a problem of center-quarterback communication. Despite all these problems the Eagles did manage to show an impressive defensive show.

The Hinds kicking game was superb, Jim Brown, punter for the Eagles kept the Lions nose in the air long enough for the pursuit to get down field.

All together the Hinds Junior College football team seems to have a promising season ahead.

There's no prediction on the outcome of tonight's game, only that it should be a good one. Southwest showed up pretty tough against Northeast last week so being that Scooba beat Hinds by about the same score that Southwest beat Northeast score that Scooba beat Northeast by about the same score that Southeast did there is still no way of predicting how the game will go. We realize that some fans use this method of deduction to determine who will beat who, so that was the purpose of all that mumbo-jumbo.

Intramurals

Intramurals on campus seem to be getting a slow start this year for some unknown reason. Beth Grogan, president of the WRA, has begun organizing the girls volleyball team but on the other side of the tracks the men seem to be waiting around for a little news of just who they're supposed to contact to start their teams. Maybe the men should have a MRA, standing for the Mens Recreation Association, of course. For all those guys that are interested in forming intramural teams we would suggest you start shaking the bushes a little and find out who is in charge.

Sport Rating Given By JC Conference

Outstanding Mississippi Junior College athletes will have the opportunity to show their ability in an All-Star game to be played in Tupelo on November 26.

Under the sponsorship of the Mississippi Junior College Coaches Association and a group of interested citizens in Tupelo the classic will match outstanding football players in the South Division against the outstanding players from the North Division.

A special committee of coaches will select the players to participate in the game which is expected to be viewed by senior college and pro football scouts.

In addition a co-ed from one of the state supported junior colleges will be named Junior College Queen and a candidate for the title will be selected from each school.

CHEERLEADERS RATED

Group Places Excellent In Competition At USM

Hinds cheerleaders for the 1971-72 season show promise of being one of the best groups ever. This was exemplified by their outstanding performance at the National Spirit Sportsmanship Workshop at the University of Southern Mississippi last month.

August 23-27 encompassed five days of vigorous work and rigid competition for these talented girls. Each afternoon, following hours spent in mastering cheers, pom-pom routines, and stunts, evaluation was conducted among groups representing several of the nation's top-notch colleges and universities. At the end of all this, our squad returned to Raymond carrying one rating of outstanding, two of excellent, and three of superior.

Honors

Other groups striving for such honors as these included those from Ole Miss, Florida State, University of Alabama, University of Tennessee, and University of New Mexico, to name just a few.

Steady improvement has been the major characteristic of the record that the Hindsonian squad has merited since they began participation in the annual N.S.S. Workshop. The results of their first attempt in 1969 were two honorable mentions, and in 1970 they tallied two ribbons for outstanding and three for excellent.

Last year Connie Wicks, a sophomore cheerleader from Hinds, won membership into the Region Seven Cheerleading Squad following a contest held in Paducah, Kentucky. Each year a representative is sent to compete in the Miss Cheerleader U.S.A. contest.

Participants

Girls included in this year's round-up are freshmen Becky Newton, Marilyn Muffaletto, Jane Kees, Judy Duckworth, and sophomores Patricia Gosa, Vickie Gilmore, and Martha Lacy. Leading the group are co-head cheerleaders Sandy May and Lee Ann May. Mitzi Graham will support the promotion of spirit by acting as mascot and helping with school chants.

So it appears that after a summer of hard, determined hours of work, these girls are prepared to initiate the season with a full measure of gusto. As their sponsor, Mrs. Polly Rabalais, stated, "The squad looks great. They have worked hard and accomplished a lot, so we're looking forward to a good year."

The cheerleaders will lead the Eagle Pep Squad at every game of this football season.

Game time for all home games is 7:30 p.m. Students of Hinds will be admitted free if they present their I.D. card at the gate.

Literary Magazine Offered At School

Plans for a Hinds Junior College literary magazine were disclosed today by Rob Hamilton, editor.

"LAGNIAPPE has been chosen as the title of the magazine, as it is a Cajun word meaning 'something given to a customer by way of a compliment, and this is precisely what we want to produce,' said Hamilton.

The magazine will feature original writings by students and will also have original drawings illustrating these compositions. There will also be photographs featured throughout the magazine.

All campus poets, essayists, philosophers, artists, and photographers are urged to contact Hamilton, Mrs. Retta Porter, or Mrs. Elaine Hughes as soon as possible.

Senate . . .

Other business was setting back the date for elections of dormitory and organizational senators from the third to fourth Monday in September.

Any club, organization or dormitory wishing a Senate vote should comply with constitution regulations concerning setting up a time with the Elections Commissioner and having him or one of his committee members present at the election.

JOHN MANCHESTER

New Band Leader

Hinds Junior College president, Dr. Robert M. Mayo, has announced the appointment of John Phillip Manchester, Jr., as the new band director of the college.

Manchester was born in Charleston, South Carolina and later moved to New London, Connecticut where he graduated from high school in 1962. He then attended Livingston University, Livingston, Alabama where he received his B.S. degree in 1969. Manchester has just received his Masters of Music Education degree from North Texas State University in Denton, Texas.

While attending college he was chapter president of the Lambda Omicron Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Fraternity; a member of Blue Key National Honor Fraternity; listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities; and a member of the Student Government Association.

He is married to the former Ginger Yearwood of Jackson.

Mayo Crowns Queen During Halftime Show Four Sophomore Maids Seek Title; Homecoming Celebrates Its 54th Year

By BARBARA JOHNSON

Seven girls representing every category from Beauty to Miss Hinds Junior College have been selected to represent Hinds in the 44th annual Homecoming activities scheduled for Saturday, October 16.

Dr. Robert Mayo will crown the Queen during halftime activities. The sophomore maid receiving the most votes in the October 5th election will serve as Queen.

Those sophomores elected as maids are Cheryl Bryant, Blanche Creel, Ginger Gaddis and Martha Lacy. All girls are from Jackson except Ginger who is from Edwards.

Freshmen in the court are Gail Crosby from Indianola, Marilyn Muffuletto of Vicksburg, and Nancy Sullivan of Raymond.

Sophomore Cheryl Bryant, a home economics major, was Friendliest at Province High School and worked on Class Capers all three years. In addition, she was in the Beauty Pageant and Concert Choir. Cheryl is on the House Council for Northside and enjoys baseball games, sewing, cooking and weddings. She hopes to be a bridal consultant.

Majoring in sociology, Miss Hinds Junior College Blanche Creel would like to be a social worker. Blanche has been a senior for the choir, a house council member and a member of ASTRA. While attending Bunker Hill High School, Blanche was elected Most Beautiful, Most Popular, Most Courteous and Friendliest. She was also a member of the chorus and Beta Club.

Ginger Gaddis, who is majoring in elementary education, wants to be a kindergarten teacher. Ginger was a Freshman Class Favorite and a member of the Concert Choir Council.

Ginger attended Raymond High School and was elected Senior Class Favorite. She was on the Safety Council, a member of the Future Teachers of America and the Art Club.

Martha Lacy, an elementary education major and is a Hinds Junior College cheerleader. She is a member of the B.S.U. council and the choir.

Martha attended Wingfield and was a member of the Homecoming Court, a cheerleader, a Beauty, Most Congenial and a member of the choir.

Annual Sets Pix Remakes

Makeup date for students who missed having their pictures made for the 1972 yearbook will be made Monday, October 18 in the Meeting Room of the Student Union Building from 11:00 a.m. through 4:30 p.m.

Students who have already received their proofs from the first session need not return these to the Eagle staff. These proofs are for the students to return to the photographer if the student desires to order any copies of the pictures.

Alumni Remember Thirty Years; Six Classes Hold First Reunion

EDITOR'S NOTE: Every class has something about it that makes it different and distinctive from any previous or future class and for this reason The Hindsonian would like to review the past years and honor people that have contributed to the future of Hinds in different ways. The years to be dealt with are those celebrating their class reunions during Homecoming '71.

In the midst of major war the class of '41 was one of complacency and routine. There were no real signs of wild, radical groups and motorcycle gangs. The majority of the students were made up of rural people, since the school was still an agricultural high school with a two-year college just beginning to shape up.

It was the year of the third homecoming game and President McLendon's Program of Preparedness for protection in case of aerial attack.

Outstanding classmen were: Franklin Lewis, president of the sophomore class with Lane Foster serving as vice president, and A. F. Summer serving as secretary.

Little did anyone know that A. F. would later be elected the Attorney General.

Penny Fair

That was also the year of the Penny Fair. Collecting the most money for her class and reigning as queen was Miss "Squeeze" Jacobson.

Then came the war and the class of '46 with new additions to the campus and a whole new breed of people. It was the year of the co-ed dorm and boys in the uniform of the United States Marines. It was also the end of World War II when prices rocketed and past necessities were considered luxuries.

Students mirrored the times by being in school one semester and in Germany the next.

Activities

As far as activities went, the school offered Y.W.C.A., M.Y.F., Christian Endeavor, Catholic Youth Organization, the Girls Reserve, Phi Theta Kappa, Veterans Club, Latin Club, Lamplighters, Glee Club, Band and Choir.

It was the year that Jim Carballo was named All-State Left Halfback; James Ray Bres, All-

State Quarterback; Joe Stevens, All-State End; Louis Barattine, All-State Guard; and Louis Strickland, All-State Center.

Joe Stevens, from Petal, Miss., served as Mr. H. J. C. and Miss Gene Ray from Jackson, served as Miss H. J. C.

Junior College Bowl

In football the team scored the Junior College Co-Championship in the Lions Junior College Bowl with Holmes Jr. College. In basketball, Robert McKissock was named as All-State Forward and on the girl's squad, Nina Price was also named to the All-State Forward position.

Class officers for the year were Joe Stevens, president for first semester, and Millard McCallum, served second semester; Aileen Stevens served as vice-president; Ruth Toland as secretary; the treasurer for the class was Gene Ray and reporter was Ava Lynn Liddell. Sponsoring the class was Miss Halford and Mrs. Servers.

Class of '51

The class of '51 was known nationally as the volunteers for the

Newspapers Provide Student's Information, Entertainment

Entering its twenty-eighth year of reporting, The Hindsonian is proud of being a part in the building of an honest, effective and direct means of enriching and strengthening the student body it serves.

It is the opinion that the college newspaper should first offer sound leadership in the educational community it serves. The nature of that leadership has changed as America itself has changed, from that of merely a public relations tool which did nothing more than "sell" the school to the community and students to that of providing a means of communicating inadequate educational programs, ineffective student government and noteworthy news to both the students and the administration.

Because today's student is no longer restricted to class-work, club meetings and social affairs, the college newspaper has taken on the politically active face. The newspaper must become a more informing, sophisticated and liberal work in order to meet the increasing means of mass media's demands which has allowed them to survive and become relevant to today's student.

When a paper criticizes it must do so only to upgrade the standards of truth. Attacking issues, not personalities, allows the newspaper to be constructive, not destructive."

"It is the duty of the newspaper to print the news, not the bigotry of everyday life."

Students Welcome Alumni

Students and Administration welcome the alumni to Homecoming '71 with the hope that your visit will be one of enjoyment and excitement, but especially memorable.

Memorable in the sense of being together with your past classmates and instructors and in the sense of pride in the growth that the college has experienced. Not only in the aspect of student enrollment or physical plant, but more in the place that Hinds has made for itself in the community, state and nation.

Today, Hinds is rated as one of the major junior colleges in the United States, both scholastically and curriculum wise. With the construction of the Jackson Branch it has been able to serve not only "college age" students but also those that desire to continue their education or begin a new one in a different field.

Some courses offered at Hinds are not offered at any other Junior or Senior College in the state.

But none of this could be possible without the enthusiasm and hard work of past classes.

So therefore it is only right that praise be given where it should. To the classes of '41, '46, '51, '56, '61, '66, and '71 and the classes like them, the class of '72 salutes and thanks you for making Hinds what it is today.

Tablecloth Teaches Youths Geography; Learning Becomes Exciting Experience

(Editor's Note: This article appeared in the Jan.-Feb. edition of Mississippi Game and Fish Magazine and has been given permission to be reprinted in the Hindsonian. This article was written by W. Guy Henderson).

When we were growing up my papa found a big plastic map of Mississippi. Nothing would do but for him to use it for a table cloth even though Mama maintained it was hard enough to live there without having to eat on it. Through the years it became a pattern that molded much of our table decor and culinary endeavors.

Automatically we knew the vase of flowers would go down around Pelahatchie. Since there were ten children to crowd in on the benches I usually sat at Vicksburg. If company came I could be squeezed down as far as Natchez. However, this was much too close to the end of the table or along the Gulf Coast where papa sat. We laughingly told him he was sitting in the Gulf of Mexico but he declared as how the waters kept his feet cool and besides that he was fond of the scenery. Also, in this position he was able to keep an elbow on Picayune and another on Lucedale.

Mama always sat up in Tennessee, a position she preferred since her back would be toward the north, Papa reminded her that the war was over but Mama would only snort and continue to sit on Tennessee.

It helped too when the table was crowded. You could always say, "Here, set the beans on Hollandale" or "please reach me the pie over near Ripley." It taught the younger children how to set the table correctly. I can still hear the older sister telling the young ones, "Now put the plate at Meridian, the fork just south of Quitman and the spoon and knife up near Shuqua'ak."

Papa didn't believe in the first person singular so he would say, "Pascagoula needs the cornbread," or "Bay St. Louis is mighty dry."

Mama wanted to change it come Thanksgiving but removing that map was akin to revolution all over the southland. I was accused of being at Greenville instead of Vicksburg. Papa allowed as how he did not know if he were at Bixie or New Orleans and that he would have cancelled Thanksgiving if he had known it would destroy the entire state. Moving that tablecloth map caused more confusion than the carpetbagger's invasion. At supper that night I well remember how nice it was to see the linen folded away and in ceremonial quietness we spread the map. Vicksburg never looked so good.

Of course some cities messed things up something fierce. Mama always kept the coffee on the stove even though we thought it would be quaint to keep it on Hot Coffee. We compromised by keeping the pickles at Mt. Olive and the fried chicken at Duck Hill. Uncle Sipes would come to visit and beg to sit at Pigrims Rest in Itawamba county.

Once I spilled a glass of milk near Raymond and it ran clear up to Tupelo and as far south as Tyler-town. Papa declared it flooded twelve counties and said we should ask the government to declare it a disaster area. It was hard enough to lose the milk but to know I had brought disaster to so many people was frightening. I was afraid to go near Tupelo for weeks after that.

Through the years the map wore out but it didn't matter then. We had the places so well memorized that I knew every county and county seat. My cousin from Louisiana came to visit and thought we were nuts. "Put these hot biscuits at Wiggins" or "Pass the pie to Biloxi" left him utterly confused. It really impressed him when we told him the map story and later reports had him drawing a map of Louisiana on his mother's best linen tablecloth.

We gladly welcome our Alumni to Homecoming. This is the one day in the year when old friends get together, when former students and teachers reminisce about the days of yesteryear and a general good time is had by all.

When Hinds Alumni assemble one could just about have a roll call of Who's Who in Mississippi politics, business, agriculture, industry and teaching. No junior college in the land and few universities can claim a more illustrious list of graduates. They are leaders and movers in all facets of both public and private life. To have them back on the campus for a brief time rekindles our flame of loyalty to Hinds and to the teaching profession, and causes both students and teachers to stand a little taller.

To the many faculty and student committees whose work and efforts always make each Homecoming more enjoyable than the previous one we extend our thanks for a job well done.

We hope all former students are pleased with the physical changes on the campus. Hinds has accepted the challenge to adjust and keep abreast of the demands made on modern day educational institutions. From our vantage point of college administration we perceive that the demand on the comprehensive community life will grow and the measure of an institution's worth will be determined by how well we meet the demands for increased services both in quality and in quantity.

Maids . . .

She enjoys riding horses, working with children, swimming and music.

Freshman maid, Gail Crosby is a business major and would like to attend Mississippi State College. She attended Clinton High School and was elected Basketball Cheerleader. Gail was elected Cutest her junior year and was a Beauty both her junior and senior years. Gail enjoys swimming and skiing.

Marilyn Muffuletto is a business major and plans to go into Business Education or accounting.

Marilyn attended Saint Aloysius High School and was a cheerleader, a member of the pep squad and choral group. She was also named Maid of Honor, Homecoming Sponsor, Class Favorite and Miss Saint Aloysius.

Freshman maid, Nancy Sullivan is a Home Economics major and hopes to go into fashion merchandising. She is the Historian of the Home Economics Club, a member of the choir and the Westminster Fellowship.

While attending Raymond High School, Nancy was elected cheerleader and Beauty. She was also a member of the basketball and track teams. Nancy was in the Who's Who. At Rebul Academy she was a Beauty, president of the Y-Teens and Best All Around Student.

Group Meets On Problem Of Meal Ticket Situation

Representatives from various dormitories, organizations and administration attended a meeting on Oct. 6 with John Harrison, manager of the cafeteria facility and John Alexander, grill manager to discuss possible changes in meal ticket distribution.

David Morgan, chairman of a special committee of the Senate opened and led the meeting in which would be discussed improvements or complete changes in meal distribution.

Plans Submitted

Some of the suggestions that were made were: the use of tokens as a substitute for I.B.M. cards, where a student could purchase a certain amount of tokens and use them at only meals that he actually eats. Another suggestion made was that of using a student I. D. card having a different colored background for the 5-day meal than the 7-day meal, or having some form of stamped validation for the card.

Along the same lines as the token, Erwin Peyton, an assistant to Harrison, suggested using along with the token placed in a turnstile a card indicating either visitor or student which would alleviate the use of meal tickets twice and also allow a visitor to the campus to eat in the cafeteria.

Some discussion was involved with the above methods and some sightings were made to last year's method of having a punch card and how students would buy duplicates for their commuter friends. Dean Oakes stated, that the Business Office averaged about 75 duplicates every six weeks and he knew of one authentic case of a student purchasing two duplicates for his friends who commuted.

Harrison Comments

Harrison stated that in the other schools he had worked with the students used meal tickets. He inserted that the lines were slower because of this process and strongly recommended that another method be found.

He also invited students at any time to look into what was being served by the cafeteria, or how money was spent, because, he stated, "It's not my money we're operating on but yours (the students)."

It was suggested by the managers of the dining facility that the proposals be submitted to the Senate and decided on by them. Harrison told the delegation that if the group could come up with a more pleasant solution in which lines would be shortened that we would be willing to go along with it.

Thirty Day Notice Extended To Draft

Selective Service local boards throughout Mississippi are issuing November induction calls, says Col. James L. Davis, State Director, Selective Service System.

Men ordered for induction will be given 30 days notice to report, he says, even though Selective Service regulations require only 10 days notice. Men ordered for induction will be those in the Extended Priority Selection Group, or those with a random sequence number of 125 or lower who are in the First Priority Selection Group.

Inductions of volunteers or registrants who accept induction in lieu of prosecution may be accomplished at any time.

Orders are also going out to a small number of medical doctors. These are being ordered for induction under a special call levied earlier this year.

Conscientious objectors ordered to civilian work in the national interest in lieu of induction will also be given 30 days in which to report, unless the registrant volunteers to report to work earlier. Registrants classified as I-O who, after June 30, began civilian work in lieu of induction without a work order will be given credit for that work toward their 24-month civilian work obligation.

Enrollment Reveals Rapid Climb In Growth

Registration figures for Hinds Junior College have been released giving a total of 4,607 students being enrolled at both the Raymond campus and the Jackson Branch.

Registrar Mildred Herrin announced that there are 2,424 full time academic day students and 73 part-time students giving a total of 2,497 academic students on the Raymond campus. Evening school figures show 428 students enrolled in academic and technical fields at night. Dr. Floyd Elkins office reports an increase of 108 students over last year's night school enrollment.

Vocational

Vocational registration at the Raymond campus shows 561 enrolled in day programs and 219 in night programs for a total of 780. Also included under registration for the vocational-technical division at Raymond are 69 nursing students in Vicksburg which gives a grand total of 849 students in all divisions.

With all divisions combined registration for the Raymond campus shows 3,774 students enrolled for the 1971-72 school term.

Hinds Junior College's Jackson Branch has enrolled 398 students in its day programs and has 127 in the night technical program and 318 in its night vocational programs. Total enrollment for the Jackson Branch is listed at 833 students.

Jackson Branch

Jackson Branch director, Bob Lasater, stated, "Most programs at the Jackson Branch have more than doubled in size this year and there are few programs that are not filled."

The branch offers 13 programs that are vocational and technical in nature. Total enrollment of full-time students in these programs is 399.

Five programs involve students from Jackson high schools. These areas are machine shop, welding, drafting, radio and television repair, and electronics communications. Total enrollment in these areas is 136.

Three associate degree programs are offered at the Jackson Branch. These are Fire and Safety Technology, Hotel, Motel, and Restaurant Management, and Secretarial Science. There are 122 students enrolled in these programs.

Vocational programs offered include Dental Assisting, Operating Room Technology, Inhalation Therapy Technology, Practical Nursing, Auto Mechanics, and Secretarial Science.

There are also approximately 100 persons who are in Manpower programs in Vicksburg and Jackson who are not included in the previously stated figures.

In full time day academic totals the listing shows that 2,041 students are from the four county area that supports Hinds which includes Hinds, Rankin, Warren, and Claiborne counties. Other totals indicate that 302 students are from other counties within the state while 73 are from other states and eight students are from other countries.

Day Students

Registrar, Mildred Herrin, stated that this year's enrollment shows an increase of 256 students in academic day registration figures over the enrollment last year.

The break down in academic registration shows 1,430 men students and 994 women students. Figures further show that 1,557 are classified freshmen and 867 are classified sophomores. Other figures show that 1,306 of these students are commuting students and 1,118 students are housed in dormitories.

Talent Show Slated By Leslie Reeves

Leslie Reeves has announced that auditions for the annual talent show will be held Wednesday, October 27 at 7:30 p.m. and Thursday, October 28 at 7:00 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. It is open to all commuters and dormitory students.

Anyone interested in participating should go by the Music Office in the Fine Arts Building and pick up an application form by October 26 at 3:00 p.m. Everyone MUST fill out an application.

The talent show will be held Thursday, November 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium. Cash prizes will be awarded. First prize will be $25.00; second prize, $15.00; and third prize, $10.00.

Hollingsworth's Art On Exhibition In Fine Arts Building Display Room

Art works of Mississippi artist William Hollingsworth will be on display in the art display room at Hinds Junior College from October 11 through October 29.

The paintings on display are from a private collection of Mrs. Hollingsworth and will be displayed only on week days from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Upon special request the gallery can be opened for special groups.

Hollingsworth, who died in 1944, was born in Jackson and attended Central High School, the University of Mississippi, and the Chicago Art Institute. He later headed the art department at Millsaps College before his death.

His works have won many awards including those from the Mississippi Art Association, the National Water Color Exhibition, the William Tuthill award at the International Watercolor Exhibition in Chicago, IBM Oil Exposition, Rhodes Baker prize, and Southern States Art League.

At the time of his death he had become one of the South's greatest artists and Mississippi's greatest. Mississippi's painters still acknowledge him as an unequalled master of watercolor and oil paintings, have deference for his work and for his genius. A master of technique with the eye of a poet, he could accurately record feelings inspired by the things he knew and the things he saw.

Elections Set For Favorites; Mr, Miss HJC

Students interested in running in the annual election for class favorites may do so by picking up petition forms, beginning Oct. 18 in the Dean of Students office and returning them no later than 3:00 p.m. Friday, Oct. 22.

Candidates for class favorites may be nominated by petition containing the signatures of 20 students. Students will be allowed to sign no more than three different petitions and may sign the same one no more than once.

Students may start their own petitions or someone else may initiate it for them.

Voting

Voting will take place in the foyer of the Student Union Building on Wednesday, Oct. 27 from 9:00 to 3:00 p.m. All voting students will be required to have their I. D. card.

Every voting student will vote for eighteen nominees, five sophomore girls, five sophomore boys, four freshman girls, and four freshman boys. Mr. and Miss Hinds Junior College will be chosen from the sophomore boy and girl receiving the most votes.

Class Favorites

The remaining eight sophomores and eight freshmen will be presented as class favorites and featured in the "Eagle" campus yearbook features section.

Favorites and Mr. and Miss Hinds Junior College will be part of the Dec. 2 "Eagle" beauty pageant when the top five campus beauties will be judged. Immediately following the contest, winners of the favorites election will be presented.

Since there is no second primary, it is especially important that all students indicate their choice in the Wednesday, Oct. 27 election.

Parking Decals Now Available

Campus Security Chief, John Lancaster, is requesting students to come by the Campus Security Office and pick up their decals for their cars. Lancaster stated, "Many students have already paid for their parking decals but have not come by to claim them and in some cases this could result in students receiving parking tickets when they need not."

HEALTH EXPO — Hinds Junior College participated in the first State-wide Health Exposition held at the Fair Grounds October 1-3. All the Allied Health programs from both the Raymond campus and the Jackson Branch were displayed with students and faculty members serving as information guides to the visitors.

Directors Of Choir Ensembles, Clefs Announce Members Of New Groups

Geneva Reeves, director of the Girls' Ensemble and the Clefs, and Barney McCann, director of the Men's Ensemble, have announced the members of these groups for the 1971-72 session.

Other members include Nonie Freney, Rolling Fork; Betty Henderson, Madison Ridgeland; Cecilia Hemphill, Natchez; Josanne Ellis, Raymond; Liz Shows, Ellisville; Caren Broom, Germany; and Rhonda Peoples, Pearl.

First Tenor singers for the Men's Ensemble are David Dorsey, Jackson; Mike Bourgeois, Palquimne, La.; Buddy Mayo, Raymond; Gordon Ward, Jackson. Second Tenor voices are Larry Beasley, Bill Harris, Dub Hardy, all of Jackson, and David Lowery, Raymond.

Bomar McNeill, III, Jackson; James Jackson, Jr., Vicksburg; Bruce Rawls, Columbia; and Jimmy Suber, Jackson. Second Bass singers are Randy Seals and Jack Lee of Jackson and Charles Foreman of Florence.

Clef members are Blanche Creel, Celeste Whatley, Vickie Mayfield, Judy Overbey, Jackie White, Yvette Johnson, Larry Beasley, Bo McNeill, Randolph Seals, Jack Lee, and Dub Hardy, all of Jackson. Completing the list of members are Rhonda Peoples, Pearl; Mike Bourgeois, Plaquemine, La.; and Buddy Mayo, Raymond.

These three groups will also participate in various concerts that will be presented by the choir as well as be available for special concerts on their own.

MJCPA To Hold Fall Convention

Mississippi's Junior College Press Association Fall Workshop will be held October 29-30 at East Central Junior College.

Rich Gould, Agnes Reed, David Milling, Barbara Johnson and adviser Bob Hodges will attend the two day conference in Decatur. During the workshop they will hear lectures on a variety of topics.

Erle Johnston will speak on "The Trials and Tribulations of a Weekly Editor." Mr. Johnston is the editor and publisher of The Scott County Times newspaper in Forest, Mississippi.

The group will also hear a panel discussion of the "Role of the Newspapers in Today's Changing World."

Guest speaker for the convention will be Mrs. Mildred Dearman of The Carthaginian.

Delegates will participate in workshops concerning advertising, layout and design, and photography.

The annual Spring Convention of the MJCPA will be held at Jones Junior College in April. At this time awards will be presented to the various junior college papers entering the different areas of competition as well as overall excellence.

Alumni Records List; Includes State Officers

By BRENDA BOYKIN

In its fifty-four years as an educational institution Hinds Junior College has produced numerous outstanding alumni, and many now hold positions as state officials.

Governor John Bell Williams, Alumnus of the Year in 1967, is one of the Hinds alumni who now hold political offices. His career includes representing Mississippi in the United States Congress from 1947 to 1967 and serving as governor of the state for the 1968-1972 term.

Other former students who are now serving on the governor's staff include A. F. Summer, the state's attorney general, and Colonel Wendell Lock, representative at large for the Alumnus Association and head of the State Forestry Commission.

Hamp King, state auditor, is also a former Hinds student. He is the first state auditor to hold the position for a second term since a constitutional amendment to permit succession in that office was adopted during his term.

A few Hinds alumni are serving in the Chancery Court system. Among them are Tom Virden and Irl Dean Rhodes who serve the courts of Hinds and Rankin counties respectively.

The Alumnus of the Year in 1968, Dr. E. E. "Tad" Thrash, is now the executive secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Institutions of Higher Learning. Joe Moss and Bob Ferguson serve in the House of Representatives and Bill McKinley and Dan Martin serve in the State Senate.

Charles Griffin, Hinds alumnus, is serving Mississippi in the United States Congress. He holds the post in the House of Representatives that Governor Williams vacated in 1967 to run for the Mississippi governorship.

Circle K Announces Invitations, Thirty-eight To Enter Group

By BARBARA JOHNSON

Circle K president, Larry Temple, has announced the invitation of 38 freshmen into the campus Kiwanis organization.

The selection of these young men is one of the highest honors they can receive on campus. Membership in the Circle K is based on leadership, scholarship and citizenship.

Service Club

The Circle K, sponsored by the North Jackson Kiwanis Club, is the only men's service organization on campus.

Throughout the rest of this semester, the new members will undergo an initiation, taking over the responsibilities of the club under the direction of the old members.

These tasks include the operation of the concession stand at home football games, staging for beauty pageants, club publicity and ushering for campus activities.

Members

The new members include Buddy Mayo, Gary Parker, Danny O'

Cain, Roger Grantham, Steve Headly, Paul Craft, Sam Sumrall, Gary Robinson, Steve New, David Ford, Bruce Rawls and John Self.

Other initiates include David Milling, Tony Way, John Davis, Ray Berry, Rodney Swilley, Larry Gray, Travis Tigrett, Don Bailey, Wendell Womack, John Atwood, Robert Clark, Randy Jett and Dennis Bledsoe.

Completing the list of new members are Joseph Campbell, Bill Head, Greg Moreland, Ferrell Housley, Bubba Williams, Terry Tate, Bill Harris, Larry Beasley, Jimmy Bridges, Bo McNeil, James Suber and Mike Bourgeois.

Brenda Pierce has been selected as Sweetheart for the year.

A freshman sweetheart will be chosen later during the year.

Circle K will have several district meetings this year including the district convention in Lake Charles, Louisiana and the International Convention in Denver, Colo.

Members will also attend a Division 1 workshop Sunday, Oct. 17 at Millsaps College.

Watching the Sports Scene

By LARRY TEMPLE

Well, we never said Mississippi had the three best teams in the SEC, but there were a couple of us at the first of the season that at least thought we had a chance. Don't get us wrong, we said a chance, not necessarily for the SEC, but at least for a couple of more wins.

However, there is little surprise to some, for they knew what the outcome of the season would be way back in the summer. It must have been at the "SEC Meet Your Opponents Picnic" that these people formulated their pre-season prediction. After all, they did see the Mississippi delegates lose the badminton, pingpong and sack race tournaments.

Gulf Coast Junior College, number 1 junior college in the country, blasted Holmes last week 35-7. There seems to be little doubt of the outcome of this year's junior college football. East Mississippi Junior College lost to East Central last week in a squeaker that gave ECJC the north division lead.

Coach Graham, who is having a rather disappointing season, will get a shot at Northeast Junior College this Saturday night. Last week's game with Pearl River did everything but help the Eagles. We realize that Pearl River was without a doubt determined to leave Hinds victorious.

For those who haven't recognized the change in the Eagle offense don't feel bad because Pearl River didn't either. Hinds, which has stuck pretty close to a straight passing attack all season, changed to the shotgun formation last Thursday night against Pearl River. However, the Wildcat defense didn't seem too bothered with the unexpected change and succeeded in dropping Wright for several losses even though the shotgun gave him more time to release. Even with their losing, there has been some outstanding football played on the Eagles' side of the line.

Northeast, who is last in line for wins will be the 33rd homecoming opponent for Hinds Junior College. Coach Clyde E. Stuart, head mentor of the Eagle squad in 1939, directed the Eagles in their first homecoming game. Playing the Wolfpack of Wesson, the Stuartmen presented the alumni with a smashing 25-6 win. Hinds finished the '39 season with a 5-3-1 ledger.

WRA activities have certainly gotten under way. Intramural and Extramural volleyball teams have already begun this season. Last year the Hinds Women's Volleyball team took top honors in the state tournaments. We hope there will be as much if not more enthusiasm in this year's activities.

Bobby Williams, head of men's intramurals, has gotten the wheel turning. Several teams have been formed and practice is going strong every evening in the lot behind Greaves dorm. If anyone is still interested in playing intramural football get your team together and contact Bobby Williams. Usually you can contact him each afternoon around three o'clock in the area of Greaves dorm.

Southwest Bears Defeat Eagles Game Leaves Team's Record 1 - 2

Southwest Junior College downed the Hinds Eagles 16-14 in the Eagles' third game of the season. The difference proved to be the safety given up by the Eagles directly after taking the opening kickoff as the Bears caught the Eagle tailback, Boyd Sullivan, on an attempted sweep.

Kicking to Southwest, the Hinds defense began working on the potent Southwest offense. George Holland, freshman from Jackson Wingfield, snagged a Southwest intended pass which gave the Eagles their scoring opportunity.

Muff Scores

Haro'd Wright, freshman quarterback, went to the air and found Muffuletto open for the TD. Changing from receiver to kicker, Muffuletto added another point by booting the PAT and giving the Eagles a 7-2 lead.

Taking advantage of an off-sides penalty on Hinds, the Bears completed a thirty-five yarder to Southwest split end, Gary Lee, for excellent field position. Southwest quarterback, Randy Smith, scampared around left end on a keeper for a Southwest TD. Cliff Hurst made the PAT.

After several fumbles and a number of turnovers, the visitors highlighted the third quarter by scoring a touchdown on a fake field goal attempt. Again the PAT was good and the Bears increased their lead to 16-7.

Eagle TD

Recovering a Southwest fumble on the 71 yard line of Southwest Hinds began to threaten the visiting team's lead. Boyd Sullivan carried the mail to the three yard line and later plunged over the goal line for a Hinds TD. Muffuletto added the PAT, and closed the gap to 16-14.

Southwest took the Eagle kickoff and immediately began advancing up field. Keith Neely, sophomore defensive back, intercepted a Southwest pass which gave the Eagles their only chance for winning.

Field Goal

Unable to get any additional yardage by ground or air, Graham decided on a field goal from the 30 yard line. Missing the attempt by about two yards the Eagles were in no position now to take the game.

Southwest ran the clock out and left Hinds with a 16-14 defeat and a 2-2 record.

Women' Intramurals Underway In WRA Volleyball Competition

By ESTELLA SANDERS

In the girls' gym of Hinds Junior College East Davis played host to West Davis dormitory, Tuesday, Oct. 5. Both West and East Davis combined with Northside Main and Westside dormitories made up Hinds Junior College volleyball team for the 1970-71 season, and together were successful throughout the entire season.

Westside started the evening rolling with the serving of the ball. Pam Habeeb, started things to swinging, as she served her first ball Eastside failed to serve therefore calling for another serve from Westside. Then shortly after, Westside took complete control of the ball and led themselves to a victorious ending of a score of 15 to 9.

As the second play got on the way, Westside took the ball with Beth Horn serving, and again Eastside failed to take control of the ball. Westside led this game to a beautiful score of 15 to 10.

The final match is on its way now and Westside has led Eastside thus far, and Westside stamps out Eastside as they take the ball and serve to Eastside but Eastside gives the ball back to Westside. Westside was victorious in this game with a score of 15 to 11.

The Women's Recreation Association of Hinds Junior College welcomes all new members, for the 1971-72 season; and urges female students, both commuting and dormitory students to take part in the WRA program.

For more detailed information please contact your local dormitory representative or Mary Beth Grogan, WRA president.

Schedule of Intra-murals:

Hinds Eaglettes Prepare Early For Volleyball

Hinds Junior College Eaglettes known for progressiveness were victorious over Southwest Junior College in extra-mural volleyball, October 6, 1971 at Southwest.

The A Team won by a score of 15-10, second game 15-12, to win the match 15-6.

Mrs. Warren says the teams will need more work in the area of serving and moving.

"A" Team

The A team consists of Nip Nevells, Kathleen Freeman, Beth Horn, Pam Habeeb, Mary Grogan, Beth Sanders and Claudie Huffman.

The B Team whipped Southwest off the floor in the first two games. The serving arm of Linda Lipscomb won the first game 15-7; and good serving and plays won the match by a score of 15-10.

The B Team consists of Beth Sanders, Linda Lipscomb, Marsha Bryars, Helen Woods, Ann Smith and Debbie Byrd.

First Game

On October 11, 1971 Hinds Junior College Eaglettes will meet Perkinston Junior College there. Hinds Volleyball team defeated Perkinston during the season 1970-71.

Thursday, October 14, 1971 Hinds Eaglettes will be guests at Mississippi College, Clinton. Game time 7:00 o'clock. Mississippi College is noted for having a very determined volleyball team but Hinds has proven themselves to be more determined.

Tournaments

Throughout the volleyball season the majority of schools hold volleyball tournaments for the various teams, Mississippi College, University of Southern Mississippi, Belhaven, Millsaps, Mississippi State University, along with the junior colleges of the state. All take part in developing and promoting the women's volleyball program.

Growing Sport

Volleyball competition is a statewide sport in the state of Mississippi.

Homecoming Tilt

Eagles Meet Northeast In Homecoming Tilt

Coach Durwood Graham, head football coach for Hinds, will experience his first homecoming game as head coach when the Eagles meet the Indians of Northeast Junior College this Saturday night.

Suffering from a somewhat disappointing season the Eagles will be going for their second win of the season as opposed to winless Northeast.

Last week's loss to Pearl River, may have some influence on the Eagle team. The Wildcats seemed to have a field day on the Hinds defense according to the 36-17 victory.

Northeast is 0-5 in overall play, thus putting them in last place in overall standings. Hinds is ranked somewhat higher and should be the favorite in Saturday's contest.

in defensive play. Pass protection for the Eagles has room for improvement, however the overall picture in the secondary is very favorable. Up front there seems to be a weakness for anything up the middle. Pearl River, along with previous opponents, have all had success with draw plays which have yielded several yards and a couple of touchdowns.

Offense

Probable starters for the Eagle offense will be: both Harold Wright and Bobby Barrett at quarterback, Harold Anderson, Wiley Piazza, Boyd Sullivan; Jimmy Salmon, and Jeb Grace at running backs; flanker will be Ronnie Muffuletto. At tight end will be Don Bailey and Jim Brown will be at split end. Up front will be Jo Bob Harris and John Atwood at guard, Bill Baggett and Otis Craps at tackle, along with Brent Thornton at center.

The Eagle defense will be comprised of Mike Baker, Jeb Grace, Larry Weems, and Keith Neely in the secondary. Mike Myers and George Holland will man the linebacker positions along with David Bearden and Bill Scanlon at tackles. Byron Cummings and David Sessions will be at the defensive ends.

Graham

Coach Graham commented on this week's game as, "the most important game of the year to the student body as well as a key factor to the team record. We have worked hard this week in hopes of correcting our mistakes from last week's loss to Pearl River. By correcting these errors we feel that our boys will play a good game and we hope a winning game."

Kickoff for the 33rd annual Hinds Junior College Homecoming Football game will be at 7:30. Students of Hinds will be admitted on their ID card as in previous home games.

Shotgun

Changing their offense game, the Eagles have adopted the shotgun formation in hopes of improving their passing game. Throughout the season the passing attack has proved to be the biggest threat of the Eagles. Harold Wright, freshman quarterback from Clinton, usually takes control of the passing attack. Hitting for forty percent, Wright should be able to improve his completions due to the additional time allotted through the shotgun formation.

The running game for the Eagles is somewhat less aggressive but it does have its good points. One of these good points is freshman tailback, Harold Anderson, who seems to carry the highest rushing average along with sophomore Boyd Sullivan. Sullivan, who clocks a 9.9 one hundred yard dash, is by far the biggest threat the Eagles have on sweeps.

Ole Reliable

Tested and proved, is Ronnie Muffuletto's tremendous ability to snag anything within his reach. In last week's bout with Pearl River, Muffuletto made both touchdowns from passes thrown by Wright.

Having trouble stopping the aggressive Pearl River offense there possibly a chance for adjustment

Eagles Grounded By Jones' Bearcats

By BILLY HARVEY

It was a long trip back from Ellisville as the Eagles and their fans completed their 40-6 defeat.

The pattern for the game against the Bearcats was set early in the game when Jones' quarterback rolled around the right end and went 56 yards for a touchdown in the first play of the game. The E.P.A. was good and after only 12 seconds of play, the score was 7-0.

After an exchange of punts, the Eagles recovered a fumble on the Jones 20. Consecutive runs of 7 yards by Boyd Sullivan gave the Eagles first and goal on the 6 yard line. When it looked as if the Eagles were on their way for their first score a major infraction killed the Eagles' hope and the Bearcats took over.

Second Score

Jones' second score of the night came after an interception and a 30 yard return to the Eagles' 46. The Bearcat offensive unit drove the ball down the field with their quarterback again doing the honors with 6 minutes remaining in the half.

After receiving the Jones kickoff, the Eagles offensive unit failed to get cranked up and were again forced into a punting situation. The Bearcats' receiver gathered in the punt at the Eagles' 29 and raced 71 yards for the Bearcats third score of the night. This gave the Bearcats a 20-0 lead with 2 minutes left in the half.

Only Eagle Score

On the ensuing kickoff Boyd Sullivan returned the ball to the 32. The offensive unit finally got rolling and after a 20 yard completion from Harold Wright to Larry Weems, found themselves with a first and ten on the Bearcats' 27 yard line. With only 7 seconds left in the half, this set the stage for the Eagles only score of the game.

Wright took the snap from center and threw a 12 yard strike to Weems. The instant Weems caught the ball he pitched it to Grace who was trailing behind him. Grace carried the ball the remaining 15 yards for the Eagle score. With Grace's score, the half ended with the Bearcats leading 20-6.

The Bearcats came out in the second half just as hot as they were in the first. On their first series of downs of the third quarter, the Bearcats again lit up the score board on a 67 yard touchdown pass.

Misfortune again befell the Eagles as Jones recovered an Eagle fumble on the Hinds' 14 yard line. Five plays later the Bearcats again hit paydirt on a 3 yard run.

Last Score

With the score 33-6 Jones defense held Hinds offense. The ball went to Jones after a punt and Jones' offense rolled again. Using their dominating passing game, they connected on a 10 yard pass play that paid off in 6 more points.

The point after attempt was successful and the score read 40-6. That ended the scoring for the night.

The game proved to be the climax for the Jones' season play and the lowpoint in Hinds'. All teams have off nights and the ball bounced the wrong way too many times in South Mississippi. Hinds fans are expecting to see better football from the Eagles as the season progresses. We'll be watching for the kind of football Hinds is capable of playing.

Hinds' Eagles Plucked By Pearl River

Pearl River Junior College, one of the biggest football teams this year, went home Thursday night with another win making their record 5-1 by whipping the Eagles of Hinds 36-17.

Len Patrick, Wildcat place kicker, started the scoreboard lights with a thirty seven yard field goal early in the first quarter. Hinds failed to get anything going throughout the first quarter and seemed to have difficulty completing passes out of the newly adopted shotgun formation.

Wildcat TD

Pearl River quarterback, Gene Estapa, headed a sixty yard drive on the shaky Eagle defense that resulted in a TD for the Wildcats. Estapa's touchdown keeper was finished off by Patrick who added the PAT and making the score 10-0 in favor of the visiting Cats.

Getting off to a slow start, the Eagle offense began a series of downs which yielded several first downs and a chance for the TD. Freshman quarterback, Harold Wright, found his "ole reliable", Ronnie Muffuletto wide open and connected for a 55 yard touchdown pass. David Bearden booted the PAT and closed the gap to 10-7.

Another

However, Pearl River stuck to their solid offense and marched on the Eagles for another Wildcat touchdown by connecting a Estapa pass to receiver Gene Ladd for a thirty five yarder. Yielding to the Eagles' defensive pressure the PAT was wide to the left, thus increasing the score 16-7.

With the exception of many fumbles, numerous penalties and little offensive gain on both sides, Pearl River dominated and climaxed the first half with their second touchdown.

Second Half

Having great difficulty completing any passes, Wright finally found (you guessed it), Ronnie Muffuletto for another Eagle touchdown. This time the going got a little rough for the "ole reliable" but he still managed to get across the line. Bearden added the PAT and made a score of 16-14.

HOMECOMING PARTICIPANTS — Homecoming activities Saturday will be climaxed with the football game between Hinds and Northeast beginning at 8:00 p.m. Members of several organizations will not only add highlights to Homecoming week and halftime celebrations but also color. Those taking part in the "Up With People" theme will be

Jane Richards, Hi-Stepper from Harriston, Miss.; Gail Fortenberry, Band Majorette, from Jackson, and Larry Weems, Football, from Jackson. Other entertainers include Keith Neely, Football, from Brandon; Sandy May, Cheerleader, Magee; Liz Shows, Drum Majorette from Jackson; David Dorsey, Choir from Jackson; Lynn Calhoun, Hi-Step-per from Jackson, and Lee Ann May, Cheerleader from Jackson. Highlighting the Homecoming game will be the crowning of 1971's Homecoming Queen by Dr. Robert M. Mayo.

Korean Conflict with the male graduating class donning once more the uniform of the Armed Forces before they had barely gotten out the Auditorium door. For Hinds it was the year of a new Administration and Academic Buildings, another mark of McLendon's extensive building program.

Lamar Peyton served as the sophomore class president, with Michael Crossin as vice-president; Carolyn Gresham, secretary; Jack Engleman, treasurer; Joyce Kelly as reporter; and Miss Hannah Pitts and Mr. Don Key as sponsors.

New additions in the Vocational-Technical Department included a Motor Repair Center, Refrigeration, Body and Fender Repair and Auto Mechanics.

As far as activities of the school were concerned Robert Ferguson was content as sports editor for the Hindsonian. He is a perfect example of how a person can change his interest as he grows older. This was also the year the Hi-Steppers made their first appearance.

Favorites

The favorites of the school for 1951 were Lamar Peyton as Mr. H. J. C. and Elizabeth Leake as Miss H. J. C. Serving as royalty of the Penny Fair was Queen Doris Aldridge and King Earl Harper.

In the sports light the Girls Basketball team placed third in state competition with Jill Ray and Frances Putnam serving on the All-State 1st team. In football, the Eagles placed third in the conference with Joe Renfro and L. C. DeVall, Jr. serving as coaches. Basketball coaches were Walter Gibbes coaching the Eagles, and A. L. Denton leading the Eagles. Coach Joe Renfro headed the baseball team, and Joe Renfro and L. C. DeVall coached the track squad.

Class of '56

If there was one thing that the class of '56 was known for on the Hinds campus it would be the All-State players chosen from the Eagle squad with Jim Taylor placing as fullback; Eugene Britton as guard with an honorary mention; Willie Eldridge as tackle; Olin Renfro as halfback and Thomas Stricklin as tackle.

Others receiving like distinctions were Jim Corbitt with an honorary mention as guard; Sanders Powell as end; Carlos Fazzio as halfback; Junior Harvey as quarterback; Tommy Muirhead as halfback and end; Joe Collins as guard and Ernest Breithaupt as quarterback.

Class Officers

Class officers for the year were Melvin Oakes as president being assisted by Charles Malone as vice-president; Hermanell Hearn as secretary; Glenda Rush as treasurer; and Mr. Beemon and Mr. Morris as sponsors.

In the class of '56 the people who made it big were Clifford Charlesworth, who is now with NASA, and Irl Dean Rhodes, now a Chancery Clerk, who served as Hindsonian editor. The year 1956 was also the year that the Science building was constructed.

Most popular for the year were Melvin Oakes, Mr. H. J. C. and Glenda Rush, Miss H. J. C. Other noteworthy people were Irl Dean Rhodes who was chosen Most Courteous.

The Penny Fair winners were Helen Cowart as Queen and James "Bear" Bryant as King.

Class of '61

Five years later, in 1961, many of the present administration came to Hinds. It was remembered as the year that Mr. McLendon welcomed Dr. Mayo to the Administrative Assistant's position. Mr. Beemon toured the Wild West and The Hi-Steppers greeted Mrs. Pat Nixon in Washington.

Class officers were led by Rex Carson as president; Byrle Kynerd as vice-president; Frances Nelson as secretary; and Rose Earnest as treasurer. The group was under the sponsorship of Clyde Benton and W. C. "Bill" Oakes.

Outstanding classman for the year were Jeanette Barron and Byrle Kynerd. Elected as Homecoming Queen was Miss Linda Dickerson.

Football Team

Coaching the football team for the year and winning third place in state competition were Joe Renfro and Ivan Rosamond. Coaching the tennis team was Bill Oakes; track, Ivan Rosamond; and basketball, Troy Ricks.

Students from the year 1966 will remember their year as the one that Ralph Sowell got word from Dr. Mayo that he wanted thirty pages of interesting news in a daily Hindsonian. Sheffield put a grand on 'Frantic Fay' in the fifth. Joe B. Harris gave the initials of a test question to a pretty girl as George Washington. Students made the discovery of trees and J. Leslie Reeves award for Outstanding Publicity went to J. Ralph Sowell.

President Mayo

It was also the year that Dr. Robert M. Mayo became the president of Hinds. And Miss Barbara Mashburn, the future Mrs. Will Mayo became Circle K. Sweetheart.

Mr. H. J. C. was Lynn Weathersby and his Miss H. J. C. was Kay Berry who was also chosen as Homecoming Queen.

Outstanding classmen for the year were Don Fisher, Bobby Mullins and Bob Hodges who are still here, and Jim Reihle who is now a television broadcaster in Texas.

New additions to the buildings on campus were the Technical Trade Building, the Student Union Building and the Agricultural-Technical building.

Since all masterpieces are judged by the time element the year 1971 can not really be evaluated other than listing important people of the year and happenings that will be well remembered.

Tenth Year

First, it was the year that Dr. Robert M. Mayo celebrated his tenth year as Administrator for Hinds. It was also the year of the Jackson Branch extension and the dedication of Davis Hall and the Music Department to Al Rowan who had died of a heart attack the previous summer.

It was the year that Marcie Jackson was chosen Most Beautiful and Janet Luckett was elected as Homecoming Queen and Miss H.J.C. with Kerry Keys as Mr. H.J.C. and A.S.B. president. It was the year of misunderstanding and confusion.

Also it was the year that Dr. Mayo threw up, Don Hickman did the goose step, and Dale Hensarling got egged.

All in all, in the last thirty years the campus of Hinds has changed and so have the people—some sons and daughters of the classes of '41, '46, '51, '56, '61, '66 and '71. But the memories are still here and waiting to be remembered; it is the hope of the Hindsonian that you enjoy them.

Scholarship Established; Beason Receives Award

Heirs of the estate of Mr. Lucile Bradbridge Davis, who was Music Director at Hinds for 16 years, have established a music scholarship in her name to be presented to a sophomore music major at Hinds.

Debbie Beason was awarded the first annual scholarship in the amount of $100. She complied with the following requirements: a) the recipient must have completed his freshman year as a music major.

Qualifications

The recipient must be beginning his sophomore year as a music major. c) The recipient must have a grade average of 2.5 at the end of his freshman year. d) The award is made on the basis of basic musical excellence as determined by the faculty and must have been effective in overall contribution to the music department and the college. In the event that two or more students meet the requirements, the financial need of the student may be used as a determining factor.

The first presentation of the award was November 4 during a faculty recital with Mrs. Geneva Reeves, Mezzo-Soprano and Barney McCann, pianist in the Recital Hall of the Fine Arts Building.

Program

The program included: "Verdi Prati," by Handel; "Che faro senza Euridice" from "Orpheus," by Gluck; "Frauenliebe und Leben," by Schumann; "Vocalise," by Rachmaninoff; "Orpheus with His Lute," by William Schumann; "We Have Turned Home," by McArthur; and "Let All My Life Be Music," by Spross.

"Rhapsody in Blue" by Gerashwin was featured with Barney McCann and James Furlow doing the orchestral reduction.

Hinds Instructor

In 1934 Lucile Davis came to Hinds Junior College where she served as music director until 1950. At Hinds she directed the boys' and girls' chorus, a large mixed chorus, various and instrumental ensembles, and taught voice, piano, organ music, history and music theory.

Mrs. Davis organized the "Canto-Sonora Club" and the College Vespers Choir. Her singing groups and

Life's Significant Value Found In Surroundings

Thanksgiving. What is there to be thankful for? Every day there are American soldiers being killed in Southeast Asia. Our lakes, rivers and oceans are being polluted and we awake to air that is a hazy shade of grey. Why should we be thankful?

We have a democracy, but our leaders sell us out for their own power and positions. We have a free country, but find our rights sadly restricted. Police are supposed to protect us from criminals, yet where are they when they are needed? Why should we be thankful?

Technology has advanced at an unbelievable rate, yet there are still diseases that have no cure. The United States is one of the richest countries of the world, yet there are still slums and people starving in the cities. Generations before us have left us their problems of the world to solve. Why should we be thankful?

WHY SHOULDN'T WE?

It is true that our men are dying in a war that they had nothing to do with starting. It is also true that those same men are being brought home in larger numbers than ever before. Pollution is fouling our waterways and air, but the problem has been recognized and half of the solution lies in recognition.

Our country was founded on the principle that all men are created equal. In this country, no man has to serve as a servant to any other man. Each person is guaranteed certain rights and it is up to the person to exercise those rights. Basic freedom lies in the fact that a law can be changed if people find the law oppressing. Leaders are elected by people. Even non-voting voters elect their officials through their very silence. Police try to fulfill their obligations and sometimes fail. No man is perfect; everyone makes mistakes.

Scientists are working daily to unlock the mysteries of diseases which cripple and kill; they have found answers to polio and typhoid fever. Perhaps even today we will hear of a cure for cancer. There are still slums and poor people, but never before have there been so many programs to help these people out of their poverty. Yes, it is true that our generation has been handed the problems of other generations and told to solve them, but is ours the only generation that has been commissioned for that type of job?

There is much to be thankful for, but Thanksgiving day is not the only day of the year that it is possible to offer thanks for our many blessings. Each day of the year can serve as a thanksgiving day.

Wesley Holds Meetings Plans Upcoming Projects

By BRENDA BOYKIN

Wesley meets every Monday evening at 6:15 in the Recital Hall of the Fine Arts Building and presents a variety of programs, both inspirational and informative.

The Wesley Foundation is sponsored by The United Methodist Church. Rev. Curtis Moffat, pastor of the Methodist Church in Raymond, is the director of Wesley.

Wesley's officers are Debbie Beason, president; Beth Ainsworth, vice-president; Ann White, secretary; Alice Cauthan, representative; and Lisa Reed, senator.

Plans for future projects include a trip to the Methodist Children's Home, a visit to another Wesley Foundation, and Christmas caroling. Wesley also often has cook-outs and other types of informal fellowship.

The Raymond United Methodist Church tries to maintain a working relationship with the students on campus. In order to create interest among the students and to become acquainted with them, they held a supper at the church at the beginning of the year.

Some of the programs that have been presented this year include a multi-media presentation and a young man telling his experiences of working with youngsters on the streets of Jackson.

Choir Talent Show Held For Proceeds To Lee Mayo Fund

Providing entertainment for all likings and personalities, the Hinds Junior College Choir's annual Talent Show was held Thursday, November 11 in the auditorium.

Master and Mistress of Ceremonies for the program for this year were Skip and Anne'te Lorenz, both former Hinds students and members of the Choir. Mrs. Lorenz, along with her husband, a professional photographer with Magee Photographers of Jackson, entertained between acts and limelighted when they presented a composition of songs sung by Mrs. Lorenz, accompanied by her drummer husband, Skip Lorenz, Barney McCann, piano and Jim Suber, bass.

Offering mostly entertainment in the vocalist category, the judges chose from the twenty contestants as first place winner of $25, James Suber, who played the guitar and sang "Summertime" and "American Trilogy." Mark Gray, pianist and singer, was awarded second place with his arrangement of "Let It Be Me" and "I Believe." Setting the stage as he stated, for his second number was Miss Phyllis White, his immediate past performer, who presented a Christian testimonial monologue. Although not placing in awards, Miss White set the mood for the rest of the production.

Third place winners of $10 was the "Possum Hollow Municipal Jug and String Band," the group led by Terry Tate included William Head, Rob Hamilton, Bobby Jamison, Kris Hendershot, Agnes Reed and Caren Broom. Offering the ingredients for good humor, the group offered a take off on Farren Young's "B. C.," commercial and the country-western V show, "Hee Haw."

Under the direction of David Dorsey, choir president, the show is presented every year to help cover cost of tours and other expense activities of the singing group.

Oakley Training School Receives Christmas Joy Through Effort

Oakley Training School, located between Raymond and Leland, will experience a very different Christmas this year through the efforts of Mrs. Lynn McCarty, secretary to Dr. Mayo.

It is the purpose of the program to show that people, particularly in the Raymond area, do care about other people and their needs in today's modern world. Seven church groups and other organizations are participating in the "We Care Program" this Christmas. Each of these groups will sponsor an individual cottage.

Sunday, Dec. 19, at 2:00 p.m. is the big day when representatives from each group will meet with their cottage for a time of fellowship. The boys will have a chance to help decorate their Christmas trees, something new to the boys, sing carols, and enjoy refreshments. There will also be an outside door decoration for each cottage.

Many of the boys at Oakley will be eligible for a Christmas vacation with their families, yet many will remain.

It is hoped that a community effort will be made to donate funds to purchase gifts for these boys who remain at Oakley throughout the Christmas holidays. Many of these boys will not receive a gift unless the program is a success.

From now until Wednesday, Dec. 15, contributions may be placed in boxes located around the Hinds campus. Any group which wishes to contribute money may make a deposit in the Merchants and Planters Bank in the special "We Care Program" account. The gifts will be presented on the individual basis and each boy's gift will have his name on a card.

For any further information about the program, questions can be answered by contacting Mrs. Lynn McCarty in Dr. Mayo's office or through the campus Post Office.

Boes are located at the Western Auto Store, Raymond Drug Store, Alexander Auto Parts, Kirk's Shop-worth, Jitney Jungle, City Grocery, Hinds County Co-op, Hinds Junior College Campus Book Store, Kelly's Standard Service, Mitchell's Texaco Service, Wright's Red Bird Station, Miss Connie's, L & K Grocery, Evan's Stop-Shop and King's Grocery.

This effort is a community project and it is hoped that many people will help make it a success. Any and all gifts will be appreciated by the boys at Oakley.

Groups sponsoring the project are the Raymond Baptist Church, Raymond Methodist Church, Raymond Presbyterian Church, Raymond Culture Club, Hinds Junior College Education Association, Raymond Lions Club and Hinds Masonic Lodge No. 628.

Lendon Players Present Two Part Stage Drama

Hinds Junior College Lendon Players, under the direction of Mr. John Maxwell, presented a two act drama, "The Crucible," in the College Auditorium November 17-19.

The Hinds cast consisting of 19 members includes: Richard Lowery as John Proctor; Diane Daniel as Abigail Williams; Karen Broome as Elizabeth Proctor; Rob Hamilton as Reverend Parris; Luciane Malvaney as Betty Parris; Phyllis White as Tituba; Margaret Johnson as Susanna Wallcott; Jim Harris as Thomas Putnam; and Judy Jones as Mrs. Ann Putnam.

Other players in the cast include: Ann Cox as Mercy Lewis; Mary Ellen Woods as Mary Warren; Cindy Rives as Rebecca Nurse; William Head as Giles Cory; Bill Stimac as John Hale; Bobby Jamison as Ezekiel Cheever; Chip Zehnder as John Willard; Stanley Moore as Judge Hawthorne; Charles Berger as Deputy Governor Danforth; and Martha Porch as Sarah Good.

This drama is about the Puritan purge of witchcraft in old Salem. The story focuses upon a young farmer, his wife, and a young servant girl who maliciously causes the wife's arrest for witchcraft.

The Lendon Players will continue to present plays throughout the year and students, faculty and the public alike are urged to attend productions.

Governor Proclaims State Circle K Week

Governor John Bell Williams signed a proclamation recognizing the week of November 7-13 as "Circle K Week" in Mississippi.

Circle K International is a college men's service organization sponsored by Kiwanis International. Circle K is the largest collegiate men's service organization in North America with its 850 clubs numbering 12,000 in membership.

These clubs are located in all parts of the United States and in Canada, Mexico, and overseas. Twelve Mississippi colleges and universities have such organizations on their campuses.

Dedicated to Service

Williams stated in the proclamation that "the young men of Circle K are part of an organization dedicated to serving with purpose their God, country, state, and their fellow man, seeking to give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life," and that "Circle K men promote the adoption of higher standards and a more concerned and serviceable citizenship."

The Governor further stated, "through their purposeful service and responsible leadership they have helped to build better communities where righteousness, justice, patriotism, and good will are more than just words — where they become goals for living."

Mississippi Clubs

Circle K Clubs in Mississippi are located at: Hinds Junior College, Mississippi College, Meridian Junior College, Copiah-Lincoln Junior College, Belhaven College, Millsaps College, Jefferson Davis Junior College, William Carey College, University of Mississippi, Mississippi State University, Delta State College, and Mississippi Delta Junior College.

These twelve Mississippi clubs help make up a total of 27 clubs in the three state district of Louisiana - Mississippi - West Tennessee.

The sixty-one members who will make up the largest club of its kind in the International system of Kiwanis has become one of the most outstanding service organizations both on the campus and in the organization.

Performing projects that render service to needing families, mentally handicapped and senior citizens has been the major contributions in past years to the community. Other functions of the club have been the painting of the stadium concession stand and also remodeling the press box, donating blood for surgical patients, and collecting for various charities.

Astra Records Officers; Lists Future Club Plans

Officers for the 1971-72 season of the ASTRA club have been elected. Serving as president is Beth Ainsworth; Bet Pierce, vice-president; Anne McKee, secretary; Terry Raymond, treasurer; Jo Lynn Lewis, senator; and Betty Henderson, representative. David Dorsey and Wendell Womack are the ASTRA beaus.

Seventeen new members for the first semester were initiated and honored with a reception. Judy Denson of WLBT's "Coffee With Judy" show spoke to the initiates at the November initiation.

ASTRA serves in various ways. Each week several members go to Jackson to play with elementary school children. At Thanksgiving, ASTRA sponsors a needy family by donating food and service. During the Christmas season, ASTRA sends cards to all faculty members and sponsors a needy family.

Eagle Band: New Leader, New Look, New Sound

Students, faculty, and parents witnessed the birth of a new and distinguishingly different Eagle band this past fall as the 62 piece group displayed themselves as a precision marching unit with a brilliant new look and sound as they performed during halftime and pre-game shows.

John Manchester, now serving in his first year as Band Director at Hinds, attributes much of the new look and sound to the large number of freshmen members which numbers approximately 40. Manchester stated, "This is one of the most enthusiastic groups of students I have ever seen and there is an unusually large number of good musicians who help comprise the band."

Practice

Members of the band have spent many long and tiring hours rehearsing for shows during the regularly scheduled band period as well as having late afternoon and night rehearsals. Many more hours are spent in private practice on the individual's own time to prepare for the forthcoming performance. One band member remarked, "To have a good band it takes a lot of practice by yourself as well as a group and this is what we want for our band in order to make it the best."

Other than the shows the band has performed during Hinds ball games, they performed before 66,000 people and network television for the halftime show of one of the New Orleans Saints games in September.

Already plans for next year's marching band are being made which will include more precision drills with at least a three minute drill at the opening of each half-time or pre-game show.

Comments

Commenting on the band's progress this year Music Department Chairman Leslie Reeves remarked, "The band has greatly improved over the past two years and we are now looking forward to the concert season and to the Christmas Concert which the band will have in December."

Another faculty member, History instructor Larry McFarlane commented, "The faculty and students of Hinds should be proud of Band Director John Manchester and his fine group of musicians who have worked long and hard to produce a good marching band."

It is the opinion of this observer that they have more than met their objective and have become an excellent group. I, for one, heartily congratulate the entire band for their untiring effort and hope they continue to produce high quality performances."

Talmadge Tenhet, who served as band director last year in the absence of Don Hickman, stated, "I feel that Manchester has done a lot for the instrumental music program during the football season and I'm eager to see his results with the stage band."

Now that the marching season is over concert music is being rehearsed for the Christmas Concert that the band will give on December 16. Other plans also include two more concerts during second semester which will probably be scheduled for March and May.

Manchester commenting on the Concert Band remarked, "There is a good distribution of instruments for the Concert Band which gives it a quality sound." Further commenting he stated, "The Stage Band will also be giving a concert during the second semester and at the present time members for this group are being selected."

Concert

During the second semester concert band will meet on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays and the stage band will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays and Manchester hopes to recruit even more band members for the second semester. He is also hopeful of having a 70 or 80 piece band for next year and an extensive recruiting program will be carried out to accomplish this objective.

During the next few weeks the band will participate in the Jackson Christmas Parade on December 4 and in the Magee Christmas Parade on December 8. They will also take part in the Dixie National Parade in February. Fifteen band members will be auditioning for the All State Junior College Band which will perform for the Mississippi Education Association's Convention in March.

"There is a good possibility that the Mississippi State High School Band Festival will be held on the Hinds campus this Spring and this would provide us with an excellent opportunity for recruiting new members for next year," commented Manchester.

Liz Shows is serving as drum majorette this year and majorettes include Gail Fortenberry, Charlotte Hartzog, Michelle Henderson, Beverly Camel, Jenny Wilson, and Glenda Burnham.

Serving as flag girls are Johnnye Harris, Rosilind Gill, Barbara Hopkins, Janet Hayes, and Gwendolyn White.

Members

Band members include: Flutes: Margie Haddock, Deleslyn Cooper, Margaret Lewis, Liz Shows, Susan Jones, Charlotte Hartzog, Janet Hayes, and Estella Sanders. Oboe: Phyllis Ammons. Clarinets: Kathy Hutto, Mary Sue Phillips, Caren Broom, Gail Fortenberry, Debbie Beason, Betty Stokes, Agnes Reed, Marsha Holyfield, Michelle Henderson, Rosilind Gill, and Sarah Trim. Alto Clarinet: Cindy Fulton. Bass Clarinet: John Spain. Bassoon: Rob Hamilton. Alto Saxophones: Mark Cloer and Ronnie Crudup. Tenor Saxophones: Randy Cloer and Charles Moore. Baritone Saxophone: Tim Chapman.

Homecoming Activities

the drum . . . the court . . . the administration . . .

the signmakers . . . the queen . . . the people! ! !

"Up With People" was the theme of Homecoming activities for 1971.

People, no matter what age, worked together;

created together;

laughed together;

cried together.

True,

there were a lot of the routine, humdrum oldthings in Homecoming.

but the spirit;

the know'edge that people are not totally evil;

the realization that people are some good,

no matter what age;

all this gave this year's Homecoming that wonderful, fresh

newthing of uniqueness

NEW FACILITY — Hinds Junior College will construct a new three story, 28,000 square foot classroom building. The $463,621.00 building will have 13 class rooms and 38 faculty offices and house four departments.

Classroom Complex Planned; Completion Set For Next Fall

Dr. Robert M. Mayo, President of Hinds Junior College, has announced the construction of a new three story 28,000 square foot classroom building.

Jackson architect James T. Canizaro designed the building and the construction will be done by Howard Byrd Construction Company at a cost of $463,621.00. Construction of the building will require 300 working days and the completion date is scheduled for the middle of the 1972 fall term.

The new structure will consist of 13 classrooms and 38 faculty offices as well as a seminar room and conference room. The building will house the Mathematics, Engineering Graphics, Data Processing, and Computer Science Departments as well as miscellaneous classrooms.

Furniture and equipment for the building will cost $35,000 which does not include the data processing equipment. Office areas will be carpeted and draped and a new type of insulation, double backing insulated glass, will be used as well as having electric heating and air conditioning.

The building will also be wired so that at a later date audiovisual equipment may be included giving the building a dial access to the college's media center.

Dr. Mayo stated, "Additional classrooms and faculty offices are badly needed because of the increasing enrollment and these additional areas will make it possible for administrative offices to expand and better fill their role in the instructional program.

He was president of his junior class at Brandon High School and was elected to Who's Who 3 years. He was a national winner in 4-H club and was a member of the Bible Club, FCA, and FFA.

Sociology Major

Sam Sumrall is a freshman from Crystal Springs. He is majoring in sociology and hopes to become a youth counselor and work with juvenile delinquents. After leaving Hinds he plans to attend Mississippi State. At Hinds he is a member of Circle K.

In high school, he was president of the student body, president of Mu Alpha Theta, and vice-president of the Little Dixie Confederation of Student Councils. He was also Mr. Crystal Springs and Mr. Senior Class.

Mike Bourgeois is a music major from Plaquemine, La. He plans to attend Southeastern Louisiana University and hopes to become a music teacher. He is a member of Circle K, the Men's Ensemble, and the Clefs.

At Plaquemine High School he was a member of the football team and a chorus member and soloist.

Buddy Mayo is a freshman from Raymond. He plans to attend Ole Miss. He is a member of Circle K, Choir, and Annual Staff.

In high school he played both football and basketball, was a band member, and was on the paper staff.

Commercial Artist

Susan Graham, from Jackson, is a Commercial Art major. She plans to attend Ole Miss and wants to become a commercial artist.

At Provine High School she was Most Creative in Who's Who, played a major role in Class Capers 3 years, Cartoonist for the school paper, MSPA delegate, Student Council Representative, and Red Cross Representative.

Linda Barlow is a secondary education major from Star. She plans to attend the University of Southern Mississippi and hopes to become a high school teacher. She is a member of WRA, BSU, and annual staff.

At Florence High School she was a member of the Beta Club, Bible Club, Library Club, and History Club. She was on the annual staff and paper staff. She was a class officer, member of Student Council, chosen Most Versatile, and lettered in basketball 4 years.

Deferment Changes Accepted By Boards

Young men who wish to drop draft deferments in favor of 1-A classifications may still do so. Local boards will continue to grant these requests even though the young men continue to meet the conditions for which the deferments were granted. Six categories are included: 1-S, high school students; 2-A, occupational deferments or vocational/technical students 2-C, agricultural deferments 2-D, divinity students; 2-S, undergraduate college students; and 3-A, hardship deferments.

This policy was instituted in late 1970 and was of particular interest to young men with random sequence (lottery) numbers above the highest RSN called for induction. By dropping their deferments at the end of the year, they became part of that year's prime selection group. On January 1, they were placed in a second priority position. Because of this, they are not subject to induction until the manpower supply in the first priority selection group is exhausted; a development likely only if a major national emergency occurs.

The policy was reaffirmed in a Local Board Memorandum sent this week by Draft Director Curtis W. Tarr to all 4,000 local draft boards. Registrants who desire to take advantage of the policy in 1971 must have been born in 1951 or earlier, have RSNs of 126 or above, and NOT be a member of the extended priority selection group. Moreover, they must submit their request in writing. To be considered as part of the 1971 prime selection group, the requests must be postmarked no later than December 31.

RSN 125 has been set as the year-end ceiling for 1971 draft calls. Unlike 1970, when the year-end ceiling was not necessary reached by all local boards, the authorization in the 1971 draft amendments of a Uniform National Call insures that all eligible registrants will be considered for induction if they: (1) are in Class 1-A on December 31, (2) are 20 years of age or older on that date, and (3) have RSNs of 125 or below. If young men meet these criteria, but are not inducted during 1971, their liability for induction will be extended into 1972. They will prime candidates for induction during the first three months of the year along with other men who are now in the extended priority selection group.

Commenting on the continuation of the policy which allows the dropping of deferments, Dr. Tarr said: "Young men holding lottery numbers of RSN 126 and above can effectively limit their vulnerability to the draft by being classified into 1-A by the year's end. Since the law allows young men to apply for deferments, we believe those young men granted deferments should be able to drop them if they desire."

"Our purposes," Tarr added, "are to achieve fairness to all registrants in determining their priority status on January 1 of the new year and to limit the uncertainty that young men with high random sequence numbers face. Registrants with student, occupational, paternity, agricultural, and hardship deferments will be eligible to take advantage of this policy."

The Memorandum also amends Selective Service policy on allowing record changes in birthdates upon submission of adequate evidence. Starting December 10, if a birthdate change is submitted after the registrant has received a lottery number, the records will be changed, but the registrant will retain his original lottery number.

productions toured the state and Hinds entries in the state music contest won so many awards that other junior colleges petitioned that Hinds be sent to senior college competitions. During her stay at Hinds, the musical participation increased from less than 100 to a total of over six hundred from a student body of nine hundred.

In 1937 Hinds won the Grand Trophy in the Cotton Music Contest in Memphis, Tennessee, competing with junior colleges and senior colleges from seven states. In 1942 Mrs. Davis wrote a pageant, "The Pledge," which the Canto-Sonora Club presented under her direction. It tied for first place in the National Donald Voorhees Patriotic Program.

RETIREMENT

In 1950 at the age sixty-three Lucile Davis retired from her position at Hinds Junior College and returned to her home in Hutchinson, Kansas. Here, in addition to managing family properly, she established a studio and taught voice, piano, and organ. She initiated and directed a county-wide Home Demonstration Club Chorus which earned wide acclaim.

She also organized the Polythonic Music Club of over hundred members and directed its chorus. She received national recognition again for her pageants and in 1953 had one written for production.

Lucile Bradbridge Davis won recognition for her students and honors for herself wherever she was. She won awards for outstanding accomplishments with musical organizations throughout her career and the professional success of numerous individual students is impressive. One friend said "She was always a leader in musical circles and a greatly beloved teacher. She enriched each community with her uniring devotion to provide outstanding music."

SMEA Describes Club's Objections

Perhaps, after seeing SMEA posters on campus, you have wondered what SMEA really is. Its name, Student Mississippi Education Association (SMEA) gives somewhat of a clue, in that SMEA concerns education. But more specifically, it is an organization to benefit students planning to become teachers.

There are valuable benefits for students involved in SMEA. First, there is a liability insurance policy available to each student by simply paying the $3.00 dues. This insurance policy covers a student up to $100,000 protection against law-suits that may occur during the interim of student teaching. Secondly, a teacher placement service was organized to inform graduate students of schools with vacancies; thus making it easier for students just out of college to find their first job. Third, newsletters, magazines, and conventions keep each student member aware of current events and laws concerning the teaching profession. And fourth, local organizations plan programs to give insight into the teaching profession. These programs may include a discussion on "Qualifications a Principal Considers when Hiring a Teacher," "What to Expect in the First Year of Teaching," and "Maintaining Discipline in the Classroom."

An SMEA chapter is being organized this year on campus. Officers were elected at the first meeting. The officers are: president, John Gerber; vice president, Sharon Strickland; secretary, Debra Britte; and treasurer, Gordon Ward. The advisors are Miss Nell Ann Pickett, instructor of English, and Mr. Joe Longstreet, instructor of electronics.

Meetings are held the second Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in room 115 of the Union building. Watch for more posters concerning each meeting. Plan NOW to attend if you are an education major.

"Eagle" Yearbook Staff Meets 'Taylor' Deadline

Eagle editor Carolyn Wooten has announced that the 1972 Eagle staff has met the first of three deadlines for the campus yearbook on November 19.

Wooten remarked that the staff has worked many long and tiring hours to prepare 89 pages of copy to send to Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas.

Earlier this year three members of the staff along with advisor Bob Hodges traveled to Dallas and worked with Taylor's representatives in the plant on designing special sections of the book and choosing the cover for the Eagle.

Sections that were being worked on for the first shipment were faculty and administration, classes, activities, organizations, sports, and vo-tech.

Sections that were completely finished for the first deadline were faculty and administration, classes, and the football section of sports.

Staff members will be working on division pages, cover design, and all other sections of the yearbook for another shipment to the Editor Wooten remarked, "We publisher during the Christmas holidays.

hope to have a good yearbook that all students can look back upon in future years and remember their days at Hinds. We are planning to use some new ideas in certain sections this year and hope it will please the students."

Final shipment of copy must be sent to Taylor in February in order to receive the yearbook before school is out in May.

Senate Delegates Attend State Meet

Eight Hinds delegates attended the Student Council Association of Mississippi Convention which was held on Oct. 25 and 26 at the Biloxi Rountowner.

Attending the two day convention were Jerry Allen, Babs Sharp, Steve Headley, Dennis Bledsoe, Liz Neal, Cathy Richardson, Ray Berry and Chris Smith.

Delegates attended seminars and listened to various candidates' speeches. A general assembly was held in which plans for a Mississippi Intercollegiate Conference were discussed. The conference is to be held in Jackson later during this school year.

Jackson Branch Extends Courses In Adult Areas

Hinds Junior College offers a number of courses in the Jackson Branch ranging from accounting to electronics to typing. The department also offers vocational and high school courses. The high school courses make it possible for a student to receive credits which entitle him to a high school diploma.

Admission standards for the Jackson Branch are the same as those of the Raymond campus of the college.

Credit Received

Students receive full college credit for technical courses and are awarded an Associate of Arts degree upon completion of graduation requirements.

Vocational students receive a vocational certificate upon completion of the program and may be awarded national certification of registration upon request.

Student Load

Technical courses may vary from 2 to 4 semesters. A student will average 20 hours a week class time. A few selected technical courses are offered at night.

Vocational programs range from 2 to 4 semesters with an average of 30 hours of weekly class time.

High school programs are 2 years in length, meeting 3 hours daily, 5 days a week.

Courses Offered

Courses offered include Accounting, Advertising, Architectural Drafting, Basic Electricity, Business English, Business Law, Business Management, Business Math, Electricity for Electronics, Industrial Psychology, Machine Drafting, Marketing, Medical Terminology, Personnel Management, Retailing Shorthand, Structural Drafting and Typing.

Vocational courses include Auto-Mechanics, Dental Assisting, Inhalation Therapy, Operating Room Technology, Practical Nursing and Business and Office Practices.

Dorms To Close Wednesday At 4

Schedules for the dormitories during Thanksgiving holidays have been announced by the Dean of Men and Women.

Womens dorms will be closed Wednesday at 5:00 p.m. and will reopen at 3:00 Sunday afternoon.

Mens dorms will be closed Wed. Nov. 24 at 4:00 p.m. and will reopen Sunday afternoon.

Meal tickets will be distributed on Mon. Nov. 29 in the Business office. The arrangement for the distribution will be same as the first period. Students who have already purchased tickets will be able to receive them in the cafeteria. Students who have not previously paid must go by the business office and pay their bill.

All dormitory students must pay their room and board on the dates that are scheduled for payment. Students not paying are subject to being moved out of the dormitories. Any students who will be moving out of the dorms at any time should remember to check out properly. This could mean that you would forfeit your room deposit or even a refund that you may be entitled to receive.

Watching the Sports Scene

By LARRY TEMPLE

We have heard rumor that only those fans who are in good health (heart wise) will be allowed to attend the remaining Ole Miss games. For those who did attend the Ole Miss-LSU; Tampa tilt we suggest you take a little vacation from Ole Miss football. Probably the best relaxation would be to sit in on a Perkinston Junior college game and cheer for Perk. "There just ain't no way them guys can lose." Perk started out this season number one in the nation and they finished as the number one junior college in the nation. Anyone interested in taking it away from them is welcome to try.

Maybe Sta'e will perfect that "wishbone T" in time for their Turkey Day bout with the Rebels. Some are predicting a Bulldog win for this year's rival game. We wouldn't be so concerned if these weren't Ole Miss fans. Somehow the "Dogs" had better get that hole in the secondary filled. With Downsing on the sidelines that might throw a little light on the Rebel passing game. Not to mention the kickoff and punt returns of State.

So far the SEC has made a good showing on the national scale. Alabama, Georgia, Ole Miss, and LSU are all riding pretty high. Won't be long now before some of them start getting rubbed out.

"Graham's Gang" finished the Eagle football season with a 2-7 overall ledger. This record ties that of last year's football season. Perhaps the major accomplishments of this year's football season was the winning of the homecoming game. Northeast almost took the cake away in the last three minutes of the game but Hinds hung in there til the gun and went to the dance with a 20-16 win.

With football season gone the Hinds campus will now concentrate on the upcoming basketball season. Coach Garrison will have several of his last year's state title winners on the lineup this year.

Hinds will host a Christmas basketball tournament this year during the 20th and 21st of December. Utica Junior College, Hinds Junior College, Holmes Junior College, and Itawamba Junior College will participate.

Intramural football has really gotten into full swing this year. The most fun of the intramural season is the team names. Where else but Hinds could you find a football team named the Truckers, or the Brewers, how about the Buckeyes, but first place thus far is the Brew Masters.

Coach Joe Renfro is now in the process of arranging a schedule for intramural basketball for men students. He plans to have the schedule set up by the time we return from Thanksgiving holidays. Students interested should check with Coach Renfro or look for more information posted around the P. E. Department.

THEY TRIED Wiley Piazza sweeping hard (1); Coach Graham responding after an Eagle touchdown (2); Mike Baker intercepting a pass (3); George Holland getting over the line (4); and Muffuletto snagging a Wright pass (5); All of these plays represent the effort, the success, the failure, the anguish, and the thrill of the 1971 Hinds Junior College Eagle football season. The Eagles finished with a 2-7 overall record. Overpowering two of their nine opponents the Eagles won their opener against the Bulldogs of Holmes Junior College by a score of 24-17 and also defeated Northeast Junior College 20-16 for the first Homecoming victory in a number of years.

Eagles End With Two Win, Seven Loss Record

Obviously out to improve over last year's record, the Hinds Eagles took on the Holmes Junior College Bulldogs with a smashing 24-14 victory. Coach Graham, in his first year as head mentor, was determined to prove that the Eagles have evolved the nucleus of a winning football team.

Main highlights of the opener were the thirty yard pass to Ronnie Muffuletto to which resulted in a T.D., a forty yard field goal by David Bearden, a 18 yard scamper by quarterback Bobby Barrett which yielded a touchdown, and the final T.D. by halfback Boyd Sullivan.

First Loss

Hinds took its first loss of the season the following Saturday night as the Lions of East Mississippi downed the Eagles 31-13. Harold Anderson, freshman tailback for the Eagles, reached paydirt for the Eagles early in the first quarter with his sixty yard sprint around the end. East Mississippi, keeping the margin closed, scored on a 27-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter.

Boyd Sullivan, got six points for Hinds in the second quarter but the Lions were quick on the rebound and soon leaped out to a 31-13 lead.

Southwest Junior College downed the Eagles 16-14 in the second Hinds home game of the season. Ronnie Muffuletto stole the show for the Hinds side of the stage as he snagged two Harold Wright passes for T.D.'s. Adding to his touchdowns, Muff booted the two extra points. Southwest maintained their sturdy defense and held the Eagles scoreless for the remainder of the night.

Long Night

It was a long night for the Eagles during the Jones game. Boyd Sullivan gave the Eagles their first, last, and only score of the night by scampering from six yards out for the T.D. However, the Eagle six made little difference to the rolling Bearcat offense. Before the night was over the Hinds defense had given up 40 points to the Jones squad.

Pearl River Junior College, one of the biggest teams in the division, added a win to their 4-1 record by whipping the Eagles of Hinds 36-17.

Having much difficulty getting their running game established, the Hinds offense was forced to stick to their passing game. Harold Wright, freshman quarterback, seemed to have little trouble finding his "old reliable" Ronnie Muffuletto. Wright drilled to Muffuletto twice for point yielding passes. David Bearden, climaxed the Eagle scoring for the night with a twenty five yard field goal which gave the Eagles 17 points against the 36 of Pearl River.

Homecoming Win

Homecoming proved to be a success as the Eagles defeated the Wildcats of Northeast Junior College 20-16. Northeast nearly won their first, but the Eagles hung on for a real nerve shatterer. Hinds went into the homecoming tilt with a 1-4 record as compared to the visitors 0-5 overall ledger.

Throughout the first half the "Graham Gang" seemed to have little difficulty moving the ball. Hinds controlled the ball for more than half of the first two quarters. Other than the field goal by Northeast, Hinds dominated the first half both offensively and defensively.

Harold Wright led the Eagles to an early touchdown by plunging one

Jimmy Sa'mon completed the Hinds scoring with a 26 yard sprint.

Northeast's frenzied rally in the final three minutes fell but four yard for an Eagle six. Wright fired a 15 yarder to split end Larry Weems for the second T.D. and points short. Controlling the pigskin in the final precious seconds, Hinds hung on to their twenty with complete satisfaction.

Riding high the Eagles traveled to Itawamba only to be defeated 41-16. Itawamba's shotgun formation along with two fumbles in the endzone by Hinds proved to be too much for the "Graham Gang."

Co-Lin

Trying still to better the two win record, the Eagles traveled to Copiah Lincoln Junior College for the Eagles eighth ball game. Co-Lin, the predicted winner, was somewhat surprised by the Eagle defense. Holding the Wolves to just six points, the Eagle defense did their job for the night. However, the Hinds' offense couldn't seem to get it together once they reached the one yard line. Holding tight, the Co-Lin defense stopped the Eagle march.

In their final game of the season, the Eagles journeyed to the sands of Gulf Coast Junior College. Perk, who was picked number one junior college in the nation, was just too much for the visiting Eagles. Hinds managed to get on the board only once during the game. Perk rallied on to a 62-7 victory.

Graham

Coach Graham commented on this season as "We played a lot of good football, made some mistakes, won some ball games, and learned a lot. I think the boys did us a good job on the average. I would like to thank the student body for giving us excellent support throughout the season."

Off season training will get underway some time in the near future. Many of the football players will now begin training for track season.

HJC Judo Places In Division Meet

By ESTELLA SANDERS

Under the instruction of Mrs. Barbara Love, the newly formed Hinds Jr. College chapter of United States Judo Association took several trophies in the tournament held for the year of 1970-1971 at Bossier City, Louisiana.

This tournament was sponsored by the George Emmert Young Men's Christian Association of Bossier City was the first for the Hinds Judo Club for the year 1970-1971.

Representing Hinds Jr. College in the lightweight division were Margo Goss, Gail Banes, and Becky Thrash. Entering the heavyweight division were Susan Bridgewater, Jan Davis, Joyce McCullough and Janice Carter.

Placed second by defeating everyone in the heavyweight division was one of Hinds outstanding Judo students, Joyce McCullough, who defeated everyone except a Yellow belt from Barksdale Air Force Base.

Janice Carter, defeated by Yellow belt from Barksdale Air Force Base, was placed third in heavyweight division.

Returning from Hinds Judo class for the season 1970-71 are Deborah Hall, Vonda Dabbs, Becky Thrash, Susan Bridgewater, and Diane Daniels. These girls were five of Hinds outstanding performers during last year's season.

Brother-Sister Sports Team View Ballgame From Field And Sidelines

There was no doubt in Marilyn as to whether or not Ronnie could play football. After big brother packed up for college his freshman year little sister must have made her mind up that he was going to need a little help from the family to get through the next season.

This year's Eagle football was indirectly a joint family effort on the part of the Muffuletto duo. Ronnie, who is the eldest of the pair, held the top receiving post of the Eagle squad. Marilyn, apparently by the name not a linebacker, also took an active part in the football season. Only her job was on the sidelines as a Hinds cheerleader.

Ronnie

Ronnie and Marilyn Muffuletto hail from Vicksburg, Miss. The parents of the four girl two boy family are Mrs. Marietta Muffuletto and the late Vincent Muffuletto.

Ronnie, a sophomore Business Major at Hinds, was born in 1951 and attended St. Francis Xavier Academy through the fourth grade and completed his secondary education at St. Aloysius. He lettered all three years in football, basketball, and track while attending St. Aloysius. His favorite sport was football during high school. Throughout his football career he has played end and occasionally did some place kicking.

Since attending Hinds Junior College Ronnie has participated in the football and track programs. During the off season he uses his roundball talents in the intramural basketball program by playing for the famed B.C. All-Star.

Marilyn

Marilyn, a freshman business education major at Hinds, was also born in Vicksburg. She attended St. Francis Xavier Academy nine years and completed her secondary education at St. Al, as did Ronnie.

While in high school, she was an active member of the C.Y.O., Fine Arts Club, Choral Club, and Junior Classical League. She was a student council representative and a member of the Junior National Honor Society. Her junior year at St. Aloysius she was a member of the Pep Squad and also Homecoming maid. She was elected class favorite in the 11th grade. In her senior year, Marilyn was a cheerleader and also chosen Homecoming Maid of Honor. Along with all her high school honors she was elected Miss St. Aloysius during her senior year.

Since enrolling in Hinds Junior College, Marilyn has been elected freshman cheerleader and homecoming maid.

Influence?

"I like to watch Ronnie play, especially when they throw to him. He graduated before I was elected cheerleader but now I can officially yell for him. I don't think the idea of me being a cheerleader bothers him during a game. If there is someone he wants to impress, it sure isn't me. We know who it is though." This is Marilyn's viewpoint on the cheerleader player ties.

Well, whether or not little sister had any influence on Ronnie's performance is yet to be determined. Maybe his leading the division in passes received was in no way connected with Marilyn's cheering. Whatever the reason, it's always nice to have someone on your side.

Eagles Open Season With One Loss, Win

Coach Bob Garrison's Hinds Eagles, The defending Mississippi Junior College State Champions opened the season being defeated by the Holmes Junior College Bulldogs 68-59 but came back to win the second game of the season by defeating Delta Junior College 79-50.

Coach Bennie Kimble of Holmes used height to good advantage in erasing a first half Eagle lead to pull away and win the first game for both schools.

Hinds led during most of the opening half and stretched out as much as a nine point lead shortly before the half. The Bulldogs came back and closed the gap to just two points on Danny Henderson's short jumper with 13 seconds left in the half.

Taking the lead 39-38 on another Henderson jump shot early in the second half Holmes fell behind briefly when Randy Shelton put the Eagles on top 48-46 midway in the final frame.

David Peacock put a rebound back in for Holmes with 6:55 left and placed Holmes back on top to stay 50-49. Moments later Charles Scarbrough sacked his second three point play of the night to open a gaping 54-49 lead for Holmes.

With two top Eagle rebounders retired, Wade Evans and Stanley Jemerson, by personal foul's Holmes took a 14 point lead with four minutes left. The Eagles narrowed the gap in the closing minutes but were not able to catch up with the Bulldogs and lost by nine points.

Scoring for Hinds were: Randy Shelton, 12 points; Willie Ray Gibson, 22 points; Stanley Jemerson, 7 points; Wade Evans, 6 points; Billy Nail, 6 points; and Wendell Womack, 4 points.

First Victory

In their second game of the season the Eagles evened their record with the 79-50 victory over Mississippi Delta Junior College.

Eagle scorers for the game were Wade Evans, 16 points; Willie Ray Gibson, 11 points; Jimmy Nail, 10 points; Randy Shelton, 10 points; and Stanley Jefferson, 10 points.

Donnie Kelly led Mississippi Delta with 23 points for the game.

Stanley Jemerson took nine rebounds for Hinds, followed by Shelton with eight, Evans six, and George Singleton seven.

In a pre-season story Hinds Coach Bob Garrison remarked, "We lost five excellent players off last years team and those people will be hard to replace. We will be short on game experience, our shooting needs to improve, and some of our boys must realize that defense will win for you."

Commenting further on this year's Eagle squad Garrison stated, "We will be handicapped by only having four sophomores on the entire team which will mean that freshmen will have to carry the load and when this is the case it will take five or six games before we are ready to compete in this tough junior college league."

Eagle Squad

This years team includes: Willie Ray Gibson, a 5'9" guard; Jimmy Nail, a 6'1" forward; Wendell Womack, a 5'10" guard; Randy Shelton, a 6'3" forward; Robert Graves, a 6'2" forward; George Singleton, a 6'4" forward; Ricky Theobald, a 6'0" guard; Johnny Reid, a 5'10" guard; Stanley Jemerson, a 6'6" center; and Wade Evans, a 6'4" forward.

The four returning lettermen for the Eagles are Womack, Shelton, Graves, and Evans. Freshmen members include Gibson, Nail, Singleton, Theobald, Reid, and Jemerson.

Thanksgiving, Time Of Recollection; Realization Of America's Splendor

What is the love of country for which our flag stands? Maybe it begins with love of the land itself. It is the fog in with the tide at Eastport, or through the Golden Gate and among the towers of San Francisco. It is the sun coming up behind the White Mountains, over the Green, throwing a shining glory on Lake Champlain and above the Adirondacks. It is the storied Mississippi rolling swift and muddy past St. Louis, rolling past Cairo, pouring down past the levees of New Orleans. It is lazy noontide in the pines of Carolina; across the glowing nakedness of Arizona; it is the Grand Canyon, and a little stream coming down out of a New England ridge, in which the trout.

the train is on time; pilot in the clouds, the riveter running along the beam a hundred feet in the air. It is the cvlrek in the office, the housewife doing the dishes and sending the children off to school. It is the teacher, doctor, and parson tending and helping, body and soul, for small reward.

It is the stories told. It is the Pilgrims dying in their dreadful winter. It is the minuteman standing his ground at Concord Bridge, and dying there. It is the army in rags, sick, freezing, starving at Valley Forge. It is the wagons and the men on foot going westward over Cumberland Gap, floating down the great rivers, rolling over the great plains. It is the settler hacking fiercely at the primeval forests on his new, his own lands. It is Thoreau at Walden Pond, Lincoln at Cooper Union, and Lee riding home from Appomattox. It is corruption and disgrace, answered always by men who would not leave the flag lie in the dust, who have stood up in every generation to fight for the old ideals and old rights, at risk of ruin or of life itself.

It is a great multitude of people on pilgrimage, common and ordinary people charged with the usual human failings, yet filled with such a hope as never caught the imaginations and the hearts of any nation on earth before. The hope of liberty. The hope of justice. The hope of a land in which a man can stand straight, without fear, without rancor.

The land . . . a continent, the people of every race.

The flag . . . a symbol of what humility may aspire to when the wars are over and the barriers are down.

To these each generation must be dedicated and consecrated anew, to defend with life itself, if need be, above all, in friendliness, in hope, in courage, to live for.

It is men at work. It is the storm-tossed fishermen coming into Gloucester and Provincetown and Astoria. It is the farmer riding his great machine in the dust of harvest, the dairyman going to the barn before sunrise; the lineman mending the broken wire; the miner drilling for the blast. It is the servants of fire in the murky splendor of Pittsburgh, between the Allegheny and the Monongahela; the trucks rumbling through the night, the locomotive engineer bringing

Griffin Honored As Fifth Year Alumnus

Congressman Charles Griffin received Hinds Junior College's "Alumnus of the Year" award for 1971 at the annual Alumni Banquet held October 16 as part of Hinds 54th Homecoming.

Hinds president, Dr. Robert M. Mayo, presented Griffin the award making him the fifth recipient of the award. Others who have received this honor were: Governor John Bell Williams in 1967; Dr. Tad Thrash in 1968; Clifford Charlesworth in 1969; and Attorney General A. F. Summer in 1970.

Education

Griffin attended Wise Consolidated Elementary School and graduated from Utica High School in 1943 where he was elected "Outstanding Senior."

He enrolled at Hinds Junior College in the fall of 1943 and paid his expenses by washing dishes, firing the school boiler, and driving a bus.

In 1944 Griffin entered the U. S. Navy and served for two years and was discharged in 1946 after serving in the Pacific Theater of War. While in service he served aboard the Battleship Tennessee, the USS St. George, and the USS Floyd's Bay.

After Naval service he returned to Hinds Junior College and graduated in 1947. Griffin then attended Mississippi State University and graduated in 1949 with a BS degree in Public Administration.

Government Positions

In 1949 Griffin joined the staff of Representative John Bell Williams and assumed the duties of Administrative Assistant and served in this post until 1968.

Defeating six opponents, he was elected to Congress March 12, 1968 in a special election to fill the seat in the House of Representatives vacated when former Congressman John Bell Williams assumed the office of Governor of Mississippi.

On June 4, 1968, Griffin received the Democratic nomination for a full term over three opponents. Subsequently, he was elected to the 91st Congress without opposition on November 5, 1968, and to the 92nd Congress in 1970.

In Congress, Griffin serves as a member of the House Committee on Banking and Currency and the Subcommittees on Small Business, Bank Supervision and Insurance, and International Trade. He is also a member of the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries and the Subcommittees on Oceanography and Coast Guard.

Awards

Griffin has received citations for distinguished service from such organizations as: Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation; National Associated Businessmen, Inc.; Americans for Constitutional Action; AMVETS; and the Mississippi Cattlemen's Association.

He has also been a strong advocate of local control of education and has introduced legislation to preserve Freedom of Choice and has sponsored a Constitutional Amendment prohibiting the Federal Government from interfering with the rights of the states to set policy regarding public education, public health, and elections.

Senate Holds Meetings; Ford Heads Committee

By BRENDA BOYKIN

Setting up investigating committees and electing a President Pro-Tempore and a new Public Relations Commissioner have been the main senate proceedings during the past weeks.

David Ford was appointed to head a committee to investigate claims that Campus Security wasn't performing its duties properly. Ford found that two new men are to be hired in November, and John Lancaster, head of Campus Security, wants any unwarranted actions on the part of Campus Security to be reported to him. Ford's committee was also given the job of outlining the duties of Campus Security so that both the students and officers can be informed as to what Campus Security has the

A committee headed by David Morgan was appointed to find an improved method of cafeteria service. Morgan discussed ideas with members of the cafeteria staff and they concluded that the existing method should remain in use. Signs indicating where each box of meal in the cafeteria and the boxes are tickets is located have been posted to remain in the same place for each meal. This should cut down on the crowding and confusion and also help service to run more smoothly.

The senate elected David Ford as President Pro-Tempore. It is his duty to preside over the senate in the absence of the President. He also has the duty of letting senators and representatives know when their absences are becoming excessive.

The new Public Relations Commissioner appointed by the senate is Liz Neal. She is a freshman from Jackson and is on the Hindsonian staff.

A constitution for a new organization, called the Student Direction Service, was submitted to the senate for approval by Gene Lowry. The constitution was referred to Dennis Bledsoe, chairman of the Rules and Procedures Committee. Bledsoe reviewed the constitution and found that other campus organizations already have the same duties as those proposed for the new organization. Since there was no need found for the Student Direction Service, the senate voted to turn down the constitution.

Meanings Of Christmas Lost To Commercialism

Christmas . . . that time of year when all families join together and confirm the birth of the Savior and Redeemer will take place in the hearts of only a few this year.

Through the diligent work of advertising agents, public relations, and the mass media, the birth of Christ has been replaced with the All-American Christmas pastime of spend-a lot of money on gifts.

The Christmas of yesterday, when all the family would bundle up and attend Midnight Mass or other religious observances has long been forgotten and making that "loving phone call" has replaced the traditional family reunion.

What ever happend to the joy of Christmas, the happiness that people felt for one another, even if they were complete strangers? Or the spirit of brotherhood, when today a person doesn't care who he hurts just as long as he gets the bargain sale.

What ever happened to home-made cookies and egg nog, the idea that a family celebrates Christmas together instead of partying, or the simple tradition of giving to those less fortunate? It seems that all these have lost their place in a vast world of commercialism.

The world of today's Christmas little remembers the joy of caroling, or having a family project of selecting and decorating a live, evergreen tree.

The Christmas that is in vogue today is one of artificial tinsel, assembly line presents and commercial spirits.

To the few who still enjoy the season for it's real and significant worth, it seems that the Christ Child has been smothered in gift wrappings and 1c sales.

Christmas: Many Things

Christmas is a light that has flamed through the ages. It is a glow that warns the hearts of men wherever the old, yet ever new manger story is known and loved.

Christmas is PEACE, the promise of heralding angels fulfilled for a season. It is a foretaste of what could be, if men would but follow the teachings of the One whose birthday it is.

Christmas is a SPIRIT that flows from one heart to another, from one land to another. It is more precious than rubies and better than gold.

Christmas is a FAITH in goodness and kindness, in truth and love. It is faith in God, in His Son, in ourselves and our fellowman.

Christmas is JOY, an emotion as natural to the heart of man as the heart of God. Surely, a joyful Creator fashioned now-garlanded fir trees and diamond-frosted stars for our delight, and small winged creatures that sing even through the rain.

Christmas is a BENEDICTION, turning men's thoughts from material things to those which are spiritual. It is a blessing which implants goodwill and friendship among all people.

Though Similar Backgrounds Prevail Many Christmas Customs Different

By BRENDA BOYKIN

Celebrating Christmas is a world wide affair, and, though the customs in each country vary, they are all somehow similar.

In England Christmas is the exchanging of presents . . . singing Christmas carols on the highways as well as in the churches . . . celebrating Boxing Day, the day after Christmas . . . giving a shilling or two to mail-carriers, news-boys, and other public servants who bring season's greetings . . .

fore Christmas until the day after . . . gathering around the family tree on Christmas Eve . . . decorating the Christmas tree . . . exchanging gifts . . . giving of toys . . . remembering childhood days . . . keeping the mustom of the Christmas market . . . striving for "Peace on Earth."

(January 6) to exchange presents . . . looking forward to the coming of Befana, Italy's equivalent to Santa Claus.

In Italy Christmas is more of a festival for the adults than for the children . . . families gather-on Christmas Eve . . . talking around the fireplace . . . burning

Christmas is celebrated by attending Missa do Gallo, their Christmas Mass . . . singing Christmas carols . . . awaiting the arrival of their Santa Claus, Papa Noel . . . having family supper following the Christmas Mass . . . hanging of stockings . . . putting out shoes

a Christmas log, the appo . . . eating a suppe rat which there is no meat . . . attending midnight Mass . . . waiting until Epiphany

. . . keeping the "Day of Kings," January 6 . . . beginning festivities on December 24 and continuing them until January 6.

Christmas is something that seems to captivate the whole world. Though each country sees it a little differently, it is still essentially the same everywhere.

BAND CHRISTMAS PROGRAM — Members of the Hinds Junior College Band will present their Christmas Band Program Thursday, December 16, at 7:00 p.m. in the College Auditorium. Discussing plans

Band To Present Christmas Concert

Hinds Eagle Band will present a Christmas Concert on Thursday, December 16, at 7:00 p.m. in the College Auditorium, announced Band Director John Manchester.

The program, which will not only be the first band concert of the year, but the first Christmas Concert ever given by the band, will offer a variety of music sure to appeal to any concert-goers. There is no charge to attend the concert.

Selections to be presented include "Christmas Music for Winds" by John Cacavas, "Fantasy of a Bell Carol" by Edward J. Madden, "Variations on Joy to the World," by Hershey Kay, and "Sleigh Ride" by Leroy Anderson.

More Selection

Other selections include "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing" by Mendelssohn, "Three Songs for Christmas" by Clare Grundman, "God Rest Ye, Merry Gentlemen" by O. A. Davis and "Christmas Fugue" by Robert B. Brown.

Band members have been rehearsing for the program for several weeks in anticipation of a successful performance. The purpose of the concert is to promote the Christmas spirit on campus.

Director John Manchester stated, "We have tried to design our Christmas program in a way that will include a large sampling of traditional Christmas music."

"During our rehearsals the band members have been showing a lot of enthusiasm, so I'm really expecting a very successful program."

"We're all looking forward to the concert in the hope that it will give everyone a little more Christmas spirit as we begin our holidays." Band member Jerry Spruill said, "We're real proud of how the music for the concert is coming. We've worked hard for the past several weeks and we think the public will really enjoy the repertoire of music."

Band Members

Members of the concert band include Margie Haddock, Deleslyn Cooper, Margaret Lewis, Liz Shows, Susan Jones, Charlotte Hartzog, Janet Hayes, Estella Sanders, Phyllis Ammons, and Kathy Hutto.

Other members are Mary Sue Phillips, Caren Broom, Gail Fortenberry, Debbie Beason, Betty Stokes, Agnes Reed, Marsha Holyfield, Michelle Henderson, Rosilind Gill and Cindy Fulton.

Included in the list of concert members are John Spain, Rob Hamilton, Mark Cloer, Ronnie Crudup, Gary Boone, Randy Cloer, Charles Moore, Tim Chapman, and Greg Morlan.

Also, William Head, Ronny Curtis, Alan Anderson, Barbara Jones, Beverly Camel, Rusty Crider, Cliff Palmer, Kris Hendershot, and Bobby Jamison are included in the group.

Key Club President To Address Club; Directs 90,000 Member Organization

Key Club International President Paul McDowell, from Lafayette, Louisiana, will speak to a special meeting of the Hinds Circle K Club on Monday, December 13.

Other Circle K Clubs in the area and Key Clubs as well will also attend the joint meeting.

Key Club is a high school service organization for young men sponsored by Kiwanis as Circle K is the college men's service organization.

28th Confab

McDowell, a senior at Lafayette High School was elected president at the organization's 28th annual convention in Anaheim, California in July. As president of Key Club International McDowell is chief executive for the 90,000 member organization serving in 3,600 high schools in the United States, Canada, and the Bahamas. The Key Club organization serves the high school in much the same way as Kiwanis serves the adult community.

Before assuming the duties of president, McDowell was a member of the Key Club International Board of Trustees. He has also served as a Lt. Governor of the Louisiana-Mississippi-West Tennessee Key Club District and as a director of his high school Key Club.

He is active in school and community affairs in addition to his

Key Club work serving as freshman representative at his school, sophomore treasurer, and as a member of the Society of Outstanding American High School Students, and is listed for the second year in Who's Who in American High Schools."

Locally he has been "Mr. Junior Class," and "Sophomore Class Favorite." He is also active in the Methodist Youth Fellowship in Lafayette and is a member of Asbury United Methodist Church.

PAUL McDOWELL

McDowell is the son of Reverend and Mrs. Kenneth G. McDowell of Lafayette, Louisiana. At present his plans for college are not finalized but he is planning to major in speech and English.

Desiderata Provides Formulas For Life

As the Christmas season approaches, many media advance the ideas of brotherhood and peace. But few give a formula to achieve these ends. Perhaps this will help some people.

The title of the following is Desiderata. The philosophy was found in the old Saint Paul's church in Baltimore in 1685 yet still is in place with times today.

'Go placidly amid the noise and haste and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter, for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let not this blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love, for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.

With all its sham and drudgery and broken dreams, it is a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.'

Shertzer Addresses Counselors Meet

Dr. Bruce Shertzer, from Purdue University in Indiana, was the guest speaker at a banquet held at Hinds on December 3 to consider the formation of an Occupational Information Service.

The purpose of the meeting was to formulate an Occupational Information Service that will help students decide what they want to study and give them realistic knowledge about occupational areas.

Twenty high school counselors attended the banquet to act as consultants. W. D. Roundtree, Hinds counselor, and these consultants met to organize the project, set up committees, appoint committee chairmen, and decide dates for future meetings.

The group set up committees to develop types and sources of occupational information needed, to be responsible for formulating methods of presenting the information, and to provide the needed number of counselors for the program and decide the duties of the counselors.

"Dr. Shertzer is one of the most outstanding men in the area of guidance and counseling," according to Roundtree. Shertzer is a professor of guidance and counseling at Purdue University.

In his speech, he pointed out that the process of occupational selection is a lengthy process and should begin in about the ninth grade. But in the areas of occupational information and occupational selection processes most school systems are far behind. About 60 to 75 percent of the students at Hinds haven't decided what occupational field they want to enter; Shertzer indicated that this percentage also holds true in other parts of the country.

The professor said that one of the main factors behind unrealistic occupational choices is parental pressure. Often students are pressed into choosing high-prestige, high income jobs when they have not had the proper academic preparation in high school. In order to solve this problem, students should begin early to investigate the occupations in which they're interested. If students wait until the freshman or sophomore years of college to make this decision, they will have to condense this lengthy process into a short period of time. The result is usually an inferior occupational investigating process and therefore unrealistic vocational choices or an inability to make the decision.

The Occupational Information Service will be designed to help students determine their main interest areas, achieve a realistic appraisal of their abilities, and by combining these factors, aid them in their selection of a field of study. To be able to provide a good service of this type a sufficient number of counselors — one for every three or four hundred students—is vitally needed.

English Teachers Attend Convention

Mrs. Anne Hardy and Mrs. Sarah Jenkins attended the 61st annual National Council of Teachers of English Convention, November 25-27 in Las Vegas.

Mrs. Hardy attended a study conference prior to the convention which met to discuss humanities and interdisciplinary programs. During this program, humanities programs were discussed and examined and ideas were projected for future courses.

The convention began Thursday and featured speakers included Alvin Tofler, the author of Future Shock and Maya Angelo, the authoress of Now I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings.

Said Mrs. Hardy, "The trip to Las Vegas was like a journey to another entirely different way of life. The study conference was not only busy but enlightening. All in all it was a rewarding experience and I again came home with the conclusion that we have nothing to tuck our heads about at Hinds."

Brewers Capture Intramural Title

This year's intramural football program came to a climactic end with a 2-0 victory by the Brewmasters over the Ballers. Both teams came into the final game with only one game difference in the standings.

The game was highlighted by outstanding defensive play from start to finish. The Brewmaster's defensive unit was led by "B" Stuart with strong support from the entire team while heading the Baller defense unit were H. F. Deegan, Carl Nyman and Mark LeMay.

Brewer Defense

Both offenses were stymied throughout the afternoon. In fact, the only two points of the game were scored by the defense of the Brewmasters. This coming when Mike Brogdon tackled a Baller player in the end zone for a safety on the first offensive play of the game. The remainder of the game was a standstill with the game really being decided by only that one play.

Even though the scoring was over after only one play, the real struggle had not started. Both teams were stopped time after time when it seemed like they might finally get going.

With both teams knowing that probably one score would win the game, it turned into a real physical struggle. Play from the players of both squads got pretty rough in the end though all this energy was wasted because when the final whistle blew the score was still 2-0.

Top Scorers

Both of these teams were the top two scorers in the league with the Brewmasters having scored 238 points and the Ballers 183.

This is a real credit to both defenses since this was the first game for both teams that they had not been able to score a touchdown.

Basketball Squad Host Tournament

Hinds will host a Christmas basketball tournament on the nights of the 20th and the 21st with Holmes, Itawamba, and Utica participating. There will be two games each night in the boys gym, the first at 7:00 and the second at 8:30.

The schedule for Monday night is Utica vs Itawamba at 7:00 and Hinds playing Holmes at 8:30. On Tuesday night Itawamba will play Holmes in the first contest and Hinds plays the Utica Tigers in the second. Tickets for all games will be $1.00 for students and $2.00 for adults.

When asked about the upcoming tournament coach Garrison commented, "We are finally getting over the opening season jitters and our freshmen are becoming adjusted to the tough brand of basketball that we'll be playing in this tournament. Since school won't be in session when we play these games everybody really needs to come out and support the teams throughout the tournament. This is the first tournament we've had since I've been coaching here and we need a good turnout by the student body to assure more in the future."

Intramural Basketball Season Launches Action With Seventeen New Members

Under the direction of coach Joe Renfro, intramural basketball is here again bigger and better than ever, especially bigger.

There are 17 teams this year, made up of both dorm and commuting students. This is undoubtedly the largest number of intramural teams ever assembled at Hinds. The teams will play a "round-robin" schedule. This means that everybody will keep on playing until all the teams have played each other.

There are two games scheduled each night, at 6:00 and at 7:15. Results and standings will be listed in the paper and the schedule is listed on the bulletin board in the main hall of the Administration building.

This year's league will consist of the following teams: Gentle Ben and the Bears, Southside Studs, Wades Warriors, Running Gunners, Champions, Brothers, CAC Boys, Volunteers, Hinky Ho Bluffers, Roving Rebels, Hustlers, Hawks, B C All Stars, Buckeyes and Sego Brothers and Naomi.

Hinds Volleyballers Take Championship

By ESTELLA SANDERS

Hinds Jr. College Volleyball Team defending their Championship Title; won the Junior College Championship at Southern Mississippi, on November 19, 1971.

Mississippi State College for Women won the over all State Championship Title.

There is more to winning than being Junior College State Champs. "The girls have to learn to work together and since we only have our girls for two years, we almost have to start from scratch each year. But the determination of each girl to win makes a championship team," said Mrs. Warren.

"These girls worked hard to bring this honor to our school, and how many people even know we have a volleyball team?" Not many because as we played Natchez in our gym, I can name the people who came to see us play," said Mrs. Warren.

Three of our team members were named to the All-Tournament team. They are as follows: No. 41 Pam Habeeb of Vicksburg, captain of the team. Pam is a two year veteran at the game. No. 15, Beth Horn, of Madison Ridgeland, and Marilyn Nevels of Vicksburg.

"I am sure if you ask these girls, they will tell you that volleyball is a team effort and without the other three varsity team members, No. 11 Mary Beth Grogan, No. 51 Kathleen Webb and No. 35 Claudia Hoffman these awards would not have been possible," stated Mrs. Warren.

Eagles Nip Meridian On Lost Second Goal

By BILLY HARVEY

Hinds' Eagles traveled to Meridian Dec. 4 with the result being the most exciting game of the season thus far and a victory with Randy Shelton hitting a 15-foot jump shot with 4 seconds remaining to give the Eagles a 69-68 victory over the Meridian Eagles.

Behind by 5 points with only one minute left in the game, the Eagles relied on the clutch shooting of Shelton and a full court press to pull out the win. The Eagles' press caused Meridian into a couple of costly mistakes in the last minute which enabled Hinds to gain the win.

Meridian jumped off to an early lead and led 11-5 with the game 8 minutes old. The Eagles then began to hit and a pair of free throws by Shelton tied the game at 12-12. A field goal by Stanley Jemerson then gave the Eagles the lead that they did not relinquish until late in the fourth quarter.

Second Half Action

Halftime saw the Eagles leading by 5 points, 34-29. Behind the hot shooting of Ray Gibson the Eagles stretched their lead to 40-32.

It looked as this point as though the Eagles would pull away for an easy victory but it was not to be.

Meridian came back with a couple of hot hands from Lemuel Kelly and Butch Legett to remain within striking distance of the Eagles and, with 3 minutes remaining behind two long jumpers by Legett, took the lead for the first time since early in the first half with the score 61-60.

Meridian stretched this lead to 5 points by the use of their own press and some good outside shooting but a pair of free throws by Hinds and a jumper by Shelton set the stage for his game winning shot.

Actions in the Southwest tournament saw the Eagles add one win and a loss to their season's record.

The Eagles opened the tournament with a 90-61 loss to a powerful Co-Lin team. Leading scorers for the Eagles were Wade Evans with 16 points and Stanley Jemerson with 13 points and 12 rebounds.

In their second game of the tournament the Eagles defeated the Jones Bearcats 86-75. The Eagles held the lead throughout the game and at one point led by as much as 27 points. Leading the Eagles against Jones was Wade Evans who tossed in 22 points and grabbed off 16 rebounds. Other top scorers for the Eagles were Ray Gibson and Randy Shelton with 21 and 14 points respectively.

Hinds recorded their 3rd win of the season against 2 losses at the expense of Delta Jr. College 90-63. This was the second win of the season for the Eagles over Delta. After leading only 39-36 at the half the Eagle offense got rolling and pulled away from Delta in the early part of the second half.

Leading the Eagles against Delta were Shelton with 21 points and 13 rebounds, Wade Evans with 14 points and 13 rbs. and Gibson with 18 points coming mostly on long jumpers.

Fourth Win

Upping their record, the Eagles took their 4th consecutive win of the season defeating the Southwest Bears last Monday night.

After taking an early lead of 20-8 the Eagles were never headed and took an 8 point lead into the locker-room at the half.

Second half action saw the Eagles begin to move further ahead. With the Eagles leading by 67-44, both coaches emptied their benches and the Eagle substitutes then proceeded to outscore the Bear reserves by 11-5 and to preserve the Eagle victory of 78-49.

Leading the Eagles in scoring were Robert Graves with 15 points and Randy Shelton collecting 14.

Remaining Schedule

The Eagles have two more games scheduled before Christmas break. They will travel to Co-Lin Tuesday night, and will host Jones here at Raymond on Thursday.

During the holidays Hinds will host a Christmas tournament on the nights of 20th and 21st with Holmes, Utica, and Itawamba being represented in the tournament along with Hinds.

WESLEY

During December Wesley sponsored money raising projects in order to help finance the feeding of one of the children at the Methodist Children's Home in Jackson.

Wesley members sold doughnuts and muffins in the girls dorms and raised forty dollars. The money was used to cover the cost of feeding one child at the home during the month of December.

A Christmas party was held Monday, December 6, at Raymond United Methodist Church. A tree was decorated and refreshments were served to those attending. On December 13, members of Wesley went Christmas caroling in Raymond.

Wesley meets every Monday night at 6:15 in the Recital Hall of the Fine Arts Building. Inspirational and informative programs are presented.

OPEN HOUSE

Open House in the Men's Dorms will be Thursday, December 16 from 3:00 until 5:00. The Women's Dorms will have Open House Wednesday, December 16 from 3:00 until 5:00.

Each door in the Women's Dorms will be decorated and a group of judges will judge the doors and award first, second, and third prizes. All students, faculty, staff and friends are invited to come in and see the dormitories.

All dorms will close Friday afternoon, December 17, at 4:00 for Christmas holidays. The dorms will

ASTRA

Astra, a girls' service organization on the Hinds campus, has been continuing last year's project of teaching and instructing children in the Girls' Club of Jackson.

Astra members gave a Christmas tree decorating party for the children at the Girls' Club, Wednesday, December 8.

A Christmas party for the Astra members was also held on campus December 8 at 6:00. At the party the girls made Christmas cards for the faculty members.

Another December project was selling sandwiches in the girls dorms. The money raised will be used for other projects.

Astra sponsors social and cultural activities and helps to promote fellowship and understanding among all people. It is sponsored by the Altrusa Club of Jackson.

DMT

DMT — Distributive Marketing and Technology Club has elected officers for the 1971-1972 session, with Sheila Haynes being chosen president and Jim Davidson serving as vice-president.

Tom Gugert has been chosen to serve as treasurer while Sindy Ellis has been elected to be secretary. Robert Cage is parliamentarian and Mel Lavender is reporter.

Sponsors are Mr. McBaker and Charles Jones.

Members meet Monday mornings at 8:15 to discuss fund raising projects.

The members are interested in all aspects of marketing including sales, marketing and advertising.

Recently, members of the group went to Market in Dallas, Texas. They visited a designer's studio and studied many facets of the Market.

CIVITAN

Through the efforts of four Civitan members, stereo music is now being piped into the campus cafeteria.

David Morgan, Randy Cloer, Bob Ashley, and Bill Havis first discussed their idea for music in the cafeteria with manager, Mr. Airston. He gave them his full cooperation.

Chuck Cooper, a Jackson disc jockey, was then called upon for assistance. An FM receiver was donated to the school by WJDX FM with the condition that only their music be played.

CIRCLE K

Hinds Circle K Club has just recently completed staging the annual Beauty Pageant that is presented by the college yearbook The Eagle. Circle K has also helped decorate the campus for Christmas by decorating the Administration Building with a Christmas tree and providing the columns with a candy cane effect.

Lynn Johnson Judged As Yearbook Beauty

Lynn Johnson was chosen Most Beautiful in the annual Beauty Pageant, sponsored by the "Eagle." From a field of thirty-nine, fifteen semi-finalists were chosen, and the five finalists were announced.

Finalists in the December 2 contest were Rita Jones, Lee Ann May, Carla McNamee, Elaine Warren and Lynn Johnson.

Semi-finalists were Ginger Gaddis, Jo Ellen Evans, Blanche, Creel, Peggy Ervin, Deborah Westbrook, Lynn Crisler, Debbie Shivers, Madelyn Salerno and Patrice Box.

Rita Jones, a sophomore from Jackson, is a graduate of Wingfield. She won the girls singles state championship in tennis, was a member of the Wanderers at Wingfield and received the Most Sports-minded Award.

She would like to teach music and her hobbies include singing and playing the piano. She enjoys playing tennis, football, basketball and skiing.

Lee Ann May is a sophomore majoring in physical education. She attended Callaway High School in Jackson and states that her personal ambition is to be happy and live life to the fullest.

Lee Ann was a finalist in last year's beauty pageant and served as Co-Head cheerleader this year. She was also a Hi-Stepper her freshman year. She likes dancing, sports, swimming, riding motorcycles and meeting people.

Carla McNamee attended Brandon High School and hopes to major in Psychology at LSU. She was a Senior Beauty at Brandon, runner-up in the Miss Farm Bureau of Rankin County, and a majorette for two years at Brandon High.

Carla enjoys horseback riding, skiing, swimming, meeting new people and making new friends. Her favorite sports are basketball, football, baseball and golf.

Elaine Warren attended Provine High School in Jackson and hopes to be a fashion model. She was chosen a beauty her senior year, served on the McRaes Teen and College Fashion Board. She was also voted most Outstanding member of the Provine Concert Choir. She was also a member of the Rampagers.

Elaine is a member of the Hi-Steppers and the Hinds Concert Choir. She likes swimming, water skiing, and horse-back riding. Her favorite sports include football, baseball and tennis.

Lynn Johnson was chosen to be Most Beautiful. A freshman, she would like to have a job that deals with working with people.

Lynn attended Provine and Jackson Prep High Schools. While at Provine, she was in Class Capers and class editor of the annual, Aries. She was a member of the Concert Choir, the Rampagers, and the Girls Ensemble.

At Prep, Lynn was class editor of the annual and a member of the Pep Club. She enjoys cooking, sewing, dancing and singing. She also enjoys skiing, swimming, and horse-back riding.

This year Lynn is a Hi-Stepper. Judges were Mrs. Ann Touchstone, who is a former Miss Jackson, and Miss Jan Hederman, coordinator of student activities at Mississippi College.

Other judges were Mr. Howard Langfitt, Executive Vice-President of REA, and Mr. Louis Walsh, an art instructor at Mississippi College.

'Where Is Christmas' Set As Holiday Theme

"Where is Christmas" is the theme of the annual program to be presented by the Hinds Junior College Choir, Dec. 15 at 7:30 p. m. in the college auditorium.

Providing seasonal music for the production will be a combination of the full choir, concert choir, Girls' Ensemble, Men's Ensemble and Clefs. The music, chosen for the groups by co-directors, Leslie and Geneva Reeves, will include both secular and sacred selections.

Secular selections emphasizing the spirit and moods of Christmas will include "Christmas Day" and a Christmas Roudelay, sung by the Girls' Ensemble; "Mary Had A Baby" and "Carl Brother's Carol" by the Men's Ensemble. Clefs will perform "Christmas Was Meant For Children" and "Star Carol."

College Choir

The entire choir has prepared a number of selections which include "Caroling, Caroling Through the Snow," "Deck the Halls," "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen," "Where Were You Born O Holy Child," "Sleigh Ride," "The Meaning of Christmas," and "Silent Night."

Concert Choir will provide an arrangement by assistant director, Barney McCann, entitled "Jesus, Jes Rest Your Head." McCann also directs the Men's Ensemble and serves as accompanist for several of the choral selections.

"The annual Choir concert is one of the highlights of the school year at Hinds and quite often it has been presented to a full house." In addition to the concert, the Choir goes carolling on campus and in the town of Raymond.

Staging for the concert will be an informal banquet hall setting, familiar to traditional English Yuletide decorations. Special lighting effects will intersperse the moods of each selection.

Decorates Tree

In addition to the staging the Choir also decorates a large Christmas tree in the lobby of the auditorium each year. All the decorations used on the tree are made by Choir members. Mr. Reeves stated, "Through the years this has become one of the aspects of the Choir program which proved to be most interesting to the Choir members and those who see the tree."

Concerning the purpose of the program, Mrs. Reeves added, "The Choir is trying to show that Christmas is in the hearts of people — that Christmas is not a day or a thing, but a spirit within each of us, a time of brotherly love. We hope that through the music we will find where Christmas is."

HINDS JUNIOR COLLEGE, RAYMOND, MISSISSIPPI

JANUARY 26, 1972

GOVERNOR PRESENTED—Outgoing Governor John Bell Williams was presented a Resolution by the Board of Trustees of Hinds Junior College commending him on his service to the State of Missis-

Board of Trustees Adopts Resolution Commending John Bell Williams Work

Hinds Junior College's Board of Trustees adopted a resolution to Governor John Bell Williams commending him on his contributions to the state of Mississippi and to the field of education during his term as governor.

Governor Williams is a graduate of Hinds and received its first Alumnus of the Year award in 1967. The resolution states:

"WHEREAS: the Honorable John Bell Williams, Governor of the State of Mississippi, is an Alumnus of Hinds Junior College and the first Junior College graduate to serve as Governor of this State, and

"WHEREAS: prior to his election as Governor of the State of Mississippi he served the State long and well as a distinguished member of its Congressional delegation in the House of Representatives of the U. S. Congress, and

"WHEREAS: Governor Williams furnished Mississippi with enlightened, progressive leadership of the highest quality in all areas of state government while maintaining fiscal integrity and responsibility, and

"WHEREAS: his support of education and his dynamic leadership in both Houses of the Legislature has resulted in increased state support of all levels of public education during a period of trial and crisis unprecedented since the days of Southern Reconstruction.

"Now therefore be it resolved that the Board of Trustees of Hinds Junior College in a regular meeting on the Raymond campus on this the fifth day of January, 1972, do express to the Honorable John Bell Williams, Governor of the State of Mississippi, our deepest appreciation for his distinguished service to the State of Mississippi and especially for his commitment to progress and the improvement of educational opportunities for all the youth of this State, and

"Further; that we wish for him

Health, Happiness and Many More Years of effective work and service for the people he has served so well, and

"Further; that a copy of this resolution be framed and displayed in the John Bell Williams Room of the McLendon Library."

Reading Council To Meet

Hinds will host a meeting of the Mississippi State Reading Council on Saturday, February 26, in the Fine Arts Building Auditorium.

This council is a state-wide division of the International Reading Association, the third largest reading organization in the United States. Mary Virginia Potts of Kosciusko is the president of the Council and Alma McCullough of McComb is the program chairman.

Miss Marion Mouser, chairman of Hinds' reading department states, "This is an important meeting because reading plays such an important role in all of our lives."

The meeting is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. In the morning Dr. Frank Lovell and Julia Teasley will address the Council. Lovell is the Assistant State Superintendent of Education and Miss Teasley is an international reading consultant.

Miss Teasley is the key-note speaker. She has worked in defense department schools and army dependent schools overseas. She is presently a consultant for the Scott-Foreman Company and is well-known throughout the U. S. in the area of reading.

After lunch the conference will divide into small discussion groups. These groups will deal with ways of producing more reading interest in Mississippi. Also various book companies will exhibit their books during the meeting.

About 150 representatives from all phases of education from kindergarten through college are expected to attend. Miss Mouser stated that all faculty members, and especially those who deal directly with reading, are invited to the conference.

Lendon Players Slate Tryouts

Tryouts for the Hinds Lendon Players' next production will be held Monday, January 31st, at 3:00 in the college auditorium.

The play will be "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mama's Hung You In The Closet and I'm Feeling So Sad," by Arthur Kopit. Miss Rebecca Phay, co-sponsor of the Lendon Players will be the director.

Tryouts are not restricted to members of the Lendon Players, and any interested students are urged to come to the tryouts.

Production dates for the play will be March 8, 9, and 10.

Jr. College Debaters To Hold Tournament

Contest Set For Friday, February 4; Deadline For Entries Is January 28

Fred L. Brooks, chairman of the speech department, has announced that Hinds will host the Mississippi Junior College Debate Tournament Friday, February 4 in the Fine Arts Building.

This is the only debate tournament in the state which includes only junior college entrants. Teams attending the tournament include: Prentiss Institute, Pearl River, Jackson County, Meridian, Holmes, Northeast and Hinds.

Rules for the tournament are:

(1) The National Collegiate Debate proposition revised will be debated in the traditional style.

(2) An entry will consist of two-person teams, one debating affirmative and the other negative. (The team can alternate each time if you prefer debaters to debate both sides of the question.)

(3) Each team entry must be accompanied by a coach who will be expected to serve as a critic judge.

(4) The tournament entrance fee is $8 per entry (four debaters).

(5) Trophies will be awarded to First and Second Place entry and to First and Second Place individual debaters. Certificates of Superior and Excellent will be presented to the top ranking teams and individuals.

(6) Entry blanks should be received no later than January 28, 1972.

The proposition to be debated by the teams is Resolved: That greater controls should be imposed on the gathering and utilization of information about United States citizens by government agencies.

Elkins Chooses Harris As Prof

Academic Dean, Floyd Elkins, announced the addition of Phil Harris to the teaching staff of Hinds' business department.

Harris, is the replacement instructor for Tom Clark who is in private business as an accountant. He will assume Clark's schedule of teaching accounting courses.

Harris received his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration at Tulane, and his Master's degree in Business Administration at the University of Mississippi. He majored in accounting and is a Certified Public Accountant.

NEW HINDSONIAN EDITOR — Brenda Boykin, Jackson sophomore has been selected to serve as second semester editor of the campus newspaper, The Hindsonian. Brenda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Boykin, and is an honor graduate from Pearl-McLaurin High School. She is a member of Phi Theta Kappa and the Hinds Senate.

Governor Realizes Value Of Young People's Vote

Youths in Mississippi have begun to play a part in state politics. The state has finally recognized them as mature human beings, and politicians have realized the significance of the young voters. Therefore, young people are being included in more political activities.

This year, for the first time in our State's history, an inaugural ball was held especially for the state's young people. Over 2,000 young people attended the ball which was held at the Hotel Heidelberg. Governor Bill Waller based much of his gubernatorial campaign on young people; and the youths of Mississippi were strong in backing him for the governorship. It is impressive to see that even after the election he is still reaching out for support from the youth of the state.

Waller took the office of governor amid much pomp and glory. Several people have noted that his was the grandest inauguration ever held in Mississippi. He has come into office with a pledge to "work hard" and to "represent all the people." His campaign appealed to people on the "grassroots level" as well as to young people.

In his inaugural speech, Waller was vague in describing his plans for the state, but during his campaign he made some promises that he will be expected to keep. Among these are his program for highway improvement in northern Mississippi and his promise to spend tax dollars wisely.

If Waller is able to achieve most of the goals he set for himself in his campaign, he has a great chance of becoming the most popular governor this state has ever had. But, if he isn't able to pull through on his promises, he is likely to find himself at the bottom as far as politics in Mississippi is concerned.

Usually when a governor takes office, his popularity is pretty high — and Waller seems to have a good deal of popularity right now. But how he stands with the people at the end of his term is what really matters, and only time can prove his worth to the state.

Puddles Present Problems

When the rains come, there is no way to get around campus without walking through water puddles. In order to dodge one puddle, you have to walk through another.

These puddles even remain for days after the rain has stopped. So often when the sun is shining you still have to walk through water to get to class.

This problem has been around for quite a while. It seems all the sidewalks are either below ground level or they "sink in" in the middle so that it is impossible for the water to drain off.

Many students have complained about this situation and agree that something needs to be done to rid our campus sidewalks of these water puddles.

English Instructors Pickett, Laster Complete Their Second Publication

Mrs. Ann Laster and Miss Nell Ann Pickett of the Hinds English department have completed their second book in the field of English.

The book, Handbook for Student Writing, was published by Canfield Press of San Francisco, California, a department of Harper and Row, Publishers. Canfield Press emphasizes books on the junior college and community college level.

Mrs. Laster and Miss Pickett's books were first published by Canfield Press on the college level in English.

The purpose of the book is summed up by the authors in the preface. It states, A Handbook for Student Writing is, as the title suggests, for the student. It was developed and written in an effort to provide a useable reference for the student writer. The material is presented rather simply and clearly with the emphasis on what to do rather than on what not to do. We have attempted to include those rules and procedures which student writers seem to ask about most often.

"A comprehensive Glossary and Index make this handbook an easily used source for finding answers to questions that may arise during the writing process."

The authors stress that the book can be used as a manual or a guide, or it can be used to supplement material.

According to Mrs. Laster and Miss Pickett, this handbook can also be used as a reference manual to aid a student in any problem from developing a paragraph, to the correct use of punctuation.

Six Hinds students contributed models or examples to the 250 page handbook. Those students giving permission for their work to be used as examples of paragraphs from themes are as follows: Rob Hamilton, Martin Davis, Richard Lowery, Larry Hooper, Jim Chapman, and Barbara Brooks Ingram.

The students' material was included in the book as well as models from the writings of Anne Morrow Lindbergh, Theodore Dreiser, Edgar Allan Poe, Samuel Langhorne Clemens, and others.

Handbook for Student Writing is the first text published since the last meeting of the Modern Language Association incorporating the latest suggestions from the MLA style sheet adopted in 1970.

These suggestions update the treatment of writing the research paper and make it consistent with the MLA standards.

INAUGURATION '72

Thousands of Mississippians viewed the swearing in of Mississippi's 56th Governor, William L. Waller, on the steps of the New Capitol. Even thousands more viewed the parade that marched up Capitol Street. ## Watching the Sports Scene

By BILLY HARVEY

With the college football season now ended, the time of the year has rolled around which accompanies the end of each season, the argument over who the No. 1 team in the nation really is.

Every year the national polls add a lot of glamor and color to the college season, but also cause a lot of friction between schools with their selection of the top team. The last couple of years have seen two or three major colleges go through their season with an unblemished record. This, of course, brought on the question of who really was No. 1.

This year this question was finally answered by the Nebraska Cornhuskers. This team dominated the college ranks so convincingly that even our neighbors in Alabama, who had a pretty fair team in their own right, couldn't put up much of an argument that the Cornhuskers weren't No. 1.

The domination of Nebraska this year has brought on many tall tales of their undoubtable power. One story in particular which is typical of the way Nebraska's strength is a bit exaggerated was brought up after the Cornhuskers smashed Alabama 38-6 in the Orange Bowl.

While being questioned by reporters, Nebraska Coach Bob Devaney made a statement that if Nebraska needed to take on somebody else to prove they were tops; they were ready to go. This statement by Devaney caused a Jackson sports writer to give President Nixon a bit of advice on the Vietnam War. He suggested that if Nixon would send the Cornhuskers to Vietnam and let them loose, the whole thing would be over by half-time, and we would be rid of the whole nasty situation.

Even though Nebraska's power may be a little bit exaggerated, they along with their Big 8 Conference members, Oklahoma, were really in a class by themselves. Oklahoma's only loss came to Nebraska 35-31 in a game that was built up as the game of the decade.

The rating of these two Big 8 schools is not to say that their conference is out of the class of football elsewhere in the nation. Our Southeastern conference is probably as strong or stronger overall than any other conference in the nation, but as far as trying to match these two teams it is no equal.

Nebraska is an example of a perfectly balanced team with no strong weakness. They play simple down to earth football and just keep coming at you. Their strength lies in their manpower running simple style football and executing perfectly whatever they do.

There have been many great teams over the years in college football. One or two teams have been given the tag as good or great teams each year, but the Nebraska team of 1971 will surely go down as one of the top, maybe even "the top" collegiate team ever.

SHELTON OUT — Forward Randy Shelton has not been seeing much action with the Eagles due to Mononucleosis. The key starter will probably not play for the rest of the season.

5-2 Record

Eagles Lead In South Division

Standings as of this week for the state's South Division Junior College basketball shows the Hinds Eagles on top with a 5-2 record.

After losing two of their first three games the Eagles have come back to win 9 out of their last 12 games to bring their overall record to 10-5 for the season, which gives Hinds the 3rd best overall record in the state behind Co-Lin and Northwest.

Leading Scorer

Leading the Eagles in scoring so far this year has been Ray Gibson with a total of 252 points and a 16.8 average per game. Sophomore forward Wade Evans is the second leading scorer behind Gibson with a total of 182 points for a 13 point average.

Other leading scorers and their averages for the Eagles are: Randy Shelton, 11.6 points; Stanley Jemerson, 11.3 points; Jimmy Nail, 7 points; and Robert Graves with 7 points.

Allowing a total of 970 points in 15 games the Eagles led the state in defensive per game giving up an average of only 64.6 per game while scoring an average of 70 points per game.

Shelton

Sophomore forward Randy Shelton from Forest Hill who has been a starter for the Eagles both years has been sidelined with mononucleosis for probably the remainder of the season.

Taking his place in the lineup will be sophomore Robert Graves also of Forest Hill, who has been occasional starter throughout the season and already has a lot of playing time behind him.

Hinds still has five more important South divisional games remaining on their regular schedule. The Eagles will host Pearl River and Meridian here on campus, while the remaining three games against Southwest, Perkinson, and Pearl River will be on the road.

Intramural Activities Begin New Semester

By BILLY HARVEY

Intramural Men's Basketball action is well underway at Hinds, with 17 teams being represented in the new league.

In the initial action of the new season, the Sego Brothers and Naomi easily defeated the Buckeyes 61-33. Leading scorers for Hays with 31 points and the Sego Brothers were Doyle Hays with 31 points and Billy Harvey with 20.

C. A. C. Boys

The C.A.C. Boys have recorded 3 wins thus far this season without a loss. In their first game the C. A. C. Boys crushed the Bucs 89-30 behind the performances of Gary Herren and Johnny Means who scored 30 and 20 points respectively. Leading the Bucs in scoring was Donald Price with 16 points.

The C.A.C. Boys were faced with a little better competition in their other games with the results being 49-47 squeaker over the Volunteers and a 52-42 win over Wade's Warriors. Johnny Means again led the C.A.C. Boys with 20 points, while Bill Shaeffer threw in 17 points for the Volunteers.

In one of the closest games played thus far, the Brothers edged the Hawks 44-42. The Brothers with well balanced scoring were led by Buford Williams, and Stanley Allen with 8 points each. Johnny Outlaw was the high scorer for the Hawks with a total of 20 points.

Two And One

Bill Shaeffer and Johnny Holiday paced the Volunteers to two wins to go along with their narrow loss to the C.A.C. Boys to give them a record of 2-1. The Volunteers easily defeated the Bluffers 63-22 with Shaeffer and Holiday collecting 26 and 15 points respectively. In the Volunteer's other victory, Holiday and Shaeffer again led the scoring with 27 and 26 points each in their 72-43 victory over the Southside Studs. The Studs were led in scoring by Earl Mahaffey with 16 points and Ernie Flowers and T. K. Saul with 12 each.

Southside again went down to defeat, this time to the Roving Rebels by a score of 51-40. Leading scorer for the Rebels was Sanders with 21 points.

Undeclared

Undeclared B. C. All Stars added another victory to their record with a 42-37 win over the Sego Brothers and Naomi. After trailing for much of the third and fourth quarters, the All-Stars pulled ahead with about 2 minutes left in the game to win. Leading scorers for the All-Stars were Preston Harris, with 15 points; Ronnie Muffuletto, 12 points; and Bobby Barrett, 10. The Sego Brothers were led by Doyle Hays with 15 points with help from David Ford and Billy Harvey with 8 points each.

There will be a two week lay off in intramural action during exams and registration with action beginning the first full week of second semester and continuing into February, when the Intramural Tournament will be held.

Women's Dorms Seek Members

Next month, on the 10th, girl's intramural again begins a new season under the direction of the woman's coaching staff.

Unlike the boys intramural league, each of the girls dormitories; Westside, Northside, Main, and Davis will have just one team.

But this does not mean that size has to be a limiting factor. Any girl willing to play should certainly go out, regardless of any doubts about her ability. Intramurals are just for fun.

Commuters are encouraged to play also. If enough commuters cannot get together to form a team then the individual members should choose dormitory teams they would like to be on and sign up.

The games will be played at 6:00 in the girls' gym. The teams can start practicing at any time. Whenever any team wishes to practice they should get a key for the gym from Mrs. Warren.

NAIL PASSES — Freshman guard Jimmy Nail from Forest Hill takes aim with a pass in action against the Perkinson Bulldogs. Perkinson went on to win the game by the score of 74-63, leaving the Eagles with a record of 5-2 in South Division Action. Photo by David Milling.

Hinds Eagles Defeat Co-Lin Wolves; Gibson, Evans Lead Team Scoring

By BILLY HARVEY

Leading the South Division with a 5-2 conference record, Hinds recorded one win and a loss in their latest basketball action.

Hinds handed Co-Lin their second loss of the season, 66-58, in a highly spirited game by both teams and their spectators. The Eagles were also responsible for Co-Lin's only other loss by the score of 64-57 at Co-Lin earlier this season.

With Ray Gibson hitting on long jumpers from the outside, the Eagles took an early lead in the first half that Co-Lin was never able to overcome. The Wolves were able to come back within a couple on several occasions but the Eagles were always able to pull back in front behind the timely shooting of forward Wade Evans and Gibson.

Co-Lin Leads

After trailing by 8 points at the half, Co-Lin came out and again put the pressure on the Eagles and took the lead for the first time with the score 48-42, with about 10 minutes to go in the game.

Hinds then proceeded to reel off eight straight points for a 50-48 lead with just over 8 minutes left. The Eagles slowly widened their lead to as much as 10 points and went on to win by a score of 66-58.

Leading the Eagles in scoring against Co-Lin were Ray Gibson with 22 points with Wade Evans and Stanley Jemerson adding 15 and 12 points respectively.

Sammie Blackman led Co-Lin with 21 points, followed by Johnny Ratcliff who added 13.

Eagles Defeated

In their second game the Eagles were defeated by the Perkinson Bulldogs 74-63.

First half action saw Perkinson pull out to an early lead of 27-18 behind the shooting of Mike Guel and Sammie Smith.

Wade Evans hit three straight pumpers from the corner to bring the Eagles back to within 3 points, 27-24, with about four minutes remaining in the half, but Perkinson was able to hang on for a 38-34 half time lead.

During the second half, the Bulldogs slowly pulled away from the tiring Eagles and led by as much as 15 points throughout the second half.

Eight Men

With only 8 players on the entire squad, compared to the 13 for Perkinson, the Eagles just didn't have enough bench strength to keep up with Perkinson, who substituted often during the game without any loss of effectiveness for the team.

The Eagles were led in scoring by Wade Evans who had 23 points, with most of his points coming on jumpers from the corner.

Adding to Eagle total were: Robert Graves, 18 points; Stanley Jemerson, 9 points; Jimmy Nail, 7 points; and Ray Gibson with 6 points.

Perkinson was lead in scoring by Mike Guel with 20, Sammie Smith with 18 points and Mike Wixon who added 14 points.

Authors

The authors stress that "sources of information are not limited to the use of printed materials. We encourage the use of microfilm, audio tapes, video tapes and other reliable sources of non-book material."

The handbook contains nine chapters including materials on the following subjects: approaches to writing; the sentence; the paragraph; the theme; mechanics; vocabulary, spelling and word choice; grammatical usage; the library paper; and business and social letters.

Mrs. Laster and Miss Pickett's first book, Writing and Reading in Technical English, was designed especially for the vocational-technical student. Both instructors are devoting the major portion of their teaching load to courses in this area.

Mrs. Laster received her B.A. from Mississippi College, her M.A. from the University of Mississippi and additional study at Mississippi College.

Women PE Instructors Add Varied Activity To Girls' Recreation

By LARRY RIDDICK

Three of the most unrecognized, though hardest working, instructors at Hinds are the woman's athletic teachers, comprised of Mrs. Rene Warren, Mrs. Polly Rabalais, and Mrs. Susan Brock.

All of these women give large amounts of time coaching and traveling to games in addition to teaching during the day, and all of this time is unpaid. Though unpaid, this time is certainly not wasted.

Two years ago a new organization called the M.E.E.C.W. was formed to promote the woman's sports program. There are 8 senior colleges and 6 junior colleges, including Hinds, that are members of it.

M.A.E.C.W.

For the two years of its existence, the M.A.E.C.W. has held statewide volleyball tournaments and for both years Hinds has carried home the championship trophy.

According to Mrs. Rabalais, the woman's sports program has really made great strides since Mrs. Warren came to Hinds, as the rows of trophies in the coaching office would seem to prove.

Mrs. Warren, the W.R.A. sponsor, has been teaching at Hinds for four years. She got both her B.S. degree and her Masters degree in education from Mississippi College. She has also taught at Gulfport Junior High, French Camp Academy, and was a former girls basketball coach at Canton High School.

Rabalais

Mrs. Polly Rabalais, who is a former Hinds student, received a B.S. degree at Mississippi State College for Women and a Masters degree from the University of Mississippi. Mrs. Rabalais, who teaches hygiene, P.E. theory, and activity courses here at Hinds, has been an instructor for the past nine years and has not taught anywhere else in her entire career. Mrs. Rabalais is also sponsor of the cheerleaders.

Mrs. Brock, who is teaching at Hinds for the first time this year, got her B.S. degree at Mississippi State College for Women and her Masters at Mississippi College. In high school she participated in track, basketball, swimming, and softball. Some of the awards that she has received include all-District, all-Hinds County, she was team captain and Most Valuable Player twice. She made all-Little Dixie and played in the Belzoni tournament. She also played in two games at the A.A.U. tournament in New Mexico.

Last year Hinds placed second in the state for basketball in the junior college division for basketball. Practice this season has already begun but, although the players are still of high caliber, there are only 7 members on the team.

Extramurals

Mrs. Warren said, "We would like to have more girls for the extramural program. If there are any girls interested in playing on the team then I wish that they would come by the office to see me. The practices are from 3:00 to 4:30. We need more girls. Ability doesn't matter; just come."

The basketball team will play a 10 game schedule ending with a state-wide tournament.

Although these women devote so much time to the sports program, that is hardly their first consideration.

Activities

"Our main interest is to involve most of the girls," said Mrs. Rabalais, "That is our job. The rest is just extra. Most of the girls seem to enjoy the activities program. Their overwhelming favorite is volleyball, then tennis. Basketball, of course, is an old favorite and softball, also."

"We like to stress activities that the girls can profit from and use for the rest of their lives, like archery and tennis," stated Mrs. Brock, "once the girls get involved they really enjoy it."

Mrs. Warren said, "Hinds has one of the very best junior college women's physical education departments because we offer fifteen different activities during the semester. No other school offers so many, indoors or out."

These women instructors certainly help out, too.

Circle K Plans Ninth Annual Boxing Smoker

On the nights of March 2, 7, and 9, the 9th annual Circle K Boxing Tournament will be held at 7:00.

Six weight divisions are to be used in the tournament: Flyweight, 115-124; Lightweight, 125-137; Middleweight, 138-149; Welterweight, 150-164; Light Heavyweight, 165-179; and Heavyweight, which is 180 and above.

All male students at Hinds are eligible to participate except those who have boxed in the Golden Gloves tournament.

Each participant must provide his own mouthpiece and boxing trunks and, in addition, must sign a form freeing the school from any liabilities. Circle K will provide all of the other necessary materials.

After the first three nights of preliminaries, the championship bouts will be held on March 13 at 7:00 to determine the winners in each of the categories.

Admission will be 50 cents for the preliminary rounds and 75 cents for the finals. Proceeds will go to Circle K to be used to finance their Single-Service project.

Circle K President Larry Temple commented, "Last year we had a large number of people to enter the tournament and we believe that everyone enjoyed it. We use heavy enough gloves so that it is almost impossible to get hurt."

Choir To Attend Southern Clinic

Friday, February 11, the Hinds Concert Choir will attend the 16th Annual Conductor's Conference at the University of Southern Mississippi.

The choir will serve as a demonstration choir, and will be performing new material by the noted composer Luigi Zannanelli.

There will be twelve choral groups at the clinic, coming from Louisiana, Mississippi, and Alabama. Of these twelve, Hinds and Jones are the only two junior colleges attending.

In addition to sight-reading for Zannanelli, the choir will perform a thirty-minute concert that evening. The program is one of sacred music, featuring pop arrangements of old folk hymns such as "Amazing Grace"; traditional music such as Mozart's Lyceum and Thiman's "In Christ's Own Flock"; and some contemporary religious music by Jane Marshall.

Choir director Leslie Reeves revealed that he "is optimistic about the trip," and added: "It is our intention to demonstrate the use of varied types of sacred compositions as being effective for church concert work."

Band Presents Student Recital For Evaluation

Hinds Music Department presented a brass and woodwind student recital Thursday, January 13.

The students demonstrated their musical ability to their instructors, John Manchester and Talmadge Tenhet, and were evaluated on their style, technique, and amount of improvement over the past semester.

Taking part in the concert were: Stanley Moore, who performed "Menuet Alternat" from Galliard's "Sonata VI for Bassoon" on trombone, and was accompanied by Phyllis White on piano; William Head on trumpet, who played "Le Tambourin" by Rameau and was accompanied by Barney McCann; and Bobby Jamison, who played Rochut's "Etude I & II" on trombone.

Also on the program were Clifford Palmer, who performed Mozart's "Concert Rondo" on trumpet, and was accompanied by Barney McCann; Michele Henderson, who performed the old carol "Angels We Have Heard On High" on flute, while Liz Shows accompanied; and Phyllis White, on flute, who played "Londonderry Air," and was accompanied by Debbie Beason.

Next, Agnes Reed and Gail Fortenberry played Shumann's "Duetto" on clarinets; Gary Boone performed "Swingin' Shepherd Blues" by Koffman on flute, and was accompanied by Debbie Beason; and Fortenberry returned to play Movement III from Mozart's "Clarinet Concerto," and was accompanied by Cissy Lee.

Concluding the recital were Toby Thrash, who played the first movement from Bach's "Sonata No. 1" on flute and was accompanied by James Sides, and Kathie Hutto, clarinetist, who performed Movements I, III, and IV of Brahms' "Sonata in E Flat Major" with Mrs. Edith Ballard accompanying.

TWO HELICOPTERS RECEIVED — Hinds Vocational-Technical division received two helicopters, Ace 23 Hillers from the Mississippi National Guard in Meridian. They will be used for training in the Airframe and Powerplant Mechanics program at Hinds.

Mrs. Adcock Announces Initiation Of 33 Members

By BRENDA BOYKIN

Hinds Jackson Branch chapter of Future Secretaries of America will be chartered by the national organization Thursday, January 27, at 7:30 p.m. in the Boy Scout Lodge on Riverside Drive, Jackson.

Objectives of F.S.A. are to stimulate interest in the secretarial profession, develop a better understanding of secretarial responsibilities, and provide the basics necessary to the preparation of future professional secretaries.

Jewel Adcock

Mrs. Jewel C. Adcock is the faculty advisor and Mrs. Dell Broadway is the assistant faculty advisor. Officers to be installed Thursday night are: Marilyn May, President; Janice Bates, Vice-President; Susan McAllister, Secretary-Treasurer; Debbie McMillan, Corresponding Secretary; and Debra Bates, Recording Secretary.

Thirty-three charter members will be initiated.

Jackson members to be initiated are Debra Bates, Janice Bates, Mauis Beard, Ida Bourne, Sue Callahan, Laverne Davis, Ruth Gallagher, and Margaret Howard.

Also from Jackson are Millie Maley, Marilyn May, Susan McAllister, Debbie McMillan, Jackie Porter, Joey Porter, Grace Ruby Reed, Donna Rhodes, Cathie Ruthertford, and Connie Smith.

Kay Thompson, Bobbie Ruth Wallace, Denise Tucker, Charlinda East, Midge Watkins, Karen Kennedy, Deloris Travis, Linda Burenner, and Carolyn Benson complete the list of members from Jackson. Judy Summerlin from Florence will also be initiated.

"Recognizing the increasing responsibility of the secretary of the future, we resolve to obtain a better understanding of the potentials of a secretarial career;

"We resolve to acquire knowledge of the business world, and to meet with courage and faith the many challenges we will encounter;

"To develop desirable work habits and attitudes, and to maintain the highest character and integrity under all circumstances;

"To assist our fellow members in all ways possible, that we might derive the maximum benefits of membership in the Future Secretaries Association;

"To keep our lives clean and wholesome; and to remember that the eternal laws of God are the only ones under which we can truly succeed."

Debate . . .

Registrar's Office Announces Grads

By BRENDA BOYKIN

Forty-four students have met qualifications for January graduation at Hinds according to Mrs. Donna Odom of the Registrar's office.

Students from Jackson graduating are: Walter Adsit, Lu Ann Burney, Robert Dove, Marzine Eakes, Patricia Farlee, Vester Frith, Craig Gibert, William Hodge, Ernest Lancaster, Roger Craft and Herman Parks.

Other Jackson students who graduated are: Jack Lott, Roseanne Marks, Charles McCann, Lisa Randle, Arthur Sexton, Virginia Smith, Beverly Stelts, Belinda Stevens, Linda Williams, Jim Winstead, and Lowell Carter.

Charles Fore, Deborah Hall,

Madelene Heffel, George Tom, and James Arnold are Vicksburg graduates. William Alexander, Reform, Alabama; Gaynell Corley, Florence; Clarence Currie, Utica; Larry Livingston, Louisville; Willie McCarty, Brandon; Mary Nell McGee, Forest; Peggy Mitchell, Terry; Alett Saxon, Natchez; Edgar Williams, Greenwood; and John Wilson, Raymond are also among the list of first semester graduates.

Graduating from Evening School are Donald Dry, Henry Greer, Martin Halloran, Charles Hill, Ronald Shields, and Frank Coulter. Patricia Cox is graduating from the Jackson Branch.

According to the Registrar's office, a student may graduate under the requirements of the catalog for the current session. A minimum quality point average of 2.0 on all work attempted is required. The required graduation fee of $13 covers the cost of diploma, cap, gown, and standard junior college academic hood.

A graduating sophomore, one actually taking a diploma and degree, is eligible for exemption from the final examination in a subject in which a grade of B or better is achieved during the semester preceding graduation.

Transfer students must complete their last 12 hours of credit in residence in order to receive a diploma and a degree from Hinds.

Elkins Announces Attendance Policy

Dr. Floyd Elkins, Academic Dean, has announced a new attendance policy for Hinds to become effective second semester.

"Absenteeism is strongly discouraged at Hinds Junior College—there is no system of cuts. A student absent from a previously assigned test, report, examination or written classroom work will NOT be allowed to make up the work unless an acceptable excuse in writing is presented to the instructor within three days after his return to class.

"Each faculty member will notify the student, in writing, whose excessive absences are endangering his progress in any given course. Three tardies are equivalent to one absence. A student will be dropped from the class roll with a grade of F when the instructor sends a second "excessive absence notice" to the Academic Dean, unless the student can furnish evidence to the Attendance Committee that his excessive absences were for valid reasons.

"Cumulative absences in each class are recorded as a permanent part of a student's record in the office of the registrar."

Concerning the new policy, Elkins stated, "Too many students were working under the assumption that they had ten free cuts in the old system. For most students, this number of absences definitely hurt their grades and sometimes contributed to academic suspension."

Interviews Set At Six Flags

Tommy Beene, Personnel Manager for Six Flags Over Georgia is now interviewing students interested in working as hosts and hostesses during the 1972 season.

Beene and his staff have begun interviewing for 1,500 positions available off this season.

Beene stresses that applicants should not assume that all jobs are filled immediately. Hosts and hostesses who remain through the summer are eligible for a bonus and twenty $500 scholarships are awarded to outstanding hosts and tesses each year.

Applications should be made in person. The personnel office, located at the park, will be open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Hinds Sophomore Dies In Car Crash

Funeral services for Phil Fleming, Hinds sophomore, were held Saturday, January 8, in his hometown of Aberdeen.

Fleming, 23, was an honor student at Hinds and a veteran of the Viet Nam war. For three years he has been employed by Radio Station WJQS. He had a late-night radio show.

Fleming was returning home from the radio station when he struck a horse on the Clinton-Raymond Road. He was apparently killed instantly in the crash which occurred about 2 a.m., Friday, January 7. He was pronounced dead on arrival at a Jackson hospital.

His wife, Connie, is also a student at Hinds. They lived in Raymond, but were natives of Aberdeen.

LENDON PLAYERS — Miss Becky Phay, director of "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma's Hung You In The Closet and I'm Feeling So Sad," has announced the play's cast which includes Diane Daniel, William Head, Caren Broom, Charles Berger, Charles Moore, Stanley Moore, Rob Hamilton, Steve Cox, and Buster Wilson. The play will open Wednesday, March 8 in the college auditorium. Curtain time is 8:00 p.m., and no admission will be charged.

Maxwell, Hamilton, Howie Participate In 'The Boys In The Band' Production

By BRENDA BOYKIN

John Maxwell, speech and drama instructor, and Rob Hamilton, Hinds sophomore, have leading roles in the Theatre Center of Mississippi's production of "The Boys in the Band."

Dale Howie, Jackson freshman, is the lighting technician for the production. Howie is an architecture major. He is a graduate of Murrah High School and will also be active in lighting for the Hinds production "Oh, Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma's Hung You In the Closet and I'm Feeling So Sad," Wednesday-Friday, March 8-10.

The play is written by Matt Crowley who is a Mississippian from Vicksburg. Maxwell stated, "It's important that a theater in Mississippi is doing the play since a Mississippi playwright wrote it." He added that this is the first time the play has been produced in Mississippi.

"The Boys in the Band" is a controversial play in that it deals very frankly with homosexuality. The play was a huge success off-Broadway.

John Maxwell plays the role of Harold. He says of his part, "Har-ers. He has had leading roles in old is a lot of fun because you can run the gamut in character acting. You can go wherever you want to with it — it doesn't make any difference. He's got some of the most beautiful one-liners I've ever heard."

Other plays presented by the Theater Center of Mississippi in which Maxwell appeared include: "Stop the World I Want to Get Off," "Tobacco Road," "Desire Under the Elms," "The Little Foxes," and "The Odd Couple." He also appeared in numerous productions while at Ole Miss.

Maxwell is the President of the Board of the Theater Center of Mississippi. He says, "The Theater Center is tremendous in that its potential offers students interested in drama an opportunity to work with professionals."

Concerning student actors he added, "We've been very fortunate in that several members of the Lendon Players have taken vigorous roles in seeing that the Theater Center is a success."

The role of Cowboy is being played by Rob Hamilton, who is the President of the Lendon Play-

Hinds production of "Arsenic and Old Lace," "Antigone," and "The Crucible." He has also participated in Theater Center workshops.

Hamilton said of his role, "The role of Cowboy is a fairly new one to me because I have never played a homosexual prostitute before."

In further explanation of his part, he continued, "The part itself is rather small but whenever he opens his mouth, he really lets you know that he's on the stage because he says some of the dumbest things you ever heard. For instance, he calls lasagna 'flattened-out spaghetti and meatballs,' and also asks questions about things that were talked about a half hour before. I enjoy the role and think I've learned a lot doing it."

The play opened Wednesday, February 16, and will run through Saturday, February 26, with no performance on Sunday. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. and it is being presented at the Theater Center located at 207 West Amite Street.

Tickets will be on sale at the door and will be $3.50 for adults and $2.50 for students.

Phay Announces Forthcoming Play

Cast And Production Staff Prepare For Players Performance On March 8

By ROB HAMILTON

Miss Becky Phay, co-sponsor of the Lendon Players, has announced the cast and production staff for the forthcoming production of Arthur Kopit's "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma's Hung You In The Closet and I'm Feeling So Sad."

The play, which critics have hailed as an excellent example of the "Theatre of the Absurd," will open at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, March 8 in the college auditorium, and will run through Friday, March 10.

Diane Daniel is playing the role of Mrs. Rosepettle, an eccentric old lady who has had her first husband, who died, stuffed. Mrs. Rosepettle is also a world-traveler, carries her "trophy" around with her along with her two pet Venus Fly-Traps, and Rosalinda, her pet piranha, to whom she feeds Siamese cats. Daniel was recently seen as Abigail in "The Crucible" at Hinds.

Jonathan Rosepettle, Mrs. Rosepettle's son, is being played by William Head. Jonathan is 17 years old, but his mother has kept him socially and emotionally about 12. All he is allowed to do is feed the fly-traps, read books no one else has ever read, and collect stamps and coins until they run out of his ears. Head played the part of Giles Corey in "The Crucible."

Playing the part of Rosaue, the local baby-sitter and prostitute, is Caren Broom. Jonathan falls in love with her, but when she tries to get him to run away with her, he reacts rather unexpectedly. Broom had the lead in a Lendon Players production of "The Taming of the Shrew," and was seen in "The Crucible" as Elizabeth Proctor.

Registrar Sets Grad Deadline

Formal application blanks for applying for diplomas and degrees have been mailed to those students who indicated on their schedule cards that they would graduate in the spring.

March 1 is the deadline for making application for degrees for the spring term.

If a student who has indicated that he will graduate has not received a form to apply for a diploma, he should check at the Registrar's Office.

Dangerous Roads Concern Students

Since Hinds has the largest enrollment of any junior college in the state and approximately half the students are commuters, the roads leading to the campus should be kept in better condition.

The roads are dangerous and costly to the students. Many accidents have been caused by the deplorable road conditions—accidents that could have been avoided had the roads been in better shape.

Also the deteriorating condition of the roads is damaging to the students' automobiles. Bumpy roads can ruin a car, not to mention the wear it causes on tires. Car repairs are expensive for anybody, and especially for students.

Every year some Hinds students are killed because of the bad road conditions. Road repairs take hard work and a good deal of money—but when lives are involved, work and money shouldn't be such a big issue.

Students will be able to come to Hinds on the new highway that is now being built, but the construction seems to be going very slowly. When it is completed, traveling conditions will certainly be improved. But until then what?

Surely there's someone who has the power and authority to do something to improve these roads.

Ides Promote Fear

"Beware the Ides of March" has become more than a famous line in one of Shakespeare's plays, because now the term is generally used to denote warning of any danger.

The Ides of March is the fifteenth of March, but the Ides of most other months lands on the thirteenth day. A bad omen?

The Ides of March originally came when there was a full moon, but fearing a full moon is just a silly superstition. Right?

March gets its name from Mars, the Roman God of War. Everyone knows what war is, and what it does to the world. Coincidence?

Bloodstone is the Birthstone of the month of March.

March is a month of blistering wind and cold stark weather, but then, so is February.

The constellations have shifted somewhat since the time of the Greeks and Romans, so that now the constellations of Pisces, the Zodiac sign for the Ides of March, is now under the sign of Aries, which includes April 15. The deadline for filing Federal Income Tax Returns has been moved from March 15, the Ides of March, to April 15.

Before Julius Caesar, March was the first month of the year, but Caesar revised the calendar and put January first, moving March to third place. Maybe Caesar should have left March alone.

But, of course, it is silly to think that the Ides of March could have any sway over our modernized, computer-age world. And after all, Andrew Jackson was born on the Ides of March, and he did okay. How could a month of the year have personality, feelings, or seek revenge? After all, it is only days on the calendar... isn't it?

Student Poll

'Girls Rules Too Strict' Is Consensus On Campus

By OUIDA DOYLE

In a poll taken on campus students were asked to express their thoughts on the women's rules. Some of their comments were:

SARA TUCKER: The rules on this campus are atrocious. It's time the administration realized that as young adults 10:30 is a little bit ridiculous for dates.

TUCKER

GADDIS

GINGER GADDIS: If we're old enough to be going to college then we're old enough to be treated like adults.

RONNIE MUFFULETTO: When girls graduate from high school they're considered to be women but out here they're treated like little girls.

BILLY BOB COLLINS: The rules are too strict. The girls are treated like children. Girls can stay out later at home than they can out here.

DIANE DANIEL: It would be absolutely fine if I lived in a convent. Being twenty years old, I am due the rights and privileges of a normal human being.

CAROLYN WOOTEN: I think without question, the most ridiculous rule is the one whereby girls are forced to get up on Tuesday morning for room check and make up their beds, whether they have a reason or not.

LYNN CALHOUN: You don't know whether you're mature enough to accept responsibility because they don't give us a chance. It would be better to have rules to discipline people who don't show responsibility.

SUZAN BUFKIN: They should be more liberal. You should be able to judge for yourself how many nights you can go out.

MARY BETH GROGAN: The rules should be more lenient—like girls shouldn't have to sign out unless they're leaving campus. I think that all that signing in and out is juvenile.

JERRY PALMER: The rules are childish. They're more like high school.

TROTTER

ALLAN TROTTER: It's ridiculous that girls can't get in cars. They ought to let girls ride around on campus, and there ought to be more date nights.

BECKY HAMILTON: It's a bad attribute to Hinds as far as recruiting new students for the girls rules to be so restricted.

NANCY SULLIVAN: They're unfair. I moved out of the dorm because of the rules. It's not the house mother—I love her—but it's the monitors and other conditions.

WILFORD MARTIN: They're really too strict. I can state one instance—I walked a girl back to the dorm, stood outside for about five minutes and the girl got a rep, and it was before 10:00.

ROSILIND GILL: They're wierd. I don't like them personally. I think we're mature enough to do what we please. I don't like the curfew hours.

GILL

JACKSON

JAMES JACKSON: The rules are simply outrageous. I think the administration should sit down and realize that this is not 1917.

HAROLD WRIGHT: They have to be in too early. They can't go off campus enough. Hinds is too old-fashioned because they won't let new rules come in.

DIANE McKAY: Any privilege at home should be a privilege at school.

BRENDA PIERCE: Signing out, unless you're leaving campus, is ridiculous.

JUDY OVERBY: Every girl should have the right to go out every night.

DEBBIE BEASON: The student government doesn't have enough power because the administration is able to overrule anything the student government tries to pass.

MARGIE HADDOCK: The administration should update their ideas and be more willing to work with the students.

College Offers New Methods Of Instruction

To those of you who enrolled at Hinds the second semester we extend to you a warm and hearty welcome to the campus. If you are a transfer from another college you probably observed that all colleges and campuses have a sameness and a great deal in common. Our one claim to being different is that Hinds is more "teaching and learning" oriented than most colleges.

Some of you with whom we've talked are dissatisfied with your progress during the first semester. This is often the case, especially with freshmen who are attempting to cope with the different methods of instruction, the out-of-class assignments that distinguish college work from high school attendance. You have now progressed from the adjustment stage to the productive stage in your college experience. This is a critical semester for you and may well be the time when you will determine for yourself if a liberal arts degree is a realistic educational goal.

Statistics indicate that only about one-third of high school graduates can attain any degree of satisfaction from four years of academic work. If you are one of the remaining two-thirds, consider several of the excellent but demanding two year terminal courses that will prepare you early for the world of work and a rewarding well-paying vocation.

No matter what your educational objectives are — and in our student body they are extremely diverse — we wish for you the success your best efforts deserve.

Coleman Takes Security Post

Larry Coleman, a native of Ackerman, Mississippi has been appointed to the position of Chief of Security at Hinds.

Coleman attended school in Ackerman and later moved to Jackson where he graduated from Calloway High School in 1967.

He is also a graduate of the Mississippi Law Enforcement Training Academy and was associated with the University of Mississippi Security Force before coming to Hinds.

Coleman stated, "I am highly honored to be associated with Hinds Junior College. It is my desire to work in close cooperation with the students and faculty by assuring each individual that the Campus Security Department is definitely a public service organization directly concerned with the individual and his problems. We are in the planning stages of a new, more efficient and professional department whose main objective will be to promote the general welfare of the students and faculty of Hinds."

ATTENDING CONFERENCE — Hinds Academic Dean, Dr. Floyd Elkins, and English instructor, Mrs. Joy Reid, prepare for their presentation on Friday, February 25, as part of the Seventh Annual Southeast Regional English Conference. The topic of their presentation is "The Writing of Behavioral Objectives for Junior College English Instruction." Other Hinds faculty members attending the Thursday - Saturday, February 24-26, conference in Chattanooga, Tennessee, include Mrs. Jim El Harris, chairman of the English Department; Mrs. Joann Willis, Mrs. Elaine Hughes, Miss Nell Ann Pickett, and Mrs. Polly Tillman. Photo by David Milling.

Mrs. Reid, Dr. Elkins To Participate In Seventh Annual English Meeting

Two Hinds instructors will participate in the seventh annual Southeast Regional Conference of the National Conference for Teachers of English to be held in Chattanooga, Tennessee, Thursday - Saturday, February 24-26.

Dr. Floyd Elkins, Academic Dean, will discuss the use of behavioral objectives in a systems approach of teaching English. Mrs. Joy Reid will give samples to illustrate the application of objectives in junior college English instruction.

She will demonstrate the use of behavioral objectives by the use of media consisting of transparencies, tape recordings and filmstrips to present her ideas.

"The use of behavioral objectives in all distinctions in higher education has recently become an issue," according to Elkins who is considered an authority in the design of instructional systems, and is a proponent of this technique as it is used in teaching.

He also stated, "The use of behavioral objectives is articulated with the use of media in instruction in an effort to individualize the needs of the students. Higher education as well as public education has been making progress recently in designing instructional systems which will allow independent study on an individualized basis."

The Southeastern Conference on English in the Two-Year College is one of six regional conferences of the NCTE/Conference on College Composition and Communication. It is hosted by the Cleveland State Community College of Cleveland, Tennessee.

Representing Hinds as delegates will be Mrs. Jim El Harris, chairman of the English Department;

Mrs. Joann Willis, Mrs. Elaine Hughes, Miss Nell Ann Pickett, and Mrs. Polly Tillman, all from the Raymond campus. Mrs. Donna Vinson will also attend representing the Jackson Branch.

Reid explained that the conference provides an opportunity for an exchange of ideas and discussion of problems that relate to the teaching of English in the two-year college.

Subjects to be covered at the meeting will include: "The Potpourri of Remedial English and Rap Session" by Harriett Dodson, Florida Junior College, Jacksonville; "A Testing Policy for Juniors and Its Implications to Junior College English Instructors" by Robert Rentz, University of Georgia; "Black Studies and Freshman Composition" by Leo Neifer; and "Mother's Chicken Soup and the Moving Pictures" (The Film as Composition) by Audrey Roth, Miami-Dade.

"PROTOCOL: Project on the Teaching of English" by Richard Lid, San Fernando Valley State College; "Teaching of Remedial Reading through Individual Instruction and the Language Lab" by Betty Bull, Cleveland State Community College; "The Project as Research Paper" by Thomas Preston, University of Tennessee, Chattanooga; and "The Practicality of Transformational Grammar" are also subjects that will be discussed.

The Hinds instructors will present their program during the second day of the three day conference. Elkins received his B.S., M. Ed., and Ph.D. from the University of Texas. Reid received her B.S.E. from Delta State and her M.A. from Mississippi College.

Registrar's Office Lists Honor Rolls

First semester honor roll, naming 65 students as having an overall 4.0 average for the semester, was announced recently by the Registrar's office.

By attaining a 3.6 average or above, 220 students made the special honor roll; and 248 students maintained a 3.2 to 3.5 average, placing them on the honor roll.

Students making all "A" were Gene Acy, Ronald Adams, Lawrence Ames, Brenda Boykin, Emily Branton, Deborah Britt, Cynthia Brummett, and Brenda Carson, all of Jackson.

Other Jackson students with a 4.0 average were James Chapman, Roger Craft, Harry Crimm, Marzine Eakes, Craig Gilbert, Margaret Goss, Beverly Grisham, Larry Hodo, and Myrtle Isonhood. Linda Johnston, Richard Knott, Tandi Lawrence, Roseanne Marks, Patricia Matthews, Charles McCann, Teresa McCraney, Robert McKisack, and Jennifer McLaurin are also Jackson students who made all "A".

Toby Thrash, Jean Vaught, Vincent Venturini, Debbie Wade, Rodney Walker, Wallace Ward, Charlotte Weems, Jacquelyn White, Vicki White, Edward Whitton, Roxie Williams, Wanda Williams, Karen Wilson, Jimmy Womack, and Mary Woods complete the list of Jackson students who made the high honor roll.

Students from Vicksburg on the high honors list are Ralph Alford, Robert Baylot, Debbie Beason, Joyce Bennett, Nancy George, Susan Hanes, Johnny Henderson, Edward Irby, Jane Lauderdale, and Norma Lavender.

Betty Maggio, Jeana McKinley, Kathy Merchant, Barbara Middleton, Carleen Millis, Pamela Parsons, Debra Tanner, Patricia Tip-ton, Jamie Wilson, and Mary Wilson are also Vicksburg students listed on the high honors roll.

Others on the list are Beth Ainsworth, Gaynell Corley, Madoua Magee, Gloria McRaney, Laura Smith, and Debbie Thigpen, all of Florence. Clinton students who made high honors are Ronny Curtis, Horace Grantham, Theresa Hampton, Susan Hinton, Elizabeth Howard, Jere McLaurin, David Nohra, and Martha Rice.

Raymond Honors

Pamela Graham, Susan Mason, Michael McBride, Samuel Pickett, Mary Stevenson, and Teresa Ward, all of Raymond were also named to the list. Mary Dale Ainsworth, Deborah Loyd, Rodney Swilley, and Linda Wade of Brandon; Tabitha Cottrell and Nancy Sullivan of Terry; and Helen Headley and Linda McCay of Port Gibson are also on the list.

Jean Jolliff and Jessie Purvis of Pelahatchie; Shirley Howard and Lavern Patrick of Crystal Springs; Alice Cauthen of Madison; Fred Cox of Laurel; Hilda Fleming of Lena; Jan Dyar of Mendenhall; Sarah Herring of Magee; and Babs Sharp of Hazlehurst made high honors also.

Finishing the list of students making high honors are Mildred White, Yazoo City; Ross Whottington, Carthage; Linda Lehner, Columbus; Aleett Saxon, Natchez; Lindy Simmons, Columbia; Mary Whitworth, Rustin, Louisiana; Rodney Plummer, Monroe.

Watching the Sports Scene

By BILLY HARVEY

Well, boys, you might have noticed that the Smoker Boxing Tournament is about to get under way this year.

Admittedly, there isn't a whole lot of excitement to be had here at Hinds, but of all the year's events this is going to be one of the most exciting.

It doesn't take too very much to be more exciting than nothing, but nevertheless, I'll say that without a doubt the Smoker is going to be just pure-dee exciting — because it always is.

Now, since I knew that the majority of you guys are going to sign up immediately, I decided to pull out the old Guinness Book of World Records — for your benefit and inspiration — to find out just what outstanding records and freak happenings have occurred in the world of boxing.

I found out. So, without any further adieu, here is what Mr. Guinness spent his life (and from this he could make a living?) finding out:

The shortest recorded fight with gloves lasted 10 seconds (including a ten-second count) on September 29, 1946, when Al Couture flattened Ralph Walton. Walton was putting in his mouth piece, minding his own business, in his corner of the ring at the time. Some might think it strange that Couture could make it across the ring and K. O. Walton in about half a second — but I don't mean to question Couture's honesty; it might not be healthy.

The longest fight was between Andy Bowen and Jack Burke in New Orleans in 1893. The fight lasted 110 rounds, and seven hours, nineteen minutes, but it was declared no contest when neither man was in any shape to continue the fight.

The tallest boxer was an Irishman named Jim Cully who was seven feet four inches tall and weighed 273 pounds. He lost all four of his professional fights.

That should encourage the fly-weight contestants. The smallest world heavyweight champion was Tommy Burns, who was five feet seven inches.

Speaking of small, the smallest attendance at a world heavyweight title fight was 2,434 at the Clay vs Liston fight on May 25, 1967.

The youngest world heavyweight champion was Floyd Patterson who won it at the age of twenty-one. He is also the only man to regain the heavyweight championship.

The youngest world champion was only nineteen. Pedlar Palmer won the bantamweight championship in London on November 22, 1922.

Finally, the greatest recorded number of knockouts in a non-title fight is 49. This happened in the fight between Oscar Battling Nelson (down seven times) and Christy Williams (down 42) on December 26, 1902.

If you've made it all the way down to this part of the column, let me take this opportunity to thank you for it, and also let me remind you about the Smoker Boxing Tournament — so ya'll come, heah?

Co-Lin Defeats Hinds

Eagles Finish Runner-Up In South

By BILLY HARVEY

After posting back to back victories over Pearl River 72-63 and Perkinson 67-58, the Hinds Eagles fell victim to the Co-Lin Wolves 84-59 in the finals of the South Junior College Tournament at Pearl River.

Hinds and Co-Lin will both be representing the South Division in the overall Mississippi Junior College State Tournament at Raymond in the Hinds gym this Monday and Tuesday nights.

With both teams starting out with very cold shooting from the floor, the Wolves scored the first basket of the game after over four minutes of playing time had elapsed.

Eagles Tie

The Eagles then came back to tie the game on a jumper by Ray Gibson at 3-3 which was as close as Hinds was to get for the rest of the game.

A full-court man to man press by Co-Lin forced Hinds into numerous turnovers, with the Wolves pulling out to a comfortable 15 point lead at half time 39-24.

Second-half action saw the Wolves beginning to put the game out of reach with their biggest lead of the night being 31 points with eight minutes left in the game.

Co-Lin's 6' 6" center, Sammie Blackman, was the leading scorer on both teams with a total of 30 points. He was followed by Johnny Ratcliff and Gary Coleman who added 13 and 12 points respectively.

Hinds placed three men in double figures, with Ray Gibson collecting 13 points, followed by Wade

Evans with 12 and Robert Graves who had 11 points.

In order to reach the finals against Co-Lin, Hinds defeated Pearl River 72-63 and Perkinson 67-58 in the opening round and semi-finals of the tournament.

Increase Lead

The Eagles jumped out in front of Pearl River, 18-12, in the first round game and increased their lead to 15 points to put the game out of reach midway through the last quarter.

Leading the Eagles in scoring were Ray Gibson with 25 points, with support coming from Wade Evans and Stanley Jemerson who added 19 and 14 points respectively.

Pearl River was led in scoring by Tony Graham who had 19 points and John Merritt with 14 points.

In the semi-final game of the tournament, Hinds defeated Perkinson for the second time this season.

After trailing for the first part of the first half, the Eagles slowly pulled ahead of the Bulldogs and carried a 5-point lead, 34-29, into the dressing room at half-time.

Perk Defeated

During the second half, Hinds built its lead up to 12 points and went on to beat Perkinson 67-58 to reach the finals of the tournament.

Stanley Jemerson and Wade Evans were the top scorers for the Eagles against Perkinson with 24 and 22 points respectively, while Perkinson was lead by Sammie Smith with 19 points.

Girls Extramural Season Heading Into Second Half

By MARY BETH GROGAN

Under the direction of Rene Warren, this year's girls extramural basketball program is now in full swing.

The girl's basketball team is open to any girl on or off campus who is interested in playing basketball.

This year's team is made up of nine girls. Beth Horn, a sophomore, played ball at Madison-Ridgeland and this is her second year to play at Hinds.

Another second year player is Elizabeth Duncan who played ball at Brandon. Other team members are freshmen, and they are very determined ones at that.

Freshman Players

Ann Logue played basketball at Warren Central in Vicksburg. Katie Taylor and Shirley Howard played at Crystal Springs.

The Florence basketball team is represented by Linda Barlow and Cathy Oakman. Kathleen Webb has played basketball under a church league since Central, in Jackson, does not have a girls' team.

Kathy Smith, from Wingfield, also played church ball. Manager for the team for the second year is Mary Beth Grogan from Vicksburg.

Their first game saw Hinds up against Co-Lin on January 26 at Co-Lin. The game was very close until the third quarter when Hinds began to fall behind. The Co-Lin girls continued to widen their lead throughout the second half with the final score being 70-44. High scorer for Hinds was Linda Barlow with 14 points followed by Beth Horn with 8.

Pearl River

The next night the girls tried their skill against Pearl River here at Hinds. This game proved to be the most exciting as both teams were strong on defense and the score remained close throughout the entire game. Hinds again came out on the short end as they lost 49-47. High scorer for this game was again Linda Barlow as she was sacking the ball in with 23 points. Katie Taylor was next with 9 points.

After a few days of practice and ironing out mistakes, Hinds headed to Meridian. Here is where they scored their first victory, 60-45. It was Barlow's night as she showed the way with 34 points. Katie Taylor followed again with 10 points and Liz Duncan with 9 points.

The girls' victory streak was short lived when in their next game they traveled to Pearl River with the result being a 68-46 loss.

With two key starters out of the line-up due to illness Hinds fell to Co-Lin girls for the second time this season, 57-38.

The girls' gym was the setting for the game against Mississippi College. After falling behind in the first quarter of play, the girls were never quite able to catch up with the result being still another loss, 71-54.

High Scorer

High scorer for Hinds was Linda Barlow with 19 points. Beth Horn followed with 16. The girls played good defense and they out-rebounded Mississippi College. From the free throw line they hit 50%. Marcia McMurty and Pat DeYoung were leading scorers for Mississippi College with 11 points each.

Thursday night, February 17, was a very exciting night for the girls as they were victorious. Southwest had beaten Hinds earlier in the season, but Hinds was out for revenge. The girls were determined to win and their pace never slowed down.

Hinds was ahead the entire game and a lot of hustling went on. High scorer for Hinds was Ann Logue as she sacked in 18 points. Beth Horn and Katie Taylor had 12 points each. Varnado led Southwest with 23 points followed by Toler with 14.

Hinds will participate in the State Basketball Tournament at

M.S.C.W. on February 25 and 26. Two senior colleges are entered plus six junior colleges.

Circle K Plans Ninth Annual Boxing Smoker

By LARRY RIDDICK

Circle K will hold the 9th annual Smoker Boxing Tournament on the nights of March 2, 7, and 9, at 7:00.

All male students at Hinds are eligible to participate except those who have boxed in the Golden Gloves Tournament.

Six weight divisions are to be used in the tournament: Flyweight, 115-124; Lightweight, 125-137; Middleweight, 138-149; Welterweight, 150-164; Light Heavyweight, 165-179 and Heavyweight, which is 180 and above.

Each participant must provide his own mouthpiece and boxing trunks and in addition, must sign a form freeing the school from any liabilities. Circle K will provide all the other necessary materials.

After the first three nights of preliminaries, the championship bouts will be held on March 13 at 7:00 to determine the winners in each of the categories.

Admission will be 50 cents for the preliminary rounds and 75 cents for the finals. Proceeds will go to Circle K to be used to finance their Single-Service project.

Jerry Allen, former welterweight division state Golden Gloves champion and student body president at Hinds, will be in the P.E. room of the mens gym each Tuesday afternoon at 4:50 to teach any applicants that may want to brush up on their style.

When asked about this year's tournament Allen said, "Surprisingly enough, applications for the tournament are running behind. We just don't have enough to fight as we would like to.

Intramural Action Approaches Close

By BILLY HARVEY

Last week's action in the Men's Intramural League saw the CAC Boys remain on top of the standings with a 51-49 victory over the Volunteers.

Leading the CAC Boys in scoring against the Volunteers was Gary Post with 18 points, with Johnny Means adding 15 points. Bill Shaffer lead the Volunteers with 22 points followed by Johnny Holliday who had 17.

Adding one win and a loss to their record, the Champions defeated the Brothers 35-31 before bowing to Gent'e Ben and the Bears in their last game, 59-53.

Top Scorer

Top scorer for the Champions against the Brothers was Mike Goolsby with 14 points, while Robert Gene led the Brothers with a total 13 points.

Goolsby was again the high scorer for the Champions with 19 points in their loss to Gentle Ben and the Bears. Lester Martin led the Bears with 15 points followed by Tommy Farr who had 12.

Gentle Ben and the Bears defeated the Running Gunners 60-44 to go along with their earlier victory over the Champions to give them a 2-0 record in last week's action.

Teachers Win

John Maxwell led the Winners with 22 points with help from Lester Martin who had 16 points. Leading the Running Gunners in their losing effort were Gary Tipton with 14 points and Travis Tigrett who added 12 points.

Behind the hot shooting of Bill Shaffer, the Volunteers made up for their earlier loss with a 58-37 victory over the Running Gunners.

Shaffer was the top scorer for the Volunteers with a total of 27 points, while the Running Gunners were led by Gary Tipton who had 11 points with Travis Tigrett and Steve New adding ten each.

After a close first half, the Hawks easily defeated the usually tough B. C. All Stars 62-41.

Carl Smith, with 23 points, led the winners in scoring while Preston Harris was tops for the losers with 12.

Sego Brothers

The Sego Brothers and Naomi ended last week's action with one win and a loss. In their first game they were edged by the Roving Rebels 41-38.

Jerry Sanders led the Roving Rebels in scoring as he gunned in a total of 31 points. The Sego Brothers were paced by Billy Harvey with ten points followed by David Ford who had eight points.

The last game of the week was the Sego Brothers and Naomi victorious over the Bluffers by the score of 70-34.

David Ford was high for the winners with 26 points, with Billy Harvey and Ernie Flowers adding 15 and 13 points respectively. The Bluffers were led in scoring by Tony Ethridge with nine points.

BRIDAL FAIR — Astra presented a bridal fashion show on Thursday, February 17. The program included showing of bridal gowns and bridesmaid dresses from McRae's and men's formal wear from Randall's. A reception was held following the show. Photos by Houston Richardson.

Astra Sponsors Bridal Program

Astra sponsored a 'Bridal Fair' Thursday, February 17, in the Recital Hall of the Fine Arts Building.

The brial fair is sponsored annually by the club. Though an admission price of 50c was charged, the program is not considered a money-making project. The club presents the show for the entertainment of the students.

Brides and bridesmaids, who were selected from Astra members, were Beth Ainsworth, Vivian Aldrich, Cheryl Bryant, Alice Cauthen, Blanche Creel, Margie Hadcock, Betty Jones, Karen Lee, Jolyn Lewis, Kay McRaney, Janice Miller, Mary Ann Ogden, and Cindy Rives.

Their escorts, 'grooms,' were Jerry Allen, David Dorsey, Wade Evans, Roger Grantham, Johnny Holliday, David Milling, Steve New, Aubrey Pearce, Bruce Rawls, Randy Shelton, Sam Sumrall, Jimmy Turnage, and Wendell Womack.

Bridal and bridesmaid gowns from McRae's in downtown Jackson were modeled by the girls. Some of these gowns had been featured in "Bride" magazine. The Men's fashions were from Randall's Formal Wear of Jackson.

Flowers for the show were provided by White's Florist.

A mock wedding concluded the show. The stage was decorated with flowers and an altar. Mother of the Bride was Miss Eunice Pace. Beth Ainsworth was the bridesmaid and Roger Grantham was the best man. Betsy Oakes played the part of the flower girl. Karen Lee was the "beautiful" bride, and Tony Townsend, an employee of Randall's, the groom. Blanche Creel sang the Lord's Prayer.

After the show, names were drawn for door prizes. Those receiving them were Patricia Gosa, Janice Harrington, Lisa Rives, and Cindy Makamson.

Displays were set up in the Music Library. McRae's displayed jewelry and china, invitations were provided by Beemon's Hallmark House and Hiatt-Ford presented the photography display.

A reception was held in the Art Lounge following the fashion show. The wedding cake was provided by Sunflower Bakery.

Meridian Wins Sixth Annual Debate Contest

Meridian Junior College placed first, followed in second place by Pearl River Junior College in the Sixth Annual Junior College Debate Tournament held in the Fine Arts building Friday, February 4.

Seventeen colleges were invited to attend but only four actually participated. They were: Meridian Junior College, Meridian, Mississippi; Pearl River Junior College, Poplarville, Mississippi; Northwest Mississippi Junior College, Senatobia, Mississippi; and Hinds.

The members of the first place team from Meridian were: Affirmative, Pat Gleason and Keith Ballad; Negative, Dan Winstead and Mike Lloyd. Their coach was Miss Ripple Rausch.

Judges for the activities were coaches from each school who included: Michael A. Knippers, Pearl River; Miss Ripple Rausch, Meridian; Miss Sally Fleming, Northwest; and Fred L. Brooks, Hinds.

Learning Resource Concept Indexes Available Materials

EDITOR'S NOTE: This article is the first of a three part series to be run on the Hinds McLendon Library.

Hinds library was officially opened January 3, 1962, and dedicated May 9, 1965 in honor of George M. McLendon, past president of the college.

The library made the transition from "Library" to "Learning Resource Center" during the 1968-1969 school year. The philosophy of the Learning Resource Center is based on the concept of supporting the classroom teaching program. The term "Learning Resource Center" explains the effort of indexing the total learning materials of the institution in a central place.

The term "Library," however, is generally considered to imply book and book related materials. The difference in Library and Learning Resource Center being, the addition of non-book materials to the total collection.

"This Learning Resource Center concept," states Head Librarian, Mrs. Virginia Riggs, "is advantageous to both the student and faculty member, because of the availability and central indexing of all materials."

The organization of the Learning

Resources Center is divided into seven working areas. These areas include: Administrative, which is filled by the Division Chairman of the Learning Resource Center; Media Center; Acquisitions; Cataloging; Circulation; Reference and Periodicals and Clerical. These areas of responsibility are designed to serve the total campus.

As the library begins its 11th year in the present facilities, Mrs. Riggs states as a reflection on the last decade, "The library has changed as much as any unit of the school. This is mainly due to the population and knowledge explosion. The library seems to be caught in the middle."

"Since we moved into this building man's knowledge has doubled. This makes our purchase selection a job 'never done'."

The capacity of the $400,000 library was set at 40,000 volumes and was designed for an enrollment of 4,000 students. At the end of January, 1972 the library collection had grown to 37,111 volumes, with an average daily check-out of 130 books.

The Learning Resource Center is basically a self-service system, based on the assumption that a student exercises judgment to select materials suited to his needs.

Mrs. Riggs draws a parallel to the use of a typewriter and the judgment exercised by the student in using materials provided by the Learning Resource Center. "Some students are excellent typists; whereas, some students do not type at all. The Learning Resource Center is also used with the same degrees of success."

HINDS JUNIOR COLLEGE, RAYMOND, MISSISSIPPI

Susan Hinton Chosen As WASB President

Annual Campus-wide Election Sees Other Runners Unopposed

Susan Hinton was selected WASB President in the student body elections held Tuesday, March 21, in the foyer of the Student Union Building.

WASB President was the only position having competition. Others seeking the office were Liz Neal, Janet Jones, and Jane Hackney. Liz Neal was named WASB Vice-President because she received the second largest number of votes.

Others elected unanimously were: William Head, ASB President; Connie Sprinkell, MASB President; Sandra Calvary, Senate President; and Jimmy Suber, MASB Vice-President.

Qualifications

Candidates for these offices had to meet certain qualifications set forth in the ASB and WASB Constitutions. These qualifications include having attended Hinds for two semesters at the time of election and having maintained a 2.0 quality point average.

Susan Hinton is a Special Education major from Clinton. As WASB President it will be her duty to inform the WASG of student activities, assist the presidents of the ASB and MASB, and insure that a wholesome atmosphere of cooperation prevails between the Administration and the WASB.

Vice-President, Liz Neal of Jackson, will assist the WASB President in all matters pertaining to the WASB. Her other duties include attending all Senate meetings and serving as the representative from WASB and presiding over the Commuters Council.

ASB President William Head is a music major from Jackson. He attended Callaway High School. His duties as president of the ASB include being responsible for all student executive action and activities, signing all presidentially-approved Senate proposals and resolutions, and insuring that an atmosphere of cooperation prevails between the administration and the student body.

Sandra Calvary will serve as ASB Vice-President, or President of the Senate. She is a nursing major from Forest. Her duties include presiding over the Senate, appointing special committees to expedite Senate proposals, and keeping the Senate informed as to all activities of the student government.

President of the MASB, Connie Sprinkell, is a music major from Flora. His duties are basically the same as those of the WASB President.

Music Major

MASB Vice-President is Jimmy Suber, a music major from Jackson. He will work with the MASB President and his other duties are the same as those of the WASB Vice-President.

Election Commissioner Jan Dyar said of the election, "I was really pleased with the acceptance of the data processing system, but I was definitely discouraged by the turnout of the voters. I just hope that the students will realize that this is their student government and the only way they can have what they want is to get out and vote."

Eight Hinds Band Members Perform With All-State Band

Eight Hinds Band members were selected for the Mississippi Junior College All-State Concert Band to perform in Jackson for the Mississippi Education Association.

The MEA will sponsor the Mississippi Junior College All-State Band in a concert to be presented on Monday, March 27, at 8:00 p. m. in Jackson's City Auditorium. The concert will be open to the public at no charge.

The group, created by the newly-organized Mississippi Public Junior College Band Association, is comprised of the state's top junior college instrumentalists. The band will be directed by Jim Scott of Northeast Junior College.

First Band

The 63 member band is the first Junior College All-State Band in Mississippi. It was organized this year as an effort to draw attention to the work of the state junior college system and to make Mississippians aware that the junior college instrumental programs are concerned about and actively engaged in fulfilling their obligations to the young people of the state.

Gail Fortenberry, a sophomore from Jackson, will play clarinet in the All-State Band. She is a Music Education major and a graduate of Wingfield High School. At Hinds she is a member of the Concert Choir, Senate, and Samothrace.

Lorman sophomore, Mary Sue Phillips, will also play clarinet in the All-State Band. She is a graduate of Jefferson High School in Fayette and a Business major. In high school she was second chair clarinet and received a superior rating in solo and ensemble.

Playing flute for the band will be Liz Shows from Jackson. She attended South Jones High School in Ellisville where she was a member of the Jones County All-County Band. In high school she received a superior rating in both solo and ensemble. At Hinds she is a sophomore Music Education major and a member of the Concert Choir.

Margie Haddock of Vicksburg will also play flute in the band. She is a graduate of H. V. Cooper High School where she was also in the band. She played first chair flute and won first place in solo, ensemble, and marching in high school. At Hinds she is a member of Astra, the Women's Executive Council, and the Senate. She is a sophomore majoring in sociology.

Bassoon Player

McComb sophomore Rob Hamilton will play bassoon in the All-State Band. He is majoring in music. He is president of both the Lendon Players and the Band. He plays string bass in Hinds' Stage Band. In high school he won first place for playing Bass Clarinet in 1970 and received superior ratings in the state solo and ensemble contest in 1969.

William Head, a freshman from Jackson, will play the trumpet for the band. He played first chair baritone and won first place in the solo contest while at Callaway High School. At Hinds he is a member of Senate, Lendon Players, and Circle K, and he plays trumpet for the Hinds' Stage Band. He will be president of the Associated Student Body next year.

Band Manager

Playing tuba for the band will be Jackson freshman Jerry Spruill. He is an Electronics major and the Hinds' Stage Band manager. In high school he received superior ratings in solo and ensemble contests, made All-Superior Band, and played first chair tuba.

Flora Freshman Connie Sprinkell will be playing drums for the band. At Hinds he is a member of the stage band, Senate, Chess Club, and Circle K. He is a Music Education major. In high school he won six superiors in solo and ensemble contest, was the first drummer in the academy band clinic, and played in the Stage Band.

John Manchester, Hinds director, stated, "It's an honor for a student to be a member of the All-State Band. We are very proud of each of our students that was selected, and we hope that next year we can have more Hinds students chosen."

CHEERLEADER CONTEST — L'ee Ann May will represent Hinds in the annual Miss Cheerleader, USA contest being held in Cypress Gardens, Florida. Contestants are judged on photographs sent in by their college or university. Photo by David Milling.

Easter's Significance Shown By God's Love

With Easter comes a closer feeling to God because Easter reminds us of His great love. Though things like new clothes, colored eggs and the Easter Bunny can cloud our perception of Easter and make it hard to "get into" the true meaning, most people really realize what it's all about and don't let the material parts of Easter crowd out its religious significance.

Easter marks a wonderful happening which has had an effect on the lives of millions of people. It is recognized as the day that Jesus rose out of the void known as death.

Experiencing Easter and its real meaning can be very enlightening. Just realizing the pain and suffering of Jesus during the crucifixion should provoke a feeling of awe. That someone could love so deeply is almost impossible to believe!

But we do believe, and that is why Easter is so important to us. Without Easter, the significance of Christ's death and resurrection would probably slip into the background of our lives — and stay there. But with Easter still around, it's much harder to forget Jesus and His suffering.

Easter serves as a type of reminder — a reminder of God's love . . . a reminder of Jesus' suffering . . . a reminder of everything They have done for us . . . a reminder that there's always some improvement needed in each of our lives.

Helen Rice Steiner's poem "On of US" explains why Easter is so meaningful:

He was born as little children are and lived as children do,
So remember that the Savior was once a child like you,
And remember that he lived on earth in the midst of sinful men,

And the problems of the present existed even then;
He was ridiculed and laughed at in the same heartbreaking way

That we who fight for justice are ridiculed today;
He was tempted . . . He was hungry . . . He was lonely . . .
He was sad . . .

There's no sorrowful experience that the Savior has not had;

And in the end He was betrayed and even crucified,
For He was truly "One of Us" — He lived on earth and died;

So do not heed the skeptics who are often heard to say:
"What Does God Up In Heaven Know Of Things We Face Today" . . .

For, our Father up in heaven is very much aware
Of our failures and shortcomings and the burdens that we bear;

So whenever you are troubled put your problems in God's Hand

For He has faced all problems and He Will Understand.

Mayo Suggests 'Future Shock'

I'm reading a book which I commend to all members of the college community. This book challenges our thinking like nothing that has appeared in print in recent years. Many of our teachers and some students have read it. I'm a little late getting around to it but some of the following quotes may whet your appetite to read this stimulating book, Future Shock by Alvin Toffler, found in the McLendon Library.

"It has been observed, for example, that if the last 50,000 years of man's existence were divided into lifetimes of approximately sixty-two years each, there have been about 800 such lifetimes. Of these 800, fully 650 were spent in caves.

"Only during the last seventy lifetimes has it been possible to communicate effectively from one lifetime to another — as writing made it possible to do. Only during the last six lifetimes did masses of men ever see a printed word. Only during the last four has it been possible to measure time with any precision. Only in the last two has anyone anywhere used an electric motor. And the overwhelming majority of all the material goods we use in daily life today have been developed within the present, the 800th, lifetime.

"This 800th lifetime marks a sharp break with all past human experience because during this lifetime man's relationship to resources has reversed itself . . .

"But the final, qualitative difference between this and all previous lifetimes is the one most easily overlooked. For we have not merely extended the scope and scale of change, we have radically altered its pace . . ."

For those of us who have assumed some responsibility for the education and the training that will equip you to live a creative, satisfying and productive life in the 20th and 21st centuries, the author of this book raises many awesome and unsettling questions. We as teachers and students can study the history of the human race but only the master teacher and the most perceptive student can make the past with its mistakes and its successes applicable to the citizen of the future who must live, survive and adjust to the rapid changes of the super-technological age. If your education is meaningful and relevant it must equip you to cope with not only changes but with the rapidity of change.

For the individual one chapter 'Coping With Tomorrow' is well worth your time to read.

McLendon Library Represents 'Intellectual Hub' Of Campus

EDITOR'S NOTE: This article is the second of a three part series to be run on the Hinds McLendon Library.

Since the library is symbolically the "intellectual hub" of the academic society, McLendon Library was constructed as the center of the Hinds campus.

The library was constructed to accommodate a student body of 4,000 and to hold 40,000 volumes.

Little Designs

Jackson architect Jay T. Little designed the library in an "international" architectural style. The physical facilities were chosen from journals recommended by the American Library Association.

The floor area totals 23,512 square feet on two levels, featuring counter-high shelving, individual study desks, and a lounge area displaying current magazines and newspapers. These current periodicals offer both research and leisure opportunities.

The library is based on a "self-service" system. The top level contains the entrance lobby, card catalog, main check-out desk, reading rooms, conference rooms for small study groups, classroom, sound proofed student typing room, faculty reading room and lounge.

The first floor also houses a John Bell Williams room, work and planning are aimed at the opening of this room to be before the end of this school year. Materials of Former Governor John Bell Williams will be displayed in this room after its completion.

The second level includes the reference and periodicals rooms, classroom space, and the educational media lab.

Eleven people compose the full time library staff. The library also has approximately 30 student assistants helping to maintain library hours of 7:45 a.m. - 10:00 p.m., Monday - Thursday and 7:45 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. Friday.

Resource Committee

The library also has a Learning Resources Committee composed of faculty members who advise on library policy. This committee is named to serve a one-year term. This year's committee members include: C. R. Adkins, T. T. Beemon, Miss Sandra Boyd, Mrs. Hilda McRaney, Mike Rabalais, Mrs. Virginia Riggs, Dale Sellers, Frank Walsh, and Chairman Bob Dunaway.

The library was named for G. M. McLendon, past president of the college.

McLendon explains: "The library was designed to give total service. The plan of the building is simple and direct; it has structural stability, is attractive and inviting, and has been built with a full awareness of the purpose of a library."

Dawn Zachery Adapts To Life As Hinds Soph

She is a member of Phi Theta Kappa and Astra, has a quality point average of 3.8, participates in college life and is a well-adjusted student with only one exception — she is totally blind.

Dawn Zachery is a 19 year old Hinds sophomore, originally from Jackson. Her parents and her 12 year old sister have moved out of state, so she became a dormitory student and now resides in West-side.

After attending the Mississippi School for the Blind and Deaf, she went to Florida School for the Blind and Deaf, where she graduated. She then came to Hinds in the summer of 1971. Her major field of study is languages, but she hasn't decided what she wants to do after graduating.

Carrying her tape recorder to classes is her method of "taking notes." After taping the lectures, she returns to her room and writes out her notes in braille by listening to the tapes.

When test time comes, Dawn meets with her instructor and takes the test orally. Since tests are mostly objective, they are easier taken orally. Dawn adds that her teachers are very cooperative.

In some ways, Dawn's adjustment to Hinds was easier than that of the average student from public school. In high school, she lived in boarding schools with dormitory rules much the same as Hinds. Because of this, her transition from high school to college was easy.

Dawn says of Hinds, "I like it. I've made a lot of good friends here." In her free time she likes to read or to just "be with people, and just do whatever they do."

Dawn has done something many people never learn to do—accept life the way it is, and do something with it. It takes work and determination, but it can be done. Dawn has proven that.

Barbering Program Adds Unisex Styles

Barbering School in the Vo-Tech Department has increased its course from 1500 to 1800 hours because styling has been added to the curriculum.

Now a 45 week course includes basic hair cutting, tonics, razor-cutting, shampooing, hair straightening, hair piece fitting, and all phases of hair styling for long and short hair.

The school is directed by L. E. McDonald and T. V. Traxler who serve as co-instructors.

Barbering School does not operate as a semester class. Students are admitted to the class at different times as there is an opening. Each student graduates as he or she finishes the course. There are presently 20 students in the school.

Prerequisites for being admitted to the school are a tenth grade education and an age of 16 1/2. A personal interview is also required.

Each student is given individual attention. There is an orientation period of about a week. After this, the student begins with strict instructor supervision. As the student progresses, supervision becomes less strict.

Women Barbers

Girls are not excluded from the Barbering course. There are three girls presently enrolled.

McDonald explained that more and more girls are going into barbering because of the unisex movement in hair styles. According to McDonald, in a few years men and women will go to the same hair salons. The shag hair cut is an example of how men's and women's hair styles are coming together.

"The hair dressing profession correlates with wearing apparel," says McDonald. Pantsuits and the recent bluejean craze shows that men's and women's clothing are becoming more alike and so hair styles are, too.

Traxler remarks, "The demand for Barber Stylists is growing, but the demand for regular barbers is not. However, there will always be a place for barbers who are good in their field."

Toupees

Now that long hair is stylish anyone that is bald is considered to be out of style. More and more toupees are being sold to men and in most cases you can't even tell that it is a toupee. A toupee can be blended in to where it isn't noticeable.

Manufacturers can make a toupee to match the hair sample that is sent to the company. Toupees are made out of virgin hair, that is, hair that is not processed or has never been colored.

Toupees are put on with a double stick tape and can easily be moved for cleaning. A special cleaning fluid is used to keep the toupee in good condition. It then can be brushed and set just like normal hair. Instructor Vic Traxler commented, "With emphasis on long hair now you will see fewer bald headed men."

Miami Trip

In April Traxler and McDonald will go to the Mona Carlo Factory in Miami, Florida where they will learn how toupees are made, styled, cut in, colored, and the caring of toupees.

Traxler also reminds the public that the barber shop still has regular barber service of regular haircuts, shampoos, and facials.

Students in the school work on live models, such as instructors and other students. Any student or faculty member can visit the Barber Shop. A regular hair cut is 25c. Hair style with razor cut, shampoo, and style is 50c, and a straightening is $2.00.

The Shop is open from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Friday.

Anderson Represents Hinds At New Orleans Workshop

By BRENDA BOYKIN

Recruitment, retention, and placement of minority group students were topics discussed at a New Orleans, Louisiana counselor's workshop recently attended by Larry Anderson, representing Hinds.

WEC Sponsors Day Of Activity

"Derby Day" will be held Thursday, April 27, with activities centering around the cafeteria, academic, and administration buildings and lasting from 4:30 p.m. until 11:00 p.m.

"Derby Day" will kick off with a cookout instead of the regular evening meal. This will be followed by various games and activities involving both the women and men students.

The evening will end with a street dance to be held on the girls' tennis courts. The band will be announced at a later date.

Activities will include such things as a pie eating contest, a tug-of-war match, sack races, and a softball game. Some of these activities will consist of all girl teams, some of all boy teams, and some of mixed teams.

There will also be various forms of entertainment throughout the afternoon. At this time there are no final plans for this entertainment but campus organizations will help organize the event.

"Derby Day" is sponsored by the Women's Executive Council and is being planned for the students. No admission will be charged for the dance and most activities will be free.

Babs Sharp, WASB president, states, "Derby Day will be an afternoon of fun and games. It will provide an opportunity for all students to enjoy the outdoors and also to get acquainted with other students. All students are invited to join in and enjoy this 'happening' on campus."

The general subject of the workshop sponsored by Delgado Junior College was "The Black Student: A Challenge To The Community College." It was structured around three sessions. The first session included the discussion: "Recruitment: Its Significance and Practicality for Community Outreach and Fulfillment" by Dr. Coleman Kerry and Robert McFarland.

"Retention: The Problems of Curriculum Design and Student Services" by Edsel Godby and George Parker; and "Placement: The Role of Senior College and University, and Method of Follow-Up" by Mrs. Helen McLain and Dr. Cecil L. Groves were topics of the other sessions.

Anderson said of the discussions,

Band Members Give Concert Of Pop Music

Hinds Junior College Eagle Band held a Pops Concert, Thursday, March 16, 1972, at 8:00 p.m. in the Hinds Auditorium.

Rock numbers, ballads, movie themes, and medleys were the featured types of music. The Eagle Band performed: "Color My World," "Light My Fire," "Close to You," "One Tin Soldier," and "The Theme from Shaft."

Featured soloists were: pianist, Debbie Beason, "Traces" and "Color My World," Gary Boone, flute, "Traces"; Bobby Jamison, trombone; and Mark Cloer, alto saxophone, "Rainy Days and Mondays."

Greg Morland, trumpet, was backed up by William Head, trumpet, in the rock song, "Get Together."

Looking ahead the band will hold its Formal Spring Concert, Thursday, May 11, at 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium. On Tuesday, April 25, at 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium an 18 piece jazz ensemble will hold a rock concert.

"Most of the topics discussed were things we are already doing on our campus in terms of untapped resources of recruitment of students and in terms of placement."

"The only session that could be considered more here at Hinds would be the session concerning retention with reference to student services and its ability to adequately serve the student body."

He added, "In terms of curriculum design I was happy to find that many things that were discussed are already being done by the faculty here."

It was brought out during the discussions that the "open door" policy used by many schools has not been a successful method of retaining minority students. "Though the open door policy is commendable, there are many additional services that are required if the institution is to fulfill its philosophy and meet the needs of the total individual," Anderson said.

The workshop was funded by the Southern Regional Educational Board.

Gallery Dedication To Be Held May 14

By JAMIE WILSON

Bob Dunaway, chairman of the Art Department, announced recently by naming of the Hinds art gallery, "Marie Hull Gallery" in honor of the Mississippi artist.

The decision to name the Hinds gallery and facilities for Mrs. Hull was made by the Board of Trustees. A formal dedication ceremony honoring her contribution to art and art education will be held Sunday, May 14, 3:00-5:00 p.m.

Choral Festival Held At Hinds

Approximately 425 students from 13 junior colleges across the state participated in the State Junior College Choral Festival held at Hinds Saturday, March 18.

Registration began at 8:00 a.m. in the administration building. The colleges taking part in the events of the festival include: Hinds, Holmes, Northwest, Northeast, Delta, Paearl River, Jones, Meridian, East Mississippi, Southwest, Copiah-Lincoln, Jefferson Davis, and Perkinson.

Guest Conductor for the festival was John Clark, chairman of the Music Department at Michigan Tech University in Houghton, Michigan. Overall chairman for the festival was Eugene Phillips of Pearl River Junior College. Serving as accompanist was Barney McCann, a member of the music faculty at Hinds.

Each choir presented three individual numbers beginning at 10:45 a.m. through 12:00 noon, and then resumed at 1:00 p.m. and continued until 2:30 p.m. All performances were held in the College Auditorium.

The evening concert began at 7:00 p.m. and during the first half each school presented one number by a small ensemble. The second half was the festival chorus. Numbers of the festival music included: "Jesu, Priceless Treasure" by Bach; "He Comes To Us" by Jane Marshall; "I've Been Buked" by Hall Johnson; "Ma Petite Canadienne" by Harry Simeone; "Kaleidoscopic Colors" by Buryl Red; and "I Shall Not Grieve" by Schumann.

Preliminary plans for the dedication ceremonies are now underway. Mrs. Robert M. Mayo is director with Bob Dunaway serving as co-director.

"Marie Hull is one of the most universal figures in Mississippi art who has promoted Mississippi art and art education for many years," stated Dunaway. Dunaway also added, "She is known not only for the quality of her work, but also for assistance she has given others. Through teaching she has influenced the development of many of Mississippi's leading artists."

Mrs. Hull attended the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, Philadelphia, and the Art Students League, New York. After a period of study and a sketching tour in France and Spain she spent several summers working with leading New York artists.

Her work is represented in many private collections throughout the United States. Museums where her work may be found are: Mississippi Art Association, Jackson; Birmingham Museum, Birmingham; Lauren Rodgers Library and Museums, Laurel; Beaumont Museum, Beaumont; The Witte, San Antonio; Montgomery Museum, Montgomery; and the University of Utah.

Exhibitions have included the Art Institute, Chicago; American Watercolor Society, New York City; Butler Art Institute, Youngstown, Ohio; Ringling Museum, Sarasota, Florida; Southeastern Annuals, Atlanta; Delta Annuals, Memphis; Autumn Salon, Paris; New York World's Fair, 1939; and the San Francisco Golden Gate Exposition, 1939.

A recent Hull painting has been chosen by the State Department to be included in an exhibition which will tour American embassies. Hull was also honored by being chosen recipient of the Belaman Foundation Award.

The Art Exhibit area which is presently known as the gallery has a planned program of art exhibits each month during the school year and is open daily from 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, and other hours upon special request.

Watching the Sports Scene

By BILLY HARVEY

Well, the U.C.L.A. Bruins have done it again. After compiling the greatest sports dynasty that college athletics has ever known, the Bruins were again supposed to assume their places in the ranks of mere mortals, according to most predictors before this season.

But these pre-season prophets weren't taking one thing into consideration — a freckled-faced, red headed, 19 year-old named Bill Walton. So far this season, Walton has led the Bruins to 26 consecutive wins, and the number one ranking in the nation.

Even though his playing time has been limited to a little over half of each game, because of the way the Bruins have outclassed most of their opposition, he has still managed to haul down an average of 15 rebounds a game to go along with his 21 point average.

Walton's statistics are pretty remarkable in their own right, but according to his coach, John Wooden, his greatest assets to the team don't show up in his statistics.

Wooden said, "He does so many things that don't show up in the box score, like intimidation. How do you measure that? I know that when we had Lewis Kareem, the other teams had a lower shooting percentage. It went back up during the next couple of years but now, with Bill, it will go down again. Our opponents for the year are hitting in the high 30's and he is greatly responsible for that. Not only because of the shots he blocks but because they are always looking for him, just as they used to for Lewis all the time."

Walton's role during his basketball career has not always been the role of a giant who intimidates opposing players on every shot.

At the start of his sophomore year at Helix High School in Sacramento, California (that's not a typographical error, son), Walton was only 6' 1" and unusually skinny. He managed to play in six varsity games, but did not start a single game his entire sophomore year.

Between his sophomore and junior season, Walton grew from 6'1" to 6'7" and was on his way to stardom.

Featuring his brother Bruce (a tackle on the U.C.L.A. football team, at 6'5" and 283 pounds at high post and Bill at 6'7" and 183 pounds at low post, their high school posted a 29-2 record and won the CIF Championship his junior year.

Starting his senior year at 6' 10½" and with his stamina much improved, Walton was an extraordinary college prospect.

Walton's sophomore year is now fastly growing to a close, with the N.C.A.A. Championship Tournament now in process. The Bruins need only four more wins to add another championship to their already unbelievable string.

With the help of their already famous freckled-faced red head, the Bruins are a sure bet to take home the Championship again this year and to shut up the predictors — for two more years anyway.

Tennis Team Captures Opening With Win Over East Central

By BILLY HARVEY

Under the direction of Coach Bob Garrison, the Hinds tennis team opened their new season by easily defeating the East Central Warriors 6-2 here at Raymond last week.

In the boys action, Ricky Pennebaker of Provine, defeated David McWhorter 6-2, and 6-2 in the number one singles match.

Doubles Action

Doubles action saw Glen Strickland and Bill Wheeler of Hinds defeat David Senseman and Donnie Fredrick 6-2 and 6-4 in the number one doubles, while Stanley Harper and Mike Brown suffered the only defeat for the boy's team losing 6-2, 6-4, and 6-4 to the Warriors number 2 team of John Dickson and Jimmy Hurdle.

Duplicating the boy's record, the Eagle girl's team also recorded 3 wins to go along with a single loss.

Kathleen Webb and Rita Jones both scored easy victories in the number 1 and 2 girl's singles.

Webb defeated Glenda Watson 6-0 and 6-1 while Jones was making it two wins in a row for the girl's by defeating Rita Gibbon of East Central 6-1 and 6-2.

Lucy Aldy and Donne Harrison of Hinds defeated East Central's number one doubles team of Deborah Bowen and Judy Clark 6-3 and 6-3.

Close Match

In the closest match of the day, Josanne Ellis and Judy Sistrunk of Hinds were defeated 4-6 and 11-13 by Sara Allen and Jeanne Williams in the number two doubles match.

This year's tennis schedule is as follows:

March 12—East Central	Hinds
March 21—Southwest	Summit
March 23—East Central	Decatur
April 6—Jones	Hinds
April 11—Holmes	Hinds
April 12—Meridian	Hinds
April 17—Jones	Ellisville
April 19—Meridian	Meridian
April 20—Holmes	Goodman
April 25—Southwest	Hinds

Karate Recent Addition To Student's P. E.

By LARRY RIDDICK

Karate, taught by Black-Belt Steve Cash, is the newest addition to the Hinds physical education program, and perhaps the most interesting.

There are 45 Hinds students, both male and female, taking Karate, gradually working their way up from the white belt to a more colorful one. In Karate, there are six different colored belts, each representing different stages of progress. After the white belt come the orange, green, purple, brown, and black-belts.

Nothing needs to be said about the significance of a black belt in Karate. It takes about four years for a student to reach that pinnacle of perfection, if they are dedicated to reaching it.

Cash

Steve Cash has been at it longer than four, though; he has been practicing Karate for six years.

In the A.N.N. All South United States team elimination tournament held in New Orleans, Cash won first place.

Although he has been teaching for five and a half years, ever since he was a green-belt, this is only his second semester to teach at Hinds. Including the 45 Hinds students, Cash teaches about 100 students at Raymond, Jackson, and Vicksburg.

"The main thing Karate develops," said Cash, "is self-confidence. You learn what you can and cannot do — mostly what you can."

Can Karate make you more aggressive? "Yes, in that it brings out your inner self. But this aggression is let out in your life from day to day because you want to do more and do it to perfection. It makes you think things out before you do them."

Concrete

In this edition of the Hindsonian, there is a picture of Cash breaking several inches of concrete during an exhibition. When talking about this he said, "Karate is more than a physical training, it is an art in which you teach mind and body to correlate together to perfect union. Karate builds your personality in that it causes you to become aware of your abilities and limitations. Self confidence grows as you train and 'Ki,' inner power, is developed. When you draw from this inner strength, it releases the power that can be demonstrated by breaking the concrete. This power, whether seen or unseen, is within you. When you know it, that's what makes the difference."

Jeb Grace, a Hinds student in Karate class, said of his personal experience with "Ki," "It has given me the ability to judge the character of someone. I can look at someone's eyes and tell a lot about a person now, whereas I couldn't before. It has opened up a whole new type of life."

Cash added, "Karate builds superior men. Though the type of men that stay in Karate are the type of people that are above average anyway."

In Control

"Karate gives assurance. When you are in a crowd, you are kind of alone and aloof because you know you are in control of the situation. If anything comes up, you know you can handle it."

According to Cash, the members of the classes are a closely knit group who seem to enjoy the sessions.

When asked their opinions about Karate this semester, the students seemed to prove this belief.

David Milling said, "I admit that I got into Karate just for the P.E. credit, but now I enjoy it. It takes more time than the average person has time to put into it, but it's worth the time that you do put into it."

Self-respect

Paul Bradshaw said, "I think it's an excellent opportunity for people to gain self-respect. I have taken Karate before from a different instructor and I feel that there's no better instructor around than Steve Cash."

Student body president Jerry Allen said, "I really do enjoy it and really get wrapped up in it. I think it's great that the school is allowing Cash to teach out here because it gives more people a chance to become acquainted with Karate."

If the opinions of these students are any indication, it looks as if Karate is at Hinds to stay.

Intramural Action Draws Toward Close With Start Of Round-Robin Tourney

By BILLY HARVEY

With the regular season now over, the intramural season is now heading to the annual tournament with all teams competing for the championship.

In the last regular season action, the C.A.C. Boys continued to lead the standings by edging the Brothers 58-57.

Leading the C.A.C. Boys against the Brothers was Gary Post with 20 points followed by Johnny Means with 12 points. Top scorers for the Brothers were Ronson with 26 points and Alonzo Thompson who added 14 points.

Rebounding

Rebounding from their earlier loss, the Brothers easily defeated the Running Gunners 73-49 and Gentle Ben and the Bears 65-54.

Alonzo Thompson was the high scorer for the Brothers against the Gunners with 18 points while Gary Tipton led the Gunners with 12 points.

Alonzo Thompson, with 26 points, led the Brothers against Gentle Ben with Tommy Farr collecting 19 points for the losers.

Wade's Warriors added one win, 48-43, over the Roving Rebels, and one loss, 42-28, to the Hawks in the last week's action.

Leading the Warriors against the Rebels was Larry Weems with 18 points, while the top scorer against the Hawks was David Sessions with 11 points.

Already having recorded one victory earlier in the week, the Hawks made it two wins in a row with a 55-50 win over the Roving Rebels.

Top Scorer

Top scorer for the Hawks was Dwain Rainy with 12 points, with help coming from Jerry Fortenberry and Dub Hardy who had 11 points each.

Leading the losers was Jerry Sanders with a total of 27 points.

Two earlier losers during the week recorded victories with both wins coming at the expense of the Volunteers.

In the first game, Gentle Ben and the Bears defeated the Volunteers 57-37.

John Maxwell was the leading scorer for the Bears with 20 points. The Volunteers were led by Bill Schaffer who had 21 points.

In the second game, the Roving Rebels took the measure of Volunteers, 41-39.

Top scorer for the Rebels was again Jerry Sanders with 27 points, while Johnny Holliday was high for the Volunteers with a total of 15 points.

Sego Brothers

Behind a big first quarter lead, the Sego Brothers and Naomi defeated Wade's Warriors 63-49.

High scorers for the Sego Brothers were Billy Harvey and Doyle Hays with 17 and 16 points respectively. Gregg Timms led the losers with 18 points. It is interesting to note that Naomi (in his red-sequined headband) didn't play in this game. I wonder if that could have anything to do with the Sego Brothers' victory?

In the final game of the week, the Champions defeated the Running Gunners 57-45.

Donald Banes led the Champions with 24 points with help coming from Mile Goosby who had 11 points.

Top scorers for the Running Gunners were Percy Lee with 19 points, and Travis Tigrett who had a total of 15 points.

Thinclads Open With Gulf Coast

Hinds thinclads will begin the defense of their 1970-71 state track title against the Perkinson Bulldogs April 6, here at Raymond.

With Boyd Sullivan of Clinton and Greg Tims, from Central, both returning from last year's 440 880, and mile relay championship teams, the Eagles should again be strong in this department. Sullivan has also won the state 100-yard dash championship while placing second in the 220 dash.

Hurdles

Larry Weems, a sophomore from Forest Hill, is another returning from last year's team. He will again be running the 220 low hurdles, while Roger Graham will be representing Hinds in the high hurdles.

In the mile run and 880-yard run, the Eagles will have plenty of strength with Pat Godbold and Lynn Rimes both battling for these two spots.

Others expected to help this year's team in the running events are Leroy Gray in the 440, 880, and mile relays; Mike Bain, mile relay; Rob Reisebicher, 880 yard run and mile relay; and Johnny Means in the mile relay.

Field Events

Bill Baggett, last year's city high school champion from Central, will be throwing the discus for the Eagles.

Also in the field events, the Eagles will have Bill Boteler in the high jump and broad jump, and Jimmy Nail of Forest Hill in the shot put.

Coach Graham, head track and football coach, said, "This year's team should again be strong in the sprints and relays, with the main weakness coming in the field events where, so far, there are just not enough boys out."

Westside Captures Girl's Championship

By MARY BETH GROGAN

Girls intramurals began Monday night, March 6 and ran through March 13, with 4 teams, Main, Westside, East Davis, and West Davis competing in this year's league.

Girls intramurals opened up on Monday night. Main and East Davis had the first game. This proved to be a close game which could go either way. East Davis, after nip-n-tuck pulled out a victory, 34-31. Ann Logue from Main was hitting the board for a total of 14 points.

Nevt Patrick followed with 9 points. Jane Funchess was hot from the left side of the court as she sacked in 18 points followed by Liz Duncan with 12 from East Davis.

Tuesday Night

Tuesday night, Westside made their appearance on the court to play West Davis. Westside proved themselves by winning 55-11. Individual scores were not kept for this game. Westside left the gym with their first victory under their belt.

Wednesday night, Main was out for West Davis. West Davis could not field a complete team so Kat Webb from Westside and Mary Beth Grogan from East Davis played for West Davis just to give Main a practice game.

Main automatically won by forfeit, and Nevt Patrick was high scorer for Main with 13 points, followed by Lucy Carr with 8, and Ann Logue with 7. Mary Beth Grogan scored 11 points for West Davis with Hilda Fleming scoring 9 points.

Thursday Night

Thursday night opened up with Man playing Westside. This game was a hard fought one. Defense was extremely good on both teams as is evident by the score. Westside won 24-16.

Linda Barlow pulled her team through by popping the net for 8 points, followed by Lucy Carr with 4.

The battle within dorm now began. Since Davis is so large, the dorm is divided down the middle. The front side is considered West Davis with the back side taking the name East Davis. East Davis won by a score of 38 to 21.

Betty Wilson, from West Davis, proved herself in a good showing of rebounding and shooting. She scored 10 points and Hilda Fleming sacked in 6. Jane Funchess was hot scoring 12 and Liz Duncan popped the net for 10.

Championship

The last night for intramurals was the determining factor. Westside played East Davis and both of these teams were undefeated. The game started out fairly even score-wise, but Westside slowly began to pull ahead. Before East Davis realized it, they were being left behind.

Beth Horn led Westside to a victory, 56-28, by scoring 17 points. Katie Taylor added to Westside's score by scoring 14 points. East Davis again was led by Jane Funchess who sacked 13 points, followed by Lynda Taylor who scored 8.

Westside captured the honor of winning girls basketball intramurals for this year.

Warren

When asked about the upcoming intramural softball season, Mrs. Rene Warren said, "I would again like to say that intramurals are opened to any girl that attends Hinds. Girls intramurals may soon become a thing of the past if more girls do not get out and get involved."

"These activities are set up for the student's benefit and fun, and you may be ruining your own good thing by neglecting intramurals. So come on girls, let's get on the stick and talk up softball intramurals."

"Softball calls for more girls than volleyball and basketball so let's have every dorm represented. Practice will begin as soon as warm weather hits."

CIVITAN PRO'S? — Civitans Golf Tournament will be held April 10 through 13 on the Hinds golf course. The tournament is open to students and faculty at $1.50 registration fee. Contestants will be flighted after the first two preliminary rounds. Applications may be obtained from Gene Lowery, Lance Kneeland, or any Civitan member. Photo by Houston Richardson.

Enrollment Now Exceeds 8,500

Total enrollment at Hinds for the 1971-72 session is 8,566 according to the registrar, Miss Mildred Herrin.

The total enrollment in the academic department at the Jackson Branch includes 106 freshmen, 48 sophomores, and 10 part-time students. At Raymond the total includes 1,794 freshmen, 956 sophomores, 73 part-time students and 640 evening students. The 956 sophomores, 73 part-time students and 640 evening students. The overall enrollment for the academic department is 3,745.

Jackson Branch's vocational department has 370 full-time day students, 878 part-time day students and 136 night students enrolled. At Raymond the enrollment includes 470 day students, 280 evening students, 856 part-time students, 99 in Health Occupation, and 625 in DMT. The overall total for the vocational department is 3,661.

During the 1971 Summer Session 167 freshmen and 441 sophomores were enrolled at Raymond and 17 were enrolled in the Technical program at the Jackson Branch. The total vocational students at both branches were 262 day students and 273 night students. The total enrollment for the session was 1,160.

Miss Herrin said, "This total figure for the 1971-72 session reflects an increase of over 1,000 students from the 1970-71 session."

the super-industrial revolution will be to meet invention with invention — to design new personal and social change-regulators. Thus we need neither blind acceptance nor blind resistance, but an array of creative strategies for shaping, deflecting, accelerating or decelerating change selectively. The individual needs new principles for pacing and planning his life along with a dramatically new kind of education . . .

"Given a clearer grasp of the problems and more intelligent control of certain key processes, we can turn crisis into opportunity, helping people not merely to survive, but to crest the waves of change, to grow, and to gain a new sense of mastery over their own destinies."

After reading this book one can better understand the extremist groups that flourish on college campuses and in the political life of this country. An over-simplified explanation would lump these extremists into one group where they share a great deal in common, i.e. a blind striking out at resistance to change while attempting to hold on to things and values they understand or a blind desire to lead a simple life unaffected by change.

Neither you nor I may agree with all the author has to say or project for us in this book but we will agree that he says it well and has caused us to think about our life styles, our sense of values and about what lies ahead for all of us in the next few decades.

It is our hope that as teachers and that as an educational institution we are doing something that will better equip you to live with "future shock."

Maxwell Announces Cast Of Production

John Maxwell, co-sponsor of the Lendon Players, has announced the cast for the upcoming production of Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun.

The play, which concerns a black family living in Chicago's Southside, deals with man's dreams, and what happens to him when these dreams are shattered. For the Youngsters, the family in the play, these dreams take many forms.

Ghetto

For instance, Lena Younger, the mother, dreams of moving her family into a decent house out of the ghetto. Walter Lee, her son, wants to invest in a liquor store and become rich, while his wife Ruth dreams of making a better home for her son Travis and the new baby that will arrive soon. Walter Lee's sister, Beneatha, wants to go to medical school and become a doctor. All these dreams and hopes will become possible when Mama gets the check from the insurance company for $10,000, the amount her husband left her when he died. But there isn't enough money for all the dreams, and so conflict arises as to whose dreams are more important.

Playing the part of Mama will be Barbara Cage. She is a freshman from Clinton, majoring in Business. The part of Walter Lee Younger, the son, was given to James Jackson, a sophomore Business major from Vicksburg.

Janet Hayes will play Ruth, and Michelle Henderson will play Beneatha. Janet is a freshman from Jackson, majoring in nursing, and Michelle is a sophomore data processing major from Jackson.

Ernest Freeman was cast in the part of George Murchison, one of Beneatha's boyfriends. He is a freshman Animal Science major from Utica. Charles Moore received the part of Bobo, one of Walter Lee's cohorts on the liquor store deal. Charles is a Jackson freshman majoring in Journalism.

Stanley Moore will play the part of Karl Lindner, the white man who tries to persuade the Youngers not to move into an all-white neighborhood. Stanley is a Jackson sophomore majoring in speech. Rudy Seals received the part of Joseph Asagai. Rudy is a sophomore music major from Jackson.

Moving Men

The two moving men will be played by Charles Berger and Rob Hamilton. Charles is a sophomore history major from Natchez, and Rob is a sophomore drama major from McComb.

Maxwell will direct the three act drama with Phyllis White serving as assistant director. Hamilton will serve as stage manager with David Stone as his assistant.

The play will run May 10, 11, and 12 in the college auditorium, and admission is free to Hinds students with I.D.'s. Admission is $1.50 for adults, and $1.00 for students without I.D.'s.

Phi Theta Kappa Initiates Members

Seventy-five new members were initiated into Phi Theta Kappa national scholastic society for junior colleges, in its recent spring initiation held in the College Auditorium.

New initiates from Jackson include Margaret McCluer, Nancy Harmon, Debbie Oliver, Vickie White, Jamie Wilson, Joan Moran, James Fulgham, Janice Miller, Robert Harvey, William Latham, and Larry Thomas.

Gail Brinson, William Burke, Johnny Milner, Linda Flowers, Linda Johnston, Dorothy McCain, Gary McKinley, and Vickie Netherton are also new members from Jackson.

Others from Jackson are Colleen Ingram, Brenda Carson, David Kelly, John Jordan, Jim Shepherd, Victoria Miles, Janie Johnson, and Diane Blackwell.

Patricia Johnson, Bonnie Brown, Tandi Lawrence, Emily Branton, Toby Thrash, Ruth Hampton, Judy Womack, and Bernard Hanegan, and Margo complete the list of Jackson initiates.

From Vicksburg, Diane McKay, Mary Beth Grogan, Jeana McKinley, Patti Tipton, Nancy George, James Wilson, Gail Russell, Betty Peyton, Betty Maggio, Charleen Millis, and Pam Parsons were inducted.

Ronny Curtis, Ann Dukes, Horace Grantham, and Susan Hinton, all from Clinton, were initiated. New members from Raymond were Susan Mason, Teresa Ward, E. K. Purvis, Mary Stevenson, Mike McBride, and Aubrey Barnette.

Lindy Simmons, Jan Herring, and Betty Allen, all of Magee; Nancy Sullivan and Kathy Baker of Terry; and Shirley Howard and Michael Patrick of Crystal Springs also became members.

Completes

Completing the list of new members are Mary Dale Ainsworth, Brandon; Martha Carol, Florence; Sarah Willey, Pelahatchie; Hilda Fleming, Lena; Jone Stewart, Winton; Mabs Sharp, Hazlehurst; Shirley Daigle, Port Gibson; and Wanda Thetford, Carpenter.

Qualifications for membership in Phi Theta Kappa is a 3.6 quality point average for second semester

Auburn Choir Gives Concert

Auburn University's Baptist Student Choir presented a concert of sacred music in the College Auditorium Wednesday, March 22, at 7:00.

The choir's performance at Hinds was one of seven such concerts scheduled for a seven day tour which covered five states.

The choir's repertoire represented many musical styles. It included works of Brahms as well as of such contemporary composers as Flor Peeters and Floyd Plantho. Several new ideas in choral church music were presented during the concert.

The choir, under the direction of William R. Hornbuckle, is called upon frequently for state and convention activities. The touring choir consists of forty-eight of the eighty students enrolled in the choir.

The concert was co-sponsored by the choir of Raymond Methodist Church and the Wesley Foundation of Hinds.

Scholarships

Four four-year colleges offer scholarships directly to Phi Theta Kappans. These scholarships range from $100 to $500 and are offered by the University of Mississippi, Mississippi State College for Women, Mississippi State University, and Millsaps College.

For one project the club has planned a faculty tea to be held Tuesday, March 28. They also plan to sell candy to earn money to send members to the national convention. This year the national convention will be held Thursday-Saturday, April 13-15 in Rochester, Minnesota. Ten members are planning to attend.

A reception was held immediately following the initiation program in the Reserve Lounge in the Student Union Building.

Officers of Phi Theta Kappa are: Debbie Beason, president; Vivian Aldrich, vice president; Laureen Jenkins, secretary; Bill Schaffer, senator; Alice Jones, representative; and Julia Musgrave and Jim Chapman, historians.

Scholarship In Teaching Field Now Available

Applications for the 1972-73 teaching scholarship awarded by Hinds Junior College Education Association are now available from Mrs. Retta Porter, Scholarship Fund Committee Chairman.

The scholarship is awarded to a deserving student who will continue his studies in the teaching field at Hinds next year. The scholarship fund was established in 1969.

At that time, several qualifications were established as criteria for the award. The student should: be a second semester freshman who will return to Hinds in the fall; be of good moral character; have a personality suitable to the teaching profession; have grades which are average or above; and, where all other things are equal, have a financial need.

When the recipient is selected and named by the Committee, funds in the amount of $150 will be transferred to the Hinds Junior College Business Office in the name of the recipient. These funds will be used by the Business Office to apply against the student's sophomore year expenses at Hinds.

Interested and qualified students should contact one of the committee members for information and applications. Committee members for this year are: James Baddley, Chip Reynolds, Norma Simmons, Neva Sprayberry, Joe Bigelow, Nell Ann Pickett, and Retta Porter, Chairman.

Technical Difficulties Cause Voting Delay

Long Candidate List Discourages All But Thirty-Six Student Voters

Balloting for ASB President was held last Tuesday under the big oak tree near the auditorium building.

The polls were supposed to open at 8:00 a.m. but due to technical difficulties (central duplicating broke down again, and the ballots couldn't be run off) opening was postponed until forty-five minutes till ten. When the ballots were finally delivered to the voting area, students were amazed to find a two-page list of candidates for the one office.

Perhaps the long list of candidates discouraged the voters. According to the elections commissioner, "We had thirty-five students running for the office of ASB President, and only thirty-six students voted."

W. L. Head's victory came by a landslide vote of three. He has promised to "do something to clean up the mess" while he is in office. As to which mess he is referring . . . who knows? At any rate, he received the most votes so he will be ASB President next year.

As President it will be his duty to make sure no one steals the eggs out of the robin's nest in the science building and he also must make sure the students and the administration are unable to agree on anything. At least once a month, he must incite a student rebellion. Of course, if he would like he may lead a few more, but this is generally discouraged because of the expense.

However, these are not his major duties. His main responsibility will be to keep up the traditional bitterness which has developed between the ASB and WASB Presidents.

He has already started to fulfill this duty. He began by commenting on the WASB election to be held next week, "I hope nobody runs and I hope nobody votes. The students elected a strong leader when they elected me and I don't need anyone to help me lead them."

Qualifications for the office of ASB President, according to the book QUALIFICATIONS OF ASB PRESIDENT, include one being a member of Circle K, having once been enrolled at the college for at least half a semester, and having maintained a quality point average of 1.9548.

HJC Enrollment Increases 100% With Change In Women's Rules

Due to the controversy lately over women's rules the administration has designated certain rule changes to take effect August, 1972.

The new application for housing will include the usual personal questions plus recommendations from the applicant's pastor, home town Chief of Police, former high school principal, and one home town gossip. The applicant will then be notified of a private appointment with the Dean of Women.

If the applicant meets these requirements, she is sent to the dormitory she has requested. Here she will meet the Head Resident and Resident Assistants for further questioning and final placement. This placement simply puts potential trouble makers in certain parts of the dormitory.

Dormitory fees will increase slightly due to the necessities issued upon entrance to the dormitory. These will include: tokens to the machines, ash grey sleepers with feet, dark hose, and one roll of off-white all purpose toilet tissue for every two weeks.

Requirements for Resident Assistants will change slightly. To become an R. A. one must be between five feet, nine inches and six feet, four inches and weigh between 150 and 210 pounds. The R. A. must also be willing to spend two weeks during the summer in training at the Police Academy.

R. A.'s will be equipped with the usual heating pad and flashlight. Each will be given a new "glow in the dark" orange uniform, a tranquilizer gun, and an extra roll of toilet tissue.

Women students must be properly attired at all times. Proper attire for the daytime is defined as a midi or maxi dress with dark hose or boots. Physical Education classes will be adjusted so that dress needn't be changed. Night-time wear will be the ash grey sleepers with feet. Anyone not complying with proper dress code will be expelled immediately.

Hours will also undergo a severe change. Girls may remain on campus as long as they wish. However, at exactly 8:22 p.m. all doors (Continued on page 2)

Students Sharp And Allen Advocate Erection Of Statue Honoring Ralph

At the March 14 Senate meeting David Morgan suggested that a gold plated statue of Granny's parrot be erected to honor the beautiful bird.

The motion to honor the parrot was sponsored by Chris Smith who also motioned that a dance be held under the statue at its unveiling. Upon the mentioning of a dance, the band director, John Manchester, jumped up protesting, "No, a dance would interfere with the band concert to be held next month." Manchester was immediately ruled 'out of order' by the president.

When the president, Cathy Richardson, asked, "Any opposed?" the usually bickering Jerry Allen and Babs Sharp were for once in agreement. Both wanted the statue to be of Ralph, the campus mascot. They felt that Ralph deserved more recognition because he was more of a companion to students than the parrot.

This new suggestion was voted upon and passed unanimously with George Holland muttering in the background that the statue should be of Janie — not some stupid dog. Janie meanwhile simply stated, "George."

Questions asked were from Connie Sprinkell who wanted to know whether the statue would be gold or silver colored and Dean Oakes who asked, "How many students are interested in taking a bus to the basketball game?" As usual Aubrey Pierce was the first to raise his hand.

At this point in the meeting, Parliamentarian Vickie Netherton screeched, "Point of order, point of order — the minutes have not been read." Blanche Creel, again taking the minutes in the absence of the secretary, simply stated, "Are they serious?"

The meeting was then interrupted by a late-comer who, upon his arrival, announced, "Ladies and gentlemen, your entertainment for tonight is me, William Leonard Head, with my flying yo-yo trick." Head was also ruled 'out of order' and the meeting continued.

Dennis Bledsoe, rules and procedure commissioner, had been trying to explain an amendment during the entire meeting. After finally obtaining everyone's atten-

Deans Marshall And Rosamond Announce New No Jeans Code

Dr. Mayo has announced that students who attend Hinds after Easter Holidays, beginning Wednesday, April 5, will have to conform to a dress code.

The girls' code is: all dresses are to be no less than three inches below the knee; no hot pants, shorts, or jeans to be worn during school hours. All questions concerning the girls' dress code can be referred to Miss Faye Marshall, Dean of Women.

The boys' code is as follows: Hair must be neatly trimmed and can't touch the shirt collar; no shoes with holes may be worn; socks are a MUST; and slacks must be clean with no holes, or patches or emblems sewed on. Any questions on this code can be answered by Ivan Rosamond, Dean of Men.

These codes were brought up at a recent meeting of the staff and patrons of the school. They said that the students were getting out of hand. Dean Elkins said, "The students now attending Hinds are giving it a bad reputation and we have worked too long and too hard to have them tear it down."

"So all students returning to Hinds after the Easter holidays are going to have to reform to the rules and regulations that the committee set up," says Dr. Mayo. "They have gotten away with being childish too long and are going to have to face the fact that they are young responsible adults."

Sam Announces New Initiates

Samothrace Club recently initiated thirteen new members.

The new members include _____, _____ and _____, all from Jackson. Initiates from Vicksburg were _____ and _____, and _____ from _____ were also initiated.

During the week of initiation, new members wore a diaper pen and on March 7, they wore red lipstick and fingernail polish. This was to signify that they were new initiates of Sam. Also on March 7, old members honored the new members with a party held in the girl's day room.

One Sam project for this year was entertaining at the Jackson Business and Professional Women's Club. Future projects include an Easter Egg Hunt and the purchase of a bike for the children of the Methodist Children's Home.

Officers for this year are Pres., VPRES., Treas., Secre., Sen., Rep. and His.

Poole Approves Co-ed Dorms

Faye Marshall, Dean of Women, and Ivan Rosamond, Dean of Men, have announced that coed in-habitation will be tried in two dormitories this summer.

This will be a test for the two summer sessions of June - August. If the test is successful it will be tried again during the first semester of the 1972 session.

This will be the first college in the state of Mississippi to try coed in-habitation in the dormitory. Though there will not be co-habitation in room or suites, there will be men and women students living on the same floor.

If any student is interested in living in either of the two dormitories specified, please contact Miss Faye Marshall or Ivan Rosamond.

"If this program is successful at Hinds it will be tried in similar institutions around the state," Bill Oakes, Dean of Students, stated.

Mrs. Mildred Herring, Registrar, said, "Due to coed in-habitation our enrollment should increase by 40 per cent."

"I am sure we will run into some problems, but, I am also sure the students will be able to find a solution," commented Mrs. Sarah Poole, housemother of Davis Dormitory.

Bob Mayo Is Raison In Cow Palace Play

John Maxwell, co-sponsor of the Hinds Lyndon Players has announced that, due to unforeseen difficulties, he has recast "A Raison In The Sun."

"We have had, in instances, to go outside campus, which we don't ordinarily do. I am proud to announce that Richard Nixon has consented to play the part of Walter Lee Younger, which is the lead, and I feel certain that he will turn out well. We are also somewhat pleased to have Spiro Agnew playing the role of Mama," he said.

Other cast members include Anna Bee as Ruth Younger; Hilda Davis as her sister Beneatha; Bill Oakes as George Murchinson, Beneatha's "Assimilationist" boyfriend; and John Manchester as Asagai, Beneatha's other boyfriend, who is a member of the Yoruba Tribe, and Attorney General Summer as Lemmer the bigot.

Also appearing will be Floyd Elkins as Willy Harris, Walter Lee's partner who runs off with the money; Ralph Kramden and Ed Norton as the moving men; and Faye Marshall as Bobo.

Dr. Robert Mayo will appear as the Raison in a special Cameo Spot. He asked that there be no cracks about "Gimme two raisins on rye, and hold the Mayo."

Maxwell added: "I feel that I have one of the most solid casts I have ever worked with and that the production will probably be one of the best things I've ever done. I'm beautiful."

The play will run May 31 - June 2, in the College Auditorium, affectionally termed "cow palace" by those who know better. Admission will be free to those who show up and $5.00 for those who come. Maxwell looked up from his mirror long enough to say that "everyone will love this bombastic presentation, and it should squelch those rumors that the Lyndon Players is really sponsored by the John Birch Society, and that I'm the head John."

Rules . . .

to individual rooms will automatically lock. If a girl is caught out in the hall after 8:22 p.m., an R. A. will shoot her with the tranquilizer gun and remove her to a detention room to await a hearing before the disciplinary committee.

At 8:22 p. m. television scanners will check to make sure that girls are in their own rooms. In order to eliminate any oversight closet doors will be removed. If a girl is found in someone else's room, her respective R. A. will be notified and she will be escorted to her room.

Room inspection will be held three times daily (6:00-7:00 a.m., 12:00-1:00 p.m., and 7:00-8:00 p. m. There may also be unscheduled room inspections when desired by individual R. A.'s.

There are to be no television sets, radios, stereos, or other electrical "noise makers" in rooms.

Private phones are not allowed.

There will be one public phone for emergency use only. This call is not to exceed three minutes and an R. A. and/or Head Resident must be present.

Girls must sign out whenever they leave the dormitory. Failure to sign out will result in a one week campus.

Smoking is not allowed on campus or in the dormitory rooms.

Girls may not eat in the rooms unless authorized to do so. Any infraction of these rules will also result in a one week campus.

Boys will be allowed in the dormitory lobbies from 7:30 - 7:45 p. m. During this time an R. A. or Head Resident must be present to make sure that the girls do not eat or drink on the carpet. Girls may leave campus with boys but only if accompanied by one or both parents.

The administration feels that parents will approve of these changes. A reliable source in the Dean of Women's office was overheard saying, "Our young women become better disciplined, stronger, and more moralistic. They will know the value of time well spent."

An anonymous source in the President's office commented, "These rules will insure a better quality of education and a higher level of achievement. They will prepare our girls for living in our complex society."

Cafeteria Has New Procedure

After Easter break, students will find a new feature in service at the Hinds Cafeteria.

This new feature of the cafeteria will be its delivery service to the dorms. Dorm students who wish to eat in their rooms may simply call in their orders and deliveries will be made.

One of the cafeteria managers was overheard to say, "The cafeteria is going to try to start pleasing the students. We are taking a step toward success."

MIJCC Selects New President, William Head

By BARBARA JONES

William Head was elected President of the Mississippi Intercollegiate Junior College Council which met Thursday - Saturday, April 6, 7, and 8.

A delegation of eight students from Hinds attended this convention. They were: Debbie Shivers, Ann Rutker, Liz Neal, Carolyn Wooten, Gene Lowery, Ray Berry, Jerry Allen, and William Head.

The convention began with a banquet Thursday night. Speakers for the banquet were Senator Bob Perry, and Legislators, Doug Abraham and Walter Brown.

On Friday there were special discussion sessions. The first discussion was on Women's Lib. A woman from Ohio talked about the Equal Rights Bill and women fighting in Viet Nam. She also pointed out that members of the Women's Lib Movement were not a bunch of ugly girls wearing long socks and burning their bras.

In the next session, Black and White Uptight, the students discussed how much better the communication between black and white was in the younger generation. Both black and white schools were represented in this discussion.

Reporters from two out-of-state newspapers discussed recent actions of the Mississippi legislature and gave their opinions on these actions.

The last discussion was political. Representatives from the Loyalist Democratic party, the regular Democratic party, and the Republican party told the advantages of each party.

A resolutions committee, of which William Head was chairman, passed a resolution which asked the governor of the state to appoint a student to the Mississippi Board of Trustees of Higher Learning. The resolution was sent to Governor Bill Waller.

After the resolution was passed, elections were held. Officers selected were President of MIC, Margaret Peters, from Southern; Vice-President Butch Scipper, from Delta State; Treasurer, Linda Hall, from MSCW; MWSCA, Barbara Ross, from MSCW; and MCPA, Buddy Bynum, from Ole Miss. Executive Council-At-Large consists of Joseph Shields, of Alcorn; Riger Wicker, Ole Miss; David Armstrong, State; and Jerry McBride, MC.

William Head was elected President of the MIJCC. "As president of MIJCC, I will try to fulfill my job to the best of my ability. I would appreciate the support of all Hinds students in this endeavor," stated Head.

He added, "I think MIC was very educational and that it meant a lot to the students from Hinds who attended. Even though some junior colleges have begun to lose interest in MIC, I'm sure Hinds never will."

Hinds Choir Plans Forthcoming Tour

By CAROL DOUELL

Hinds Junior College Choir will go on tour Thursday, April 27 - Sunday, April 30, under the direction of Leslie Reeves, choir director.

Thursday, April 27, the choir will begin their tour performances with a concert at Pearl High School at 10:00 a.m. That night at 7:30, their second stop will be Crestview, Florida. Friday, April 28, the choir will spend the day in Disney World in Orlando, Florida.

Sunday, April 30, at 3:00 p.m., the choir will sing at the First Presbyterian Church of Gulfport, Mississippi, and that night at 7:00 a concert will be presented in Columbia, Mississippi, at the First United Methodist Church.

The 68 member choir will be chaperoned by Leslie and Mrs. Geneva Reeves, Barney McCann, and Mrs. Sophie Middleton, all members of the Music department.

The choir will sing selections including "This Still Room," "My Eternal King," "He Comes to Us," and "Kaleidoscopic Colors."

Under the direction of Barney McCann, the Men's Ensemble will sing "He Ain't Heavy," "Scarborough Fair," and "The Water is Wide."

The Women's Ensemble under Mrs. Reeves have selected "Window of the World," "Moving On," and "The River," while the Clefs' numbers include "Feeling," "Close to You," "Chantez," and "Moon Glow."

The choir's concerts will include both sacred and spiritual numbers, and they will close with lighter pop music.

This year is the first year in several years that the Hinds Choir has gone on tour. Reeves says, "It is our desire that the tour become an annual affair."

The choir members have worked on special projects to raise money to pay for tour expenses, the last being a spaghetti supper Friday, April 7. Other projects have been painting house numbers on curbs, car washes, bake sales, a basketball game, and a talent show.

Reeves states, "We are looking forward to the tour and would like to take this means to thank everyone who has cooperated with the choir on their special projects." He adds, "The choir members have done a splendid job in organizing and carrying out these projects."

Dorm Students Must Check Out

Ivan Rosamond, Dean of Men, has announced that all male students living in the dormitory should check out properly with their proctor before moving out of the dormitory.

Requests for rooms for next semester should be made at the time of check-out. Students must check out properly in order to receive a refund of their $10 room deposit.

Alumnus Award Given By Phi Theta Kappa

1941 Hinds Graduate Is Recipient Of Club's Annual Presentation

Thomas Hal Phillips, a 1941 graduate of Hinds Junior College, was presented the National Phi Theta Kappa "Alumnus of the Year Award" at the national convention in Rochester, Minnesota.

Phi Theta Kappa, a national scholastic society for junior colleges, selected Phillips from a list of nominees from across the United States.

Phillips, known to Mississippians as a novelist, screen writer, and former Public Service Commissioner from the northern district of Mississippi, graduated from Hinds Junior College in 1941 and continued his education at Mississippi State University and graduated in 1943. He later obtained his master's degree at the University of Alabama in 1948.

The son of Mrs. Ollie Fare Phillips and the late W. T. Phillips of Corinth, Phillips has won Guggenheim Awards in 1953 for "Kangaroo Hollow" and again in 1955 for "The Loved and the Unloved." He has also won the Rosenwald Award, the Eugene F. Saxton Award, the O. Henry Award, and a Fulbright Scholarship.

He has recently finished working on a movie which he wrote and produced entitled "The E Box" which will be released soon. He is also working on another movie entitled "The Loved and the Unloved" based on his award winning novel.

Phillips once wrote for the Tarzan movie series and wrote the original story and screenplay for the 40th anniversary Tarzan film.

Phillips' short story, "The Shadow of an Arm," was chosen as one of the best short stories of the last 50 years and has been published in many foreign languages. Among his other novels are "The Gildie Lie," "Search for a Hero," and "The Bitterweed Path."

He served for three years in the Amphibious Forces of the U. S. Navy, serving as captain of a ship which received an admiral's commendation for proficiency in the Mediterranean Fleet. He was commander of 24 vessels at the age of 22.

From the period of 1950 into the 60s, Hal Phillips lectured, primarily in the field of literature and writing at various colleges and universities which included: Millsaps College, Mississippi College, Blue Mountain College, University of Mississippi, Mississippi State University, Hinds Junior College, and Northeast Junior College.

Student Government Receives Criticism

Hinds Student Government, commonly known as Senate, is constantly under attack. This attack comes mostly in the form of gripes from students.

The students here believe that the Senate is an apathetic group. One concerned student said, "Senate never does anything — and never even tries to do anything!" This idea is much too prevalent, and it is not true.

Senate does try to make improvements and changes. One Senate committee is now working with the Cafeteria managers to try to get better food and more variety in our meals.

The WEC, which is a part of Senate, has been working for rule changes. Students have become increasingly more dissatisfied with girls' rules. So WEC made a list of rule changes and Senate gladly accepted the ideas.

But . . . the list had to be approved by the administration. Some of the proposals were passed, but changes in the proposals were made before passage.

Each week Senate sets up committees as necessary to look into situations on campus. That's all that Senate can do because that's all that Senate has the power to do.

Next time, before you criticize Senate, try to realize that with no power, Senate just can't do much . . . but Senate is doing the best it can with what it's got.

Success Of Formal Depends On Males

Thursday, May 4, is the date set for the Spring Formal to be held at the Zodiac.

Will the dance be a success? That is entirely up to the students of Hinds. It is up to the male students in particular because tradition deems it that boys should ask girls in the American date system, and the girls should sit, and wait, and hope. But reputation has it that Hinds males would rather sit at home than face the ordeal of a date. Is this true?

Of course, there are a few energetic, young female souls who will go out and try and find some way to reverse this system.

Is this the solution to our problem? Should more girls try this technique, or should the boys take the initiative and disprove this long-standing falsehood?

Since tradition deems it fit that the boys take the initiative, and since tradition is deeply engrained in all of us, the entire male population of Hinds Junior College should get a date and attend the Spring Formal.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last article in a three part series on the Hinds McLendon Library.

Special displays were set up in the McLendon Library to commemorate National Library Week, April 16-22, and International Book Year, 1972.

Suggestion boxes were set out on both floors of the library so that students could tell the librarians about needed improvements or changes.

Rating forms were also put out on the card catalog so that students could rate library service.

The library is an excellent place to do research. Students find the verticle file (upper left) to be very helpful, especially in finding source material for speeches and research papers. It contains various newspaper articles that have been clipped out and filed under various subject headings.

Downstairs, in the periodical room, are magazines and current newspapers to assist students in their research. By using the "Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature" (upper right) students can easily find magazine articles related to almost any subject.

Many students use the library as a place to study (lower right, p. 2, and middle left, p. 3). The quiet atmosphere makes it an excellent place for studying.

The library also features various displays for browsers. A display window in the foyer (lower left) deals with contemporary issues.

On the ground floor a showcase (lower right) is used to display new books that provide interesting reading and deal with current issues.

Mayo Discusses Education Ideas

I want to share with you some ideas gleaned from a little magazine European Community published by the European Community Information Service. Naturally, they're about education. Some of our parents of an earlier generation thought the European philosophy of education represented the ultimate in educational thought and was superior to our educational practices. This was natural since our forefathers brought with them from the old country their ideas concerning politics, government, education and culture; then modified them to fit a rambunctious, disorderly and rapidly expanding frontier society.

As a college student I remember a guest lecturer in some class told us that the Minister of Education in France sitting in his office in Paris could look at his watch any day and hour and tell a visitor what was being taught in all the classrooms in France and all the grades and subjects. As a college student then and as a teacher now I can admire the organizational genius of the French but such lock-step education defies our concept of good teaching and learning. Children and young people just do not grow and learn in such a foreordained and carefully planned educational structure devised by their elders.

But back to the European Community, the schools and universities of Europe are in trouble and an education revolution is taking place. European students and parents, long unhappy with 19th century methods, are — you guessed it — looking to the United States for new educational concepts and techniques that will better equip the young people to live and work in a highly industrialized society that must compete economically with all the countries of the world. This desire for more of the good things of life by more people has brought about this demand for radical changes in European education.

Raymond Georis in "Europe's Antiquated Educational System" states:

"The educational system is on trial, and pressure is building for a radical change. Europe's current system is out-of-date, backward-looking, and the gap is steadily widening between schooling and the realities of everyday life for which education is supposed to prepare young men and women."

"The content, teaching methods, and structure of today's education system mirror yesterday's society. Just as military generals are sometimes accused of being a war behind, so too teachers can be said to be a generation behind.

Young Europeans are being prepared today to fulfill the dreams of their fathers"

Linda Lipscomb Is Summer Missionary

By NANCY GORDON

Linda Lipscomb, Hinds sophomore, was selected by the Student Summer Mission Board in February to service as a missionary this summer.

She will work in Trinidad, Port of Spain in the Caribbean five miles off the coast of Venezuela. June 10 is the date she will be leaving Jackson. She will return to the states on August 19.

Two weeks ago Linda attended a meeting of 64 summer missionaries in Richmond, Virginia, to learn what they would be doing in the countries they are to serve.

Her main duties will be to take charge of Bible schools for children. She also will be doing general revival work with a team of three missionaries from different states.

By selling hot dogs and other snacks in the dorms this year the Baptist Student Union has raised money to pay Linda's expenses and to help with the expenses of other missionaries.

In commenting on her approaching trip Linda stated, "I appreciate the work BSU has done toward paying for the mission and I plan to work hard."

Registrar Announces Schedule Of Exams

By WAID PRATHER

Hinds Junior College's Spring, 1972, examination schedule begins Wednesday, May 17, and continues through Wednesday, May 24.

First exams on Wednesday, 8:00-10:00 a.m., will be those classes meeting Tuesday and Thursday from 10:50 a.m. to 12:05 p.m., and will be followed with tests from 10:00 a.m.-12:00 for classes meeting at 12:00 on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

Thursday's schedule will begin at 8:00 a.m. with examinations for Monday, Wednesday, and Friday classes meeting at 8:00 a.m., lasting until 10:00 a.m. Starting at 10:00 a.m. and lasting until 12:00, classes meeting from 9:25 a.m. until 10:40 a.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays will have their tests.

On Friday tests for classes meeting at 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays will be given from 8:00 a.m.-10:00 a.m. and from 10:00 a.m.-12:00 respectively.

Tests scheduled for Monday are, from 8:00 a.m.-10:00 a.m., for Tuesday and Thursday classes meeting from 8:00 a.m.-9:15 a.m., and, from 10:00 a.m.-12:00, for Monday, Wednesday, and Friday classes meeting at 10:00 a.m.

Tuesday's exam schedule includes Monday, Wednesday, and Friday classes meeting at 10:00 a.m. having examinations from 8:00 a.m.-10:00 a.m. From 10:00 a.m.-12:00 Tuesday, classes meeting Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12:15 p.m.-1:30 p.m. will have exams.

The final day of examinations, Wednesday, will open with tests for classes meeting Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1:40 p.m.-12:55 p.m. scheduled from 8:00 a.m.-10:00 a.m. The final test day, from 10:00 a.m.-12:00, will be for Monday, Wednesday, and Friday classes meeting at 2:00 p.m.

All students are expected to take semester examinations at the designated time. Any unexcused absence on the test date will result in an "F" for the course. Excused absences will result in an "incomplete" which must be removed during the next nine weeks period.

All fines on overdue books should be cleared through the library before taking the examinations.

Political Forum Held By Civitan In Auditorium

Civitan is sponsoring a Political Forum to be held Thursday, May 4, at 3:00 p.m. in the College Auditorium.

Candidates from the Fourth Congressional District will speak. These candidates are: Paul Pittman, Tylertown; Walter Brown, Natchez; Joe Moss, Raymond; Bob Prichard, Jackson, and Ellis Bodron, Vicksburg, all Democrats, and Thad Cochran, Jackson, a Republican.

A question and answer period will follow short introductory addresses by each of the candidates. Gene Lowery, Civitan President, said of the forum, "We of Civitan believe the best way to build better citizenship is through better awareness."

He added, "With students taking a more and more active role in our political process of today and with the new 18 year old vote, it has become increasingly more important for today's candidates and today's students to communicate effectively."

"Hopefully through a forum of this type we can open the line of communication for better relationships in the future. We urge all students and faculty to attend."

Lance Kneeland, sponsor of Civitan, said of the forum, "This is an excellent opportunity for the students of Hinds Junior College to become more familiar with the politics of their area."

WE TALK YOUR LANGUAGE

We know that the working men and women of our community have responsibilities to their families. Sometimes the budget gets a little tight . . . the kids are growing . . . their clothes are too small before they're worn out. We understand the situation. Most of us have families, too! Let us talk with you about what you need and how we can help you get it to keep your family happy.

Talmadge Lamar Tenhet Is Educator, Musician, Composer, Band Leader

Educator, musician, composer, and band leader, are but few of the qualities of Talmadge Lamar Tenhet, a member of the music faculty at Hinds who finds much pleasure in both working at Hinds and working with the Mississippi Educational Television System.

Born and raised in Drew, Mississippi, Tenhet became interested in music at age 13 and decided to join the band and play brass. However, the band director did not need a brass player but needed a clarinet player so Tenhet became a woodwind player and has never regretted it.

Known to his friends as Toby, he has attended all three of Mississippi's universities and has studied overseas as well. He studied at the American Conservatory in Fontainebleau, France and has also spent two summers at Eastman, earning 40 hours over his masters degree.

Tours Europe

In the summers of 1968 and 1971 Tenhet toured Europe with the University Orchestra of Eau Claire, Wisconsin under the direction of Dr. L. Rhoades Lewis with each tour lasting seven weeks. The first tour enabled him to spend two weeks behind the iron curtain in Hungary and Yugoslavia and enabled him to find out what musicians behind the iron curtain were doing. The second tour carried Tenhet to Scotland, Norway, Portugal, and Spain.

At Hinds Tenhet teaches Freshman and Sophomore Theory, Survey of Music Literature, and woodwind instruments. He has also been band director at two different times, first, after the death of Al Rowan, and second, after Don Hickman was involved in a traffic accident.

Tenhet who doubles on clarinet and saxophone is also a member of the Jackson Festival Orchestra and has just recently performed for an eight day stand at the Coliseum for the "Walt Disney on Parade." The orchestra has also played at the arts festival in Meridian for artists John Davidson and Freida Paine and in Biloxi for Edie Adams.

Scores Music

Feeling comfortable in serious music and jazz, Tenhet scored for the Hinds Stage Band two years when they went to Southern for the Southern Stage Band Festival where they were the overall winner in the junior college division.

He commented, "My time for scoring music falls between teaching at Hinds and playing in Jackson."

Former Governor John Bell Williams who studied trumpet under Sonny Hill played with the Jackson Symphony Orchestra at the Pops Concert in 1971 at the reservoir and Tenhet wrote the orchestral arrangement of "Tenderly" for him.

Tenhet became extremely involved with the Mississippi Authority of Educational Television when the music director of ETV asked him to score some music for spot announcements. From there he moved to scoring for programs that were being planned.

ETV Music

Already he has written the music for three main productions for ETV which include "Prince and Pauper," "Natchez Trace Documentary," and "Excerpts from Shakespeare."

The "Prince and Pauper" music is to be an hour and a half program and Tenhet explained that the music is designed especially for orchestra and young male voices."

"Natchez Trace Documentary" which is ready for broadcasting, is a history of the Trace told with the use of scenic photography conveying the natural beauty of our state.

"Excerpts from Shakespeare" is dramatized completely by puppets with some of the puppeteers from the National Theatre or Puppet Arts. The puppets will enact excerpts from such plays as "Hamlet," "Taming of the Shrew," and "Richard the III."

New Image

Commenting on the educational television in the state Tenhet stated, "Since ETV has come into Mississippi it has made a new image for the state in the field of education. Since the beginning of its operation they have won the Freedom Foundation Award, a first place from the Southern Educational Communications Association, two Ohio State Awards, and the Peabody Award. The Peabody award is the top national prize which is competed for by national networks and other educational stations."

Further commenting he said, "I speak highly of the ETV because it is a Mississippi network, operated, directed and used by Mississippians in the field of education."

Circle K Wins District Honors At Convention

Members of the Hinds Circle K Club have recently attended their 13th annual District Convention in Lake Charles, Louisiana.

Circle K President, Larry Temple, has reported that the club won the overall Scrapbook Competition and also placed second in the Gold Division of the Achievement contest.

Club secretary Rusty McMillan of Newton was one of three Outstanding Secretaries of the three state district consisting of Louisiana-Mississippi-West Tennessee.

David Womack, Lt. Governor for Division I of Circle K, was chosen as the districts Outstanding Lt. Governor.

At the convention club members participated in workshops and group discussions of club administration, projects, and membership.

Members attending included: Rusty McMillan, Bert Jackson, Ernie Flowers, Larry Temple, Ferrell Housley, David Womack, Ray Berry, Bill Devore, Stanley Beaty, John Davies, Connie Sprinkell, David Milling, David Ford, Dennis Bledsoe, Billy Harvey, William Head, Alan Trotter, Bob Boteler, Ronnie Curtis, Martin Dutro, Roger Grantham, Travis Tigrett, sweethearts Brenda Pierce and Debbie Shivers, and advisor Bob Hodges.

In August members of Circle K will travel to the International Convention that will be held in Denver, Colorado. This convention will bring representatives from all the Circle K Clubs throughout the United States, Canada, and Mexico together for a four day conference.

Awards Day Honors Thirty-One Sophomores

Thirty-one Academic and Technical students at Hinds Junior College received recognition Thursday, April 27, at the annual Awards Day program which was held in the college auditorium.

Sophomores with the highest average in each department were selected for the awards by the chairman of each respective department.

Hinds stage band under the direction of John Manchester provided the music for the program with Hinds President Dr. Robert M. Mayo giving the welcoming address. Academic Dean, Dr. Floyd Elkins, also gave the address of Academic Excellence.

Awards and their winners were: James Cassell of Port Gibson, Agriculture; Frank Cocke of Jackson, Art; David Morgan of Jackson, Biology; Shirley Howard of Crystal Springs, Business; Gary Smith of Vicksburg, Chemistry; Deborah Loyd of Jackson, Data Processing; Dean McCarty of Florence, DMT; Susan Hanes of Brandon, Drafting and Design Technology; Charles Gibson of Jackson, Economics and Accounting; and Raymond Sides of Jackson, Electronics Technology.

Others receiving awards were: Helen Kable of Jackson, Engineering Graphics; Brenda Carson of Jackson, English; Deborah Britt of Jackson, Foreign Language; James Chapman of Jackson, History;

Vickie Netherton of Jackson, Mathematics; Glenda Holland of Jackson, Medical Records Technology; and Deborah Beason of Vicksburg, Music.

Also receiving awards were: Ethel Davis of Jackson, Nursing; Michael Bain of Jackson, Boys Physical Education; Mary Grogan of Vicksburg, Girls Physical Education; Jimmy Hughes of Jackson, Physics; Walter Conerly of Jackson, Police Science; Ralph Alford of Vicksburg, Political Science; Adrian Whittington of Carthage, Pre-Veterinarian; George Schaffer of Vicksburg, Psychology; Bernice Morris of Clinton, Reading; John Jordan of Jackson, Sociology; and Beverly Sharp of Hazlehurst, Speech.

Receiving the award for Consistent Academic Achievement was Charles Ford of Vicksburg.

The Hinds Junior College Education Association also presented $150 scholarship to a second semester freshman whose major is in the field of teaching.

Awards Day chairman, Larry McFarlane stated, "This is a very important occasion because it is the only day set aside to honor students for their academic excellence."

ASB Announces Plans For Formal In Jackson

ASB Social Affairs Chairman Chris Smith has announced that the Spring Formal will be held Thursday, May 4, from 8-12 p.m. at the Zodiac in Jackson.

Sweetfever will provide music at the formal. Tickets for the annual dance went on sale Monday, April 17 at $5 each. Tickets must be bought before the dance because no tickets will be sold at the door.

Proper attire for the dance will be suits for males and formals for females.

Miss Fay Marshall, Dean of Women, issued this statement concerning hours for the formal in a memorandum to women students and head residents:

The request for women students to attend the dance at the Zodiac on May 4 and to return to campus at 1 a.m., May 5 has been and dated permission from her parents stating that the student will return to her home for the remainder of the night.

"Should a student reside too great a distance from Jackson to return to her home, she may visit in another student's home.

"To do this, a letter from her parents and an invitation from the hostess' parents must be filed with the head resident before 10 a.m. May 4."

considered by several members of the Administrative staff.

"Due to the fact that the dance is not a school sponsored activity, it will be necessary for each girl attending to have written, signed,

New Chapter Holds Meeting

Recently a new chapter of the Pentecostal Students Fellowship International was created on the Hinds campus.

The organization meets every Tuesday night at 6:30 in the Women's Day Lounge. Dianne Freeman, Secretary-Treasurer of PSFI said, "It is not just for Pentecostal students. We have been discussing the move of the Holy Ghost as presented in the book of Acts and as is visible today."

"We also tell of our personal experiences with Christ and hold prayer meetings. We invite everyone to attend our meetings."

Fairy Tale True?

By BILLY HARVEY

Long ago there was a sport known as baseball. A long, long time ago, baseball was the number one sport; everyone loved baseball, but as I said, that was a long, long time ago and soon the people grew tired of it because it was old and dottery and beginning to slow down. The people said that it was too slow so they just didn't watch it any more.

Then one day a young, handsome black man named Vida Blue walked up to the owner-manager of the Oakland Athletics—that was one of the baseball teams—and said, "I wanna play baseball," and the baseball manager said, "O.K. That's fine with me. Whatever turns you on." So Vida Blue picked up a baseball and started throwing it and started throwing it so well that the people said, "Hey, this is neat," and they started watching baseball again.

Then Vida noticed that he was good at throwing a baseball and that people were watching him, so he said to himself, "When it comes to throwing a baseball, I know I'm good. But they just aren't paying me what they should. If they don't start paying me a little more, I think I'll start working for a plumbing store." He meant that he was going to start selling bathroom fixtures, don't you see, because he was mad.

Well, the manager said, "Man, you trying to spoil the act? We done give you a Cadillac. You're asking too much for us to pay, so I guess you best be on your way." You see, Vida was asking for $94,500.

The boss said, "I'll give you fifty thousand, not a penny more," so Vida said, "See ya, man," and walked out the door—straight to the floor of a plumbing store. Like I said before, he must have been mighty sore to walk to the door of that plumbing store.

Oh, excuse me, I'm starting to talk in rhymes. Well, anyway, Vida went home and sat around waiting for a call from the boss of the baseball team telling him that they would pay him the $92,500. But the boss didn't call. And he kept on not calling. Vida started getting worried because he really did love baseball and it looked like the boss might not call him back to play the next year.

So Vida just sat around the house watching t.v. and every now and then he would wash his Cadillac, but the boss never did call.

Now, the moral of this story is: plumbers make a lot of money. That doesn't sound right. No, it's not right. How about: a penny saved is a penny earned? Naw, that doesn't have a thing in the world to do with the story. I know . . . don't count your chickens before they're hatched; yeah, that sounds alright.

UNDEFEATED — Freshman Ricky Pennebaker, the number one singles player for the Hinds tennis team, is shown in a recent match. ## Hinds Track Team Finish 3rd At Meet

By DENNIS BLEDSOE

In their latest action, the Hinds cindermen placed third at Co-Lin against Southwest, Jones, Holmes, and Co-Lin.

Boyd Sullivan lead the Eagles to one of their three first places, finishing the 220 yard dash in a time of 23.5 seconds. Sullivan also placed fourth in the 100 yard dash with 10.4 clocking.

In the three relays—440, 880, and the mile—the Eagles were able to take one first, one second, and a fifth place finish. The Eagles' fifth place finish in the 880 yard relay, which is usually one of their strong points, was due to a dropped baton during an exchange.

Larry Weems and Roger Grantham added two third place finishes to the Eagle total, with Weems running the 220 low hurdles in a time of 26.1 and Grantham recording an

In the field events, Robert Lee took the Eagles last first place finish by winning the high jump competition.

Others who placed in the field events were Jimmy Nail, third in the shot put; Bill Boteler, third in the broad jump; and Bill Baggett who finished fourth in the discus.

Annual Civitan Golf Tournament Success

Civitan's first golf tournament ended Thursday, April 13, with nine winners out of 23 entrants.

The tournament consisted of one championship round and three flights with first and second place winners in each division receiving trophies. The third place winner in the first flight won a set of golf balls.

Glenn White was the Championship winner with a total of 77 for the 18 holes. Second place winner was Otis Stampey with a score of 81.

First Flight was won by Russell Donald who came on strong in the second nine hole round and ended with an 81. A. L. Denton finished with a score of 87 and won second place. Third place went to Steve Huckaby who also finished with 87 but had a higher qualifying score than Denton.

Charlie Ray took the first place trophy in the second flight with a 93. Jack Blackburn came in second with a score of 94.

Ben Fatherree was presented the first place trophy in the third flight after shooting a 105 for the 18 holes. Second place went to Leonard Niven who came in with a score of 108.

Others who participated in the championship were Robert Amborn and Bobby Williams. Greg Morland, Charlie Foreman, Rich Garrison, Robert Graves, and Larry McFarland were other players in the First Flight.

Others playing were Lance Kneeland, David Dorsey, Preston Harris, and Stanley Moore in the Second Flight; and John Maxwell, Jimmy Turnage, and Jack Mann in the Third Flight.

Lance Kneeland, sponsor of Civitan, said, "I think with the availability and proximity of our golf course and with the numerous golfers on campus that this has been a needed innovation for quite some time. Hopefully we can now make this an annual event to spark even more interest."

Hinds Tennis Team Unbeaten

By BILLY HARVEY

Hinds' tennis team pushed its record to four wins and one tie when they played the Meridian net team to a 4-4 stand-off in their last action.

Undefeated Ricky Pennebaker led the boys' team with a 6-0, 6-1 victory over Barry Dawkins in the number 1 singles match.

In the two singles, Richard Puckett recorded win number two for the Hinds boys by downing Scott Stone 6-1, 6-2.

David Senseman and Glen Strickland added win number three for the boys' team as they easily defeated the Meridian doubles team of Mike Barnhill and Barry Kerr 6-0, 6-2 in the number 1 doubles match.

In the only loss for the boys' team, Stanley Harper and Rodney Swilley were defeated by Meridian's number 2 doubles team of David Nester and Rick Creel 7-9, 1-6.

After winning three out of four in the boys' matches, the girls' action saw a complete reversal with the Meridian girls taking all but the number one singles match.

Kat Webb recorded the girls' only win by defeating Laura Klimetz 6-0, 6-0 in the number 1 singles girls' match.

Meridian's Sally Neville won the number 2 girls' singles by defeating Mary Thomas of Hinds 4-6, 1-6.

In their first loss of the year, Josanne Ellis and Debbie Bowen fell to Meridian's number 1 doubles team by the score of 2-6, 2-6.

The last girls' match saw the Meridian girls' team record their third win of the day when Susan Bennet and Donna Ray defeated the Hinds number 2 doubles team 5-7, 6-0.

Registrar Announces Registration For '72 Summer School Session

Hinds will open its first session of Summer School Classes on June 12 with class registration being held from 8:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon.

The first five-week session beginning on June 12 will end on July 14 and the second session will begin on July 17 and end on August 18. Students may earn 12-14 semester hours in the ten week session or six to seven semester hours in a five week term.

For nondormitory students, fees are $10 per semester hour. Additional expenses for dormitory students include room and board fee which would be $75 with a five day meal ticket or $97.50 with a seven day meal ticket for each session.

Courses offered in the summer are identical and equal in quality to those of the regular session. This means that standards of the various accrediting agencies are met and that summer work is recognized wherever it is transferred.

Some courses carried on the schedules will not be taught if the enrollment is not sufficient to teach a certain course. Additional classes will be organized where there is sufficient demand for them.

Students wishing to schedule applied music courses for credit or no credit should make proper arrangements with the music staff. Also, suitable combinations of academic and vocational scheduling can be made.

All students must file or make application for summer school or to declare their intention of being in summer school. Transfer students may be admitted without regard to their academic status.

The admission of a student not eligible to return to his former college or who fails to meet re-admission requirements of Hinds implies in no way approval for continuing during the fall semester.

Persons desiring more information on the academic summer school program should contact the Registrar's Office.

Staff Receives Press Awards

By JAMIE WILSON

Three Hindsonian staff members won a first, second, and third in individual competition at the Spring Conference of the Mississippi Junior College Press Association.

Students winning awards at the two day convention, Friday and Saturday, April 7-8, were: first in photography - Houston Richardson; second in cartoons - Larry Riddick; and third in editorials - Brenda Boykin.

Workshops held for students attending the convention were on the topics of columns, features, and editorials. Speakers on these topics were: columns - Burlan Walker, Co-Lin; Features - Robert Oakley, Northwest Junior College; and Editorials - Miss Laney Wooten, Delta Junior College.

Anyone interested in membership should contact either Jamie Wilson, president, or sponsors Mrs. Betty Furstenberger and Miss Sandra Boyd.

Cleaning Old Raymond Cemetery Is Hinds YWCA's Spring Project

By JAMIE WILSON

Hinds' chapter of the Young Women's Christian Association, for its spring project, is cleaning up the antebellum cemetery in Raymond.

Members of the YWCA, sponsors, and volunteers use Clorox, water, axes, and muscle power to remove the dirt from the grave-stones and the brush from around the plots.

After obtaining permission from Raymond mayor, James Adams, the club purchased the supplies and is spending several days a week cleaning the separate areas.

Sponsor Mrs. Betty Furstenberger says of the club, "Our purpose is twofold: to provide interesting and worthwhile projects for the girls, and to aid in perpetuating our Southern heritage."

"This clean-up has been a history lesson as well as a spring project," commented YWCA member, Debbie Wells. The club started the job on a plot that was removed from the rest of the grave-stones. After much scrubbing the inscription was made visible. The gravestone was found to be in memory of a former governor of South Carolina, Steven Miller.

The YWCA has been active in its past projects of giving the Magnolia Speech School a Christmas party each year; and its future projects include a booth for the young children at the upcoming faculty picnic.

"Derby Day" Is Held April 27

Derby Day, sponsored by the WEC, will be held Thursday, April 27, beginning at 4:30 p.m. in the area between the Administration and Academic buildings.

Activities will begin with a cookout and picnic-style supper. Entertainment will be provided during this time.

Following the cookout, a variety of exercises and competitive sports will begin. These include a mixed softball game, tug-of-war, bicycle and tricycle races, and a pie eating contest.

A free dance will be held that night on the girls' tennis courts. Mississippi Rain will be the featured band for the dance which will begin at 8:00 p.m. and continue until 11:00 p.m.

Susan Hinton, newly elected WASB President said, "The WEC invites you to bring out your bicycles, make your pies, limber up your pitching arm, and sharpen up your waltz, for all will be in use on Derby Day, an afternoon and evening of excitement, fun and games."

Marie Hull Gallery Committees Chosen

Committees for the Marie Hull Art Gallery Dedication to be held Sunday, May 14, have been announced by Mrs. Robert M. Mayo.

Mrs. Mayo and Bob Dunaway are Overall Co-Chairmen for the dedication program. The publicity committee includes Mrs. Elaine Hughes, chairman, Mrs. Judy Lewis, and Bob Hodges.

Committee Chairmen in charge of the Dedication Program include Fred and Mrs. Brooks, Host and Hostess; Leslie and Mrs. Geneva Reeves, Music; George Alexander, Registration; and Walter and Mrs.

Gibbes, Display Room.

In charge of the reception are Mrs. Bob Dunaway and Mrs. Linda Graves, Refreshments; Mrs. Jo Hollman, Table Appointment; and Mike Hataway, Printing of the Program.

The Committee of Coordination which represents the Mississippi Art Association consists of Mrs. Scott Tennyson, Chairman, Mrs. James Canizaro, Mrs. James W. Nunn, and Mrs. Ross Moore.

The dedication program will begin at 3:00 p.m. and will be followed by a reception.

Special plans have been made for an entranceway to the gallery. These include a washed pebble walkway and an archway.

"We are inviting everyone to attend the dedication of the gallery May 14 to meet and pay tribute to this outstanding Mississippi artist," said Mrs. Robert Mayo.

Spring Pageant Set For May 2

Miss Hinds Pageant will be held Tuesday, May 2, at 8:00 p.m. in the college auditorium to select a representative for the Miss Mississippi Pageant.

The theme "I Wish You Love" will be carried throughout the pageant. Mrs. Anna Bee, the director of Hi-Steppers, is sponsor and coordinator. Blanche Creel, the reigning "Miss Hinds," will entertain while the Hinds Stage Band provides the music.

Dr. Robert M. Mayo will present the trophy and a one hundred dollar scholarship to the winner. The new "Miss Hinds" will represent the school in Vicksburg in the Miss Mississippi Pageant.

Contestants were selected by tryouts in front of Mrs. Bee and the Hi-Steppers. The contestants will be judged on poise, appearance, swimsuit, talent, formal attire, and a judges' interview.

Blanche Creel stated, "I would honestly hate to be a judge for this pageant. Each girl has a special quality of a winner. Although only one winner will be chosen, no one will lose."

Students Must Apply For Aid

Students who now receive financial assistance and wish to be eligible for aid next year must re-apply by the end of this semester.

Troy Ricks, Financial Aids Advisor, encourages all students seeking financial assistance to make application and fill out an ACT Need Analysis as soon as possible.

The financial assistance programs offered include College Work-Study, Educational Opportunity Grants, Hinds Junior College Work-Study, and Law Enforcement Education Grants.

Rabalais Lists Cheerleaders For Next Year

By CHARLES MOORE

Mrs. Polly Rabalais and the Hinds Cheerleaders selected the 1972-73 cheerleaders during a two-day Cheerleader Clinic, April 17-18, in the Girls' Gym.

Returning Hinds Cheerleaders are Becky Newton and Marilyn Muffletto. They will serve as co-captains.

Selected during the two day clinic were: Denise Wallard of Greenville High, Greenville; Janice Middleton of St. Aloysius, Vicksburg; Kathy Nunn of Murrah High, Jackson; Regina Cliburn of Forest Hill High, Jackson; Donna Guyton of Pearl-McLaurin, Pearl; Susan Burnham of Forest Hill High, Jackson. The selected Cheerleaders will serve for both football and basketball games.

The Clinic included two days with the first day involving registration and introduction and a session in cheers, chants, jumps, and pom pom. The second night consisted of a period for practice and then the actual tryouts. Contestants had to attend both sessions in order to be eligible for tryout.

Cheerleaders were chosen by a panel of judges which was made up of the 1971-72 cheerleader squad and sponsor, an officer of WASB and ASB, one member of the football and basketball teams, two former Hinds Cheerleaders, and one faculty member.

Sandy May, co-head cheerleader of 1970-72, said "This new squad has the spirit, experience, and ability to be the best cheerleaders Hinds has ever had. We are proud to have them take our place."

Hinds 1971-72 cheerleaders won three first place ribbons, one second place ribbon, and a third place ribbon at a USM Cheerleader Clinic held last August.

Mrs. Rabalais, cheerleader sponsor, said, "The girls worked real hard to win the three first place ribbons. This shows what a little hard work can do."

"This year's squad has been a tremendous squad, and it has been a pleasure to work with. I know Hinds will have an equally fine squad next year," Mrs. Rabalais added.

Gallery Dedication Held May 14

Dedication ceremonies of the Hinds Junior College Art Gallery in honor of Mississippi artist Marie Hull were held Sunday, May 14, at 3:00 p.m. in the Fine Arts Building.

A reception immediately followed the dedication program and the gallery remained open until 5:00 p.m.

Serving as co-chairmen of the planning committees for the program have been Bob Dunaway, chairman of the Hinds Art Department, and Mrs. Robert M. Mayo, wife of the Hinds president. A new entrance to the gallery has been constructed that includes a washed pebble walkway, archway, and garden area.

The welcome and introduction of dignitaries was given by Bob Dunaway with Dr. Sam Gore, Chairman of the Mississippi College Art Department, delivering the Invocation. R. E. Woolley, president of the Hinds Board of Trustees, delivered the dedicatory address followed by a history of the art department by Mike Hataway, a member of the Hinds faculty. Dr. Mayo also welcomed guests to the activities.

A native of Summit, Mississippi, Marie Hull attended Belhaven College in Jackson and later studied at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts in Philadelphia and the Art Students League in New York. She has also studied in France and Spain and spent several summers working with leading New York artists.

Some of her honors include being listed in Who's Who in American Artists and in Who's Who in American Women.

Mrs. Hull has had over 40 group show exhibitions of which some include: the New York World's Fair, the Golden Gate Exhibition, the Chicago Art Institute Annuals, the Atlanta-Southeastern Annuals, and the All-American National Shows.

Her one-man shows have numbered over 28 of which some have been at Brigham Young University in Utah, the Washington, D. C. Art Association, and the United States "Art in Embassies" exhibit. She has also had numerous one-man shows at various colleges and cities in Mississippi.

Many of Mrs. Hull's works are in permanent collections and public collections throughout the state and the nation. Her works through the years have brought many awards to her honor from exhibitions in Mississippi and throughout the United States.

The Committee of Coordination which represents the Mississippi Art Association for the dedication consisted of Mrs. Scott Tennyson, Mrs. James Canizaro, Mrs. James Nunn, and Mrs. Ross Moore.

Others serving on committees for the dedication included: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Reeves, George Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gibbes, Mrs. Bob Dunaway, Mrs. Linda Graves, Mrs. Jo Hollman, Mike Hataway, Mrs. E'aine Hughes, Mrs. Judy Lewis, and Bob Hodges.

Mayo Announces Self Study; V. Riggs Serves As Chairman

Dr. Robert M. Mayo, Hinds President, recently announced that preparations are now being made to begin an institutional self study as required each decade by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

The self study will be an evaluation of the complete college operation including philosophy and purpose. The major work of the study will be done during the 1972-73 academic year.

The following academic year a visiting committee representing the Southern Association will spend several days on the Hinds campus. The visiting committee's major responsibility will be to determine the validity and integrity of the self study and to report by an on-site visit to the college to the Delegate Assembly of the Southern Association.

To begin this study, the Southern Association recommends that a Steering Committee be established. The responsibility of this committee is to make committee appointments as outlined in the institutional self study program.

This committee includes: Mrs. Virginia Riggs, Chairman; George

Abraham; Dr. David Durham; Walter Gibbes, Bob Laster, Dr. Larry McFarlane, Miss Fay Marshall, and Rosser Wall.

The major part of the work will be done by members of the working committees appointed by the Steering Committee. These committees will be composed of instructors, staff members, students and in some instances board members and alumni. Administrative personnel will be used as resource people for all working committees involved in the study.

The self study will include the following nine areas of evaluation: purpose, organization and administration, educational program, financial resources, faculty, library, student personnel services, physical plant, and special activities.

Dr. Mayo said of this effort, "Since this is one of the most important activities in which faculty and staff are involved, we will need the combined efforts of all members of the college community. I have every reason to expect that your usual fine spirit of cooperation over and above your normal working responsibilities will be in evidence in this undertaking."

Sophomores Are Set To Graduate May 26

Delta State College President Chosen To Address Graduates

Dr. Aubrey Keith Lucas, President of Delta State College, will address 434 graduating sophomores at the 54th annual Commencement Exercises Friday, May 26, in the College Auditorium.

Prior to becoming president of Delta State College in 1971, Lucas was the Dean of the Graduate School, Coordinator of Research and Professor of Higher Education at the University of Southern Mississippi. He was an instructor at Hinds in 1956.

Professionally, he is a consultant to junior and senior colleges in curriculum, admissions, and records and organization and administration. Also, he serves as regional representative and consultant for Higher Education Executive Associates.

His other professional activities include being Chairman of the Management Committee of the Universities Marine Center; a member of American Association for Higher Education; on the Council of Graduate Schools in the U.S.; and in the National Association of University Research Administrators.

Publications by Dr. Lucas include The Mississippi Legislature and Mississippi Public Higher Education: 1890-1960; An Investigation of Auditory Discrimination and Reading Ability; and Higher Education Opportunities and Needs in the Meridian Area.

Dr. Lucas is a contributing author to the forthcoming History Of Mississippi and the author of consultative studies and reports.

He received his B.S. from the University of Southern Mississippi with emphasis in Education and History; he also received his M.A. from Southern with emphasis in the Psychology of Reading. In 1966 he received his Ph.D. from Florida State University with emphasis in the Administration of Higher Education.

Beginning the service will be James Furlow playing the organ prelude "Sketch in F Minor" by

New Vietnam Policy Provokes Questioning Of Nixon's Reasons

Some of us find it hard to understand the reasoning behind President Nixon's new policy in Vietnam. We can't understand what he hopes to accomplish by increased bombing, and a blockade of the North Vietnamese coast line.

Intensive bombing of North Vietnam has already been tried with negative results in the Johnson administration. A blockade of the North Vietnam coast line can have no immediate effect in the South. The effectiveness of a blockade must be questioned due to the history of failure during World War II and other wars. If all of these opinions are true, what then are Mr. Nixon's motives?

First to understand the new action the White House has taken you have to be aware of current trends in foreign affairs and the "Real Polilik" Mr. Nixon has always practiced. President Nixon is a politician of the first order. He is not only capable of using politics on the home front, but he also uses that same ability in foreign affairs.

The Chinese government has refrained as of this writing from any damaging remarks against the United States. There is no mobilization of a Chinese supply relief force. There has been no mass movement of troops by the Chinese. You have to wonder if there has not been a policy change by Peking since President Nixon's visit there.

Are the Red Chinese willing to sacrifice a defeat of North Vietnam for improved relations with the United States? As extra incentive for the Chinese a defeat of the North Vietnamese would not only be an embarrassment for Russia, but it would also decrease their influence there. A goal the Chinese have attempted for years to do. Especially since the defeat of Pakistan, which proved to be of considerable embarrassment for the Chinese.

President Nixon has put the United States and Russia in direct conflict in Southeast Asia. American ships and planes could now battle Russian ships and planes for control of the North Vietnamese coast. A situation that could easily spread into a global conflict. Why would President Nixon be willing to do this?

For the first time the Kremlin must realize that this isolated "little war" has the potential for their's as well as the world's destruction. They must as members of the human race awake and use all of their influence and power in persuading the North Vietnamese to end this horrible "little war."

AND THE WAR GOES ON

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

Since coming to Hinds Junior College, I have gradually witnessed a change in the administration and a change in the rules of this institution. I must admit that some of these changes have been for the good of the students, faculty and everyone involved. However, some of them should have never been conceived. Things would have been better left unsaid than said.

Change always invokes dissension; this cannot be avoided. There is always a group of students that will argue with everything that is done, good or bad. However, if a student feels that he can argue for the benefit of other students he should be heard. The administration is to be commended for this. They have tried to accept everything that was possible concerning student demands.

One of the main purposes of a Junior College is to afford the student the highest quality college education at the minimum of cost. How can a student get this type of education if prices in the bookstore are so high, he cannot afford them? The bookstore should not be in business if it cannot help the student out in this respect. The way it appears is that they are in business to make a profit, period . . . no concern for the student.

Change came to the grill . . . At first students were well pleased with this change. As time elapsed, the employees began complaining that their business was not as good as it should be. Why? Did it ever occur to them that if they were a little more courteous to the students, that the students would show them a little more respect? That is why business is off. Students just don't like to be treated in the manner that some of them have been treated. Of course, one reason for the drop in business could be the outlandishly high prices in the grill.

Change came to the cafeteria . . . Johnny Hairston should be commended for the way that he has improved the food, service and atmosphere of the cafeteria. It was the most noticeable change on campus this year.

It was not the intent of this letter to hurt anyone's feelings, but to bring to light a few things that should not be hidden . . .

David Dorsey

Editor:

"Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country." These famous words of Winston Churchill could be just as aptly applied today to the students of this college as they were to the masses of England during the second World War.

Churchill called for each citizen to do his duty for the betterment of the nation. Time has long since passed for the students of Hinds to do likewise.

On May 4 at 3 p.m. the Civitan Club sponsored a Political Forum. In attendance were the six candidates in contention for the office of Congressman from the fourth district. Not in attendance was an all too large number of student voters.

It would seem that having just been granted the vote would spark unbounding enthusiasm in a seemingly intensely interested young constituency. With political philosophies and editorializations taking place in dormitories and class rooms campus-wide, the poor attendance Thursday certainly gives them a hollow ring.

Along with each privilege also goes a responsibility and so it goes with voting. Each citizen must avail himself to finding out as much as possible about each candidate to insure the selection of the best possible candidate. Idealistic as this may be, it is the process by which this nation has chosen to select its political leaders.

To say the very least, the lack of interest shown Thursday was humiliating. And it is shameful to think that one of those gentlemen shall take his place in our Congress with that thought of Hinds Junior College students.

Gene Lowery

Dear Editor:

I would like to call to the attention of the Election Committee that every time applications are being taken for campus elections, the majority of the students do not know what is going on.

When elections such as Class Favorite, Homecoming Queen, and Student Government are held, all the students are entitled to an application.

I must commend them, however, on the last election. There was at least some effort made to let the student body know.

I would like to make a plea to the Election Committee that when they are taking applications for student elections to let all the students know. After all, I was under the impression that voter response was the object of any election.

Coaches Reveal Interesting Pasts During Interviews

By LARRY RIDDICK

After a year as a Hindsonian sports writer and having to deal with the men's coaching staff during all of that time, I decided to write a feature of the coaches since I didn't really know anything about them at all.

The coaches — Joe Renfro, Bob Garrison, Durwood Graham, and Danny Neely—are hard men to find. They're virtually never at the office at the same time you are and, so far as I can tell, absolutely never there all at the same time.

If they aren't holding classes in the gym, they are holding classes on the practice field, or with the sports teams on the practice field, or in the football field, or they are in some remote corner of the gym. At any rate, they are seldom to be found in the office.

Migratory Habits

Knowing well, from personal experience, of the migratory habits of coaches, I nevertheless set out to track them down. It was with the rarest of luck that I saw Coach Garrison only two minutes after I set out.

Five Iron

It was about 1:00 in the afternoon and gym class had just started. The boys were already on the field waiting for the ball and bats to arrive. Coach Garrison was meandering across the Greaves parking lot toward the practice field with a five iron and a bag of golf balls in his hand when I saw him.

Coach Garrison

"Coach! Coach Garrison, are you going to be in the office anytime today so I could interview you?" "What about?" he hadn't stopped or slowed his pace since I had approached him, but kept on walking.

"The men's coaching staff, and I just wanted to ask you a few questions."

He stared straight ahead as he walked, but his face looked as if he had been stricken. "Can't you get enough from the other coaches," he asked, "I'm afraid I'm not very interesting."

"I could, but I just want to ask you a few questions, like: what sports you played in college or did you win any awards?"

"That's not important now. Oh, I won a few awards, played basketball, but that's all over now. It's ancient history," he said. I began to feel like a nuisance.

We reached the practice field and he dropped the golf balls, picked up the five iron, took aim, and — whack! — drove the ball down the field into the trees beside the road.

"What made you decide to coach?"

Enjoys Coaching

"Oh, I don't know. Thought I'd thoroughly enjoy it, and I do. Most people can't say that, you know what I mean? The boys I've coached this last year have really made it the truth."

Whack! I was having to ask the questions between strokes. "What other subjects did you teach, and where else besides Hinds?"

Biloxi Coach

"Well, I minored in science, taught two years in junior high but soon went on to coach in high school. Started out at Biloxi coaching in high school, stayed there for nine years, then went to Pearl River for two, Holmes for four, and this is my second year at Hinds." Whack!

"Well, how do you like Hinds? Got any complaints?"

"I've thoroughly enjoyed it — the kids, the faculty, and above all the man I work for — Dr. Mayo. That may not sound right, but it's the truth. We've done good. Won the Southwest Tournament."

"Coach Renfro is an excellent fellow to work for as an athletic director so I have no complaint at all." Whack! "Except for the way I hit this five iron."

"We'd like to have a new gym; that's my comment. And, now don't get me wrong, we'd like to see a little more student support. Of course, we always need the students' support because they sure do help. Maybe we need buses to go to the games." Whack! "Alright, pick up the golf balls. Pick up the golf balls," he yelled to a boy with a cast on his foot that he had sent down the field for that purpose.

"Go easy on this article," he said, "I don't have too much use for these things — really."

Coach Garrison is not an egotistical man.

Then I crossed the street and went to the coach's office which was locked. I knocked on the door; nobody was there so I looked all over the bottom floor but found no one except the janitor.

Had he seen Coach Graham? No sir, he hadn't seen him, hadn't seen him all day. I gave up and went back to my room.

Open Door

Two hours later I decided to try again. I walked over to the office which was open this time but, of course, nobody was there.

I went into the weight-lifting room where a dark-skinned boy in a pair of gym shorts was leaning against the bench press. "Have you seen Coach Graham," I asked.

"No, I haven't seen him. Seems like everybody is looking for him today."

"O. K. Thanks." Then, as I was going out, a boy walked out of the coach's office. "Have you seen Coach Graham?" I asked for the twelfth time.

"Naw, I'm lookin' for him myself. He might be over to the football field." So I went over to the football field.

Coach Renfro

Luck was with me, I suppose, because Coach Renfro was bent over into the front seat of his car looking for something. Might as well talk to him while I could.

"Coach Renfro, will you have time for me to interview you for an article about the men's coaching staff?"

Wooden Cartons

"Got time now," he asked. "Sure." We went under the bleachers to get out of the sun, and sat down on some wooden cartons.

"Where did you graduate, what sports did you play, and what awards did you get?"

Tulane Grad

"I graduated from Tulane, lettered in football, baseball and track. I played in the Blue-Grey game in Montgomery. That was Christmas of '44. Played in the All-Star game in Chicago in '45, playing halfback and fullback in it and in the Blue-Grey. Let's see, I made all S.C.C. I was two years in that thing."

"Did you ever teach anything besides physical education?"

"Yeah, after four years in college I had a bachelor of arts and science degree and for my first two years I taught math and history at Gulf Coast Military Academy at Gulfport, besides coaching and what have you."

"When did you come to Hinds?" "In forty-seven. It's going to be twenty-five years, now, at the end of this month."

"What were your best seasons here at Hinds?"

"Well, we were National Champions in '54, number one in all divisions. Individualwise, I believe '57 was a fraction more talented. That was a good year. Oh, we had a couple of good years in the early sixties, but we didn't win them all."

"So far, how are things shaping up for next year?"

"After twenty-five years experience I'd say that it all depends on how many sophomores come back with the right attitude and how many freshmen come here next year with the right attitude."

"Have you got any comments or complaints or anything about Hinds?"

He paused a few seconds, thinking, then said, "In the stadium and outdoor sports you couldn't ask for any better, but as far as indoor and physical education, we need improvement there. Right now we're in the process of making a baseball field."

Hobby Includes Cooking

"Have you got any hobbies, golf, or fishing or anything?"

"I did play a little golf 'till I got my leg hurt — golf, fishing, cooking."

"What was that last one?" I thought I had misunderstood.

"Cooking."

"Well, think that ought to be enough. Thanks Coach. By the way, have you seen Coach Graham?"

"Yeah, he's over there on the football field, the man in the yellow shorts."

"Thanks."

He walked away talking about having to go to the library, or something like that, but he got too far away and I didn't understand him.

I had been dreading talking to Coach Joe because I had heard all sorts of rumors about him, but I found him to be friendly and easy to talk to.

Next, I walked across the football field to talk with Coach Graham. He was talking to some of the track guys when I walked up. One cheek was bulged out from the tobacco in his mouth.

"Coach Graham, when you have time I'd like to ask you some questions for a feature on the coaches."

"Is this for the Hindsonian or a big paper?"

"The Hindsonian."

"O. K. But you'd better talk to me now. I'm fixing to leave." He walked over to a bench, "Sit down, and take a load off your mind."

"Where'd you graduate from?"

"Southern."

"What sports did you play?"

"Played at L.S.U.—center."

He talked so quietly that I could hardly understand him. I forgot to ask about any awards he had received. "Why'd you start coaching?"

Graham Sports Minded

"Why'd I start coaching?" You'd have thought I'd shot him; he looked almost startled that I would ask such a question. "I've just been interested in and played sports all of my life, so that's what I decided to do."

"I started coaching at Hinds in 1958, then at Pucket from 1959 to 1970. Then I came back here."

"Do you have any hobbies?"

"Fish. I like to fish. I'm the best bass fisherman in South Mississippi. Tell him, Coolie." He and Coolie started talking about fishing line or something. I wasn't listening.

"Have you got any comments about Hinds, anything you like about it or anything need to be improved?"

He started laughing, turned and stared at me a moment. I felt like a fool.

Track Program

"Yeah, a great deal needs to be improved. Like the track program can't give scholarships. We just take the boys that want to run. Naw, we're going to improve. We're trying to get boys that really want to play football and get back the winning tradition that Hinds used to have."

As I walked away I was writing down some of the things that the coach had said.

"Whatcha doin'?" A boy dressed out for track was walking by me on his way to the gym.

"Oh, just writing a feature on the coaches."

English Department Experiments Will Deal With Current Issues

By JAMIE WILSON

Hinds Junior College English Department this semester has six sections of English 102 that deal with current issues rather than standard materials.

These current issue classes are taught by English teachers Miss Sandra Boyd and Mrs. Betty Furstenberger. The students enrolled in these classes are Boyd and Furstenberger's first semester students who wanted to participate and any other student interested in being a member. During registration special cards are held for them.

Boyd discusses her classes by saying, "The purpose of my classes is to develop the student's writing skills by using more sophisticated materials for their writing and to stimulate their interest in a variety of current topics which relate not just to English but also to different areas of study the student is involved in."

Diane McKey, Vicksburg freshman, says of Boyd's class, "It enables the student to know more about and become more interested in current affairs."

At the beginning of the semester the students are given a proposal sheet outlining the entire course and a "chat sheet." The "chat sheet" is a list of topics from which each student lists the ones which hold most interest for him. From these topics the instructor chooses the subject material for the class papers.

Kathy Cronia, Boyd's class, commented, "The chat sheet gives the student the opportunity to study something he is interested in rather than having the teacher tell him what to do."

One method used in grading papers in these classes is the contract method. In the contract method the student decides beforehand what grade paper he will do. A student may contract for an "A", "B", or "C"; there is no paper below a "C." The student is then given a list of topics from which he will write and a list of requirements. Each grade paper has different requirements and different topics to write on.

Debbie Wells, Furstenberger's class, said about this system, "I like the contract system because it helped me realize what level of work I was capable of achieving."

The requirements of an "A" paper are: 800 words, minimum length; eight cited sources, perfect mechanics, perfect manuscript form, and three drafts, two rough and one final.

Requirements of a "B" paper are: 650 words, minimum length; eight cited sources, perfect mechanics, perfect manuscript form, and three drafts, two rough and one final.

Requirements for a "C" paper are: 500 words, minimum length; four sources cited in the paper, no more than ten mechanical errors, perfect manuscript form, and two drafts, one rough and one final.

Boyd stated, "Most students go for the 'B' paper because the 'A' paper topics are difficult to research."

Sharon Strickland, Brandon freshman, commented on the contract system, "I think it's good because the student knows exactly what is required for each paper and it allows him to decide upon the grade he wants and the type of paper he wants to write."

Furstenberger says of her current issue classes, "I find that these have been, as far as total class participation is concerned, the most successful English 102 classes I have taught."

Furstenberger adds, "The traditional 102 research paper no longer becomes such an obstacle since the student is required to document all papers."

The current events classes are also required to write "in class" papers. Furstenberger explains, "In the course they will have five outside papers and in order to get personal response I'll have them write five in class, which of course will not be documented."

Mrs. Jim El Harris, chairman of the English Department, says of the current issues classes, "The students have enjoyed and taken new interest in the current issues of today because of this class. This interest will be reflected in the actions they will take in future years."

Anne Hardy Receives Yearbook Dedication

Hinds Junior College's yearbook, "The Eagle," was presented to the student body in a special assembly with the first copy of the annual being presented to English teacher, Mrs. Anne Hardy, to whom the annual was dedicated.

Carolyn Wooten, editor, said, "We believe this year's annual to be the best ever produced. Its theme is timely and it pictures much student involvement. The staff and I agree that the many hours spent in its production were well worth the effort."

After graduating from Hinds Hardy attended Mississippi State College for Women where she received her B.A. in English. She then received her M.A. from Mississippi College.

Hardy says of her honor, "It's been said humility is the first step toward greatness and I have just taken a step toward greatness."

The theme of the 1972 "Eagle" is "Unite for Progress" and staff members are Carolyn Wooten of Jackson, editor; Sheila Haynes of Clinton, assistant editor; Gene Lowery of Jackson, classes editor; and Sandra Lyons of Jackson, faculty editor.

Other editors are Rhonda Peoples of Pearl, organizations editor; Buddy Mayo of Raymond, sports editor; and Houston Richardson and David Milling, photographers; and Bob Hodges, sponsor.

Players Present Final Production

Hinds Junior College London Players presented Lorraine Hansberry's well-known play "A Raisin In The Sun," May 10/12 in the College Auditorium.

James Jackson, Jr., portrayed the part of Walter Lee Younger, which was played by Sidney Poitier on both stage and screen. Barbara Cage played the pivotal role of (Mama) Lena Younger, originally played by Claudia McNeil.

Janet Hayes played the role of Ruth, Walter Lee's wife, done originally by Ruby Dee. Michelle Henderson portrayed Beneatha, Walter's headstrong sister.

Ronnie Crudup acted the part of Travis Younger, Walter's son. Andrew Hodge played the part of Joseph Asagai, the Nigerian student. Ernest Freeman played the part of George Murchison, one of Beneatha's boyfriends.

Stanley Moore played the part of Karl Lender, the man from the Clybourne Park "improvement association," who comes to try to persuade the black family not to move into the white neighborhood.

Charles Berger and Rob Hamilton appeared as the moving men. Hamilton also served as stage manager and Berger worked the lights. Carroll Lee Dixon served as the special effects director.

Michelle Henderson said of the play, "This play has brought to the attention of our society the problem of Black Man vs White Man."

Jackson Coed Wins Award

Margaret McCluer, freshman from Jackson, was awarded the Hinds Junior College Education Association's teaching scholarship during the annual awards program held Thursday, April 27.

She is a graduate of Wingfield High School and is majoring in math. When she graduates from Hinds, she plans to transfer to Mississippi College.

The scholarship consists of $150 to be used to apply against her sophomore year's expenses. The scholarship is awarded annually to a deserving freshman who plans to continue his studies in the teaching field at Hinds. The fund was established in 1969.

HJCEA committee members for this year are James Baddley, Chip Reynolds, Norma Simmons, Neva Sprayberry, Joe Bigelow, Nell Ann Pickett, and Retta Porter, chairman.

PTK Chooses New Officers

Phi Theta Kappa elected new officers at its recent meeting, Wednesday, May 10, held at the home of Becky Drake, sponsor.

Newly elected officers are: president, Martha Carroll; vice president, Tandi Lawrence; secretary, Diane Blackwell; and treasurer, Patti Tipton.

Other new officers are: historian, Hilda Fleming; reporter, Jamie Wilson; representative, David Kelley; and senator, Sarah Willey.

Duties for officers and plans for next year were also discussed. It was decided that the club's policy concerning absenteeism would be strictly enforced.

Coaches . . .

"Coach Graham is a good man, a good Christian. He really is dedicated."

"Yeah. He seems to be. By the way, where is Coach Neely?"

"He had to coach a game in Jackson today. Well, I guess I'll be seeing you," he said as he walked to the gym sidewalk.

"Yeah, see ya."

Later I called the coach on the telephone: "Coach Neely, where'd you graduate from?"

Attended Hinds

"Well, I went to Hinds, and M. C. and graduated from Millsaps." A small child was making all kinds of racket in the background. The coach was eating a grilled cheese sandwich.

"What sports did you play?"

"At Hinds?"

"Well, anywhere."

"I played football and baseball. Played football at Hinds."

"Win any awards?"

"Yeah, my senior year at Millsaps I got Most Valuable Player. And the Jackson Touchdown Club gave me an award for Most Valuable Player."

"When did you come to Hinds?"

"You mean to coach? I came here to coach last year."

"Why'd you decide to start coaching?"

"I've always loved to play sports and its always been a part of my life. The time comes when you get too old to play anymore so you just do what comes natural. And I like associating with kids. It keeps you young."

"Have you any comments about what you like or don't like about Hinds?"

"Only thing, I'd like to see more participation on the part of the students. I can understand it with Hinds being so close to Jackson and most of the students commuting and all. Maybe if we have a winning team next year . . ."

"Well, I guess that's about all. Can you think of anything else to say?"

"Nope, I can't think of anything."

"O. K. Thanks."

"Yeah."

He was easy enough to talk to. I wish that everybody being interviewed could be so friendly.

All things considered, I think that we have a pretty fair bunch of coaches, even if you can't find them when you need them.

Who knows, perhaps if they work hard and stay here long enough they, too, may one day be Deans of Hinds Junior College — just like our past coaches.

Brenda Carson Receives Award

Mrs. Brenda Carson, Hinds sophomore, was selected as the recipient of the English Award on Awards Day, Thursday, April 27.

Carson has an eighth grade certificate of formal education, and she attended high school for only two weeks before she dropped out. She took the General Education Development test in 1970 and entered Hinds.

Carson, besides being a graduating sophomore, has three children and holds a full-time job at South Central Bell. Her husband, Kyle Carson, is graduating from Mississippi College this year. He is a history major, and is presently practice teaching at Clinton High School.

Mrs. Ann Laster, English instructor, commented on Carson's work, "Brenda's writing shows a skill and maturity far above the average student."

Choir, Ensembles Hold Concert; Faculty To Award Scholarships

The Department of Music at Hinds Junior College will present the College Choir and Ensembles in Concert on Sunday, May 21, at 3:00 p.m. in the College Auditorium.

Numbers that will be sung by the entire choir will include: "This Still Room," "Lacrymosa," "O Give Thanks," "My Eternal King," "I've Been Boked," "I Want Jesus," "Amazing Grace," "Kaleidoscopic Colors," "The Things You Are," "Love Is Blue," and "Close To You."

Numbers that will be sung by the Girls' Ensemble will be: "The River," "Movin' On," "A Wonderful Day Like Today," and "Windows of the World." The Men's Ensemble will sing "The Water Is Wide," "Gentle Annie," and "Music To Watch Girls By."

A mixed ensemble of boys and girls, The Clefs, will sing "Chantrez, Chantrez," "Scarlet Tree," "How Insensitive," and "Feelin'."

During the Sunday afternoon program two scholarship winners will be announced. One scholarship, the Lucile Bradbridge Davis Scholarship, named in honor of the former music director at Hinds, will be awarded to a student who is in his or her freshman year at Hinds and who is a music major. He must have an overall 2.5 grade average, achieved musical excellence determined by the music faculty, and must have been effective in overall contributions to the music department and the college.

The other scholarship that is to be awarded is the Lee Mayo Scholarship which is named in honor of the wife of Hinds President Robert M. Mayo. This scholarship is given to a returning sophomore music major who has achieved merit through contributions to the Choir and the music department.

Music director Leslie Reeves cordially invites the public to attend the concert Sunday afternoon at 3:00 p.m.

Poetry By Brantley, Lowery Made Ready For Publication

Two Hinds freshmen from Jackson, Danny Brantley and Richard Lowery, were selected to have their poetry published in the book, Annual Anthology of College Poetry.

Brantley, who is also editor of the campus magazine, The Magazine (formerly Lagniappe), is having his poem "Leaving You Behind" published. Lowery's poem "Storm" was also chosen for publication by the National Poetry Press.

Editor of the book, Dennis Hartman, says of his book, "The Anthology is a compilation of the finest poetry written by the college men and women of America, representing every state in the country. Selections were made from many thousands submitted."

Lowery has also had a theme published in Handbook for Student Writing published by Canfield Press and written by two members of the Hinds faculty. Miss Nell Ann Pickett and Mrs. Ann Laster. Lowery's work "Smells" was published along with works by other students from all over the United States.

This is Pickett's and Laster's second book; the first one was en-

Summer School Begins June 12

Hinds Summer session will begin Monday, June 12 according to Registrar, Miss Mildred Herrin.

The second term will begin Monday, July 17 and end Friday, August 18. Miss Herrin reminds all students "to make application as soon as possible if planning to attend summer school this year."

Graduation . . .

will present the graduates as they receive their degrees from Hinds President Robert M. Mayo. Dr. James D. Darham, Division Chairman: Mathematics - Sciences, will assist Dr. Elkins while George Abraham, Division Chairman: Communications - Humanities - Fine Arts, will assist Dr. Mayo.

Graduates will receive Associate in Arts Degrees and Associate in Applied Science Degrees, having performed the appropriate requirements as stated in the individual programs.

Westbrook Receives Title Of Miss Hinds

Debbie Westbrook, Jackson sophomore, was crowned Miss Hinds Junior College in the pageant held Tuesday, May 2, in the college auditorium.

She will represent Hinds in the Miss Mississippi Pageant in Vicksburg. Her talent was a pantomime and dance to "Mr. Bojangles."

The 15 contestants were judged in swimsuit, talent, and evening gown competition. Individual interviews were also considered in the judging.

Peggy Ervin, Bay Springs freshman, was selected first alternate, with Rhonda Peoples, Jackson freshman, being chosen second alternate. Third alternate was Patti Rummel, Madison freshman, and Madelyn Salerno, Jackson freshman, was named fourth alternate.

Debbie Westbrook was also selected Miss Congeniality and winner of the swimsuit competition.

Other contestants in the pageant were Gail Fortenberry, Lynn Calhoun, Janet Jones, Elaine Warren, Cindy Grubbs, Deleslyn Cooper, Ann Cox, Dottie Blanks, and Dee Crisler, all of Jackson; and Julie Brasfield of Lorman.

Woody Assaf was emcee for the program. Mrs. Anna Bee, director of the Hi-Steppers served as director of the pageant with Ech Hodges, Director of Public Relations, serving as assistant director.

The judges for the pageant were Mrs. Georgia Polk of Jackson, Frank Betts of Jackson, Mrs. Jim Payne of Jackson, Billy Boyd of Jackson, and Dan Greathouse of Vicksburg.

Staging was done by Rusty McMillan, Dennis Bledsoe, Ray Berry, Bill DeVore, and Ferrell Housley. Chris Smith and Stanley Baty were in charge of audio with David Womack and Sam Sumrall working the lights.

Entertainment during the pageant was provided by the Hinds Stage Band, the Hi-Steppers, and Blanche Creel, 1971 Miss Hinds Junior College.

Distribution Set For Magazine

Luciane Malvaney, co-editor of the HJC literary magazine, THE MAGAZINE, has announced that it will be distributed May 22-24.

THE MAGAZINE, formerly titled Lagniappe and then THE FERTILE STEER, will contain original creations by Hinds students in the fields of poetry, fiction, photography, and art, and will be handed out free of charge to the students of Hinds.

"We feel that we have a really good magazine coming out," said Malvaney, "and we want every student to be sure and get hold of a copy. Without a doubt, they will be amazed at the number of literate people walking around on campus that no one was aware of."

Copies of THE MAGAZINE will be placed around campus for students to pick up when they get the chance, and also several people will be distributing them by hand. "So," added Malvaney, "there is little chance of someone not getting a copy, and everyone should be on the lookout May 22-24 for THE MAGAZINE."

Ruth Boyd Dies In Wisconsin

Miss Ruth Boyd, former Hinds English and Debate instructor, died Friday, May 5, at her home in Whitewater, Wisconsin.

Boyd taught at Hinds from 1936-1955. Upon retirement from Hinds, she returned to her home state, Wisconsin.

Miss Lurline Stewart said of her, "She had shrewd wit and a delightful sense of humor. She was a hard taskmaster — firm but fair."

In 1955, the year Boyd retired, the yearbook, the "Eagle," was dedicated to her. The dedication stated, "A tireless worker herself, she demanded the best of her students and they were ever after grateful."
